Can you use the simple card form 1040A or the new form 1040W to report your 1959 income tax?

The card form may be used by any individual with total income of less than $10,000, consisting of wages reported on form W-2 and not more than $200 in dividends, interest, and wages not subject to withholding.

Husband and wife also may file a joint return on form 1040A if their combined income does not exceed these limits.

By using form 1040A, you automatically claim the standard 10% deduction allowed by law for personal expenses such as contributions, interest payments, medical expenses, and the like. If your allowable deductions for these items is in excess of 10% of your income you should use the new form 1040W or the regular form 1040.
