West German Court Studies Spy's Fate

KARLSRUHE, Germany (UPI) — The West German Supreme Court today deliberates the fate of Soviet spy Horst Ludwig and three accomplices, all tried this week in the nation's most sensational postwar espionage case.

Chief Judge Heinrich Jagusch said the court's decision will not be announced until Saturday morning.

Ludwig is charged with having given Soviet agents in East Germany classified information he obtained while undergoing jet pilot training at the naval air base in Pensacola, Fla., and while stationed as a Navy officer in Germany and in Scotland.

Under the treason charge prosecutors demanded a sentence of five years at hard labor.

Ludwig's accomplice Fritz Briesmeister, a West German navy petty officer, also was charged with treason. A sentence of four years imprisonment was demanded.

Deadly Fog Persists Throughout State

United Press International
A deadly fog, blamed for many traffic accidents, persisted over Indiana today and snow added to the highway hazards.

Fog was reported all up and down the state for the second day in a row.

Snow was falling at dawn in the general area of South Bend. Occasional snow, drizzle or rain was expected throughout the day around Hoosierland.

Temperatures remained somewhat on the mild side, and the five-day outlook called for above-normal conditions to continue into the middle of next week.

Highs Thursday ranged from 34 at Lafayette to 46 in the Louisville area. Overnight lows ranged from 31 at Lafayette to 37 in the Louisville area.

Today's highs will range from 34 to 40, tonight's lows from 15 to the mid 20s, and Saturday's highs from the upper 30s to the lower 40s.

The five-day outlook indicated temperatures will average 5 to 9 degrees above normal through next Wednesday, with only minor day-to-day changes. Precipitation will total less than one-tenth of an inch with chance of some rain Tuesday or Wednesday.
