Adult Farm Classes

Open Monday Night

A series of adult vocational agriculture classes will be conducted starting with an organizational meeting at the Adams Central school, sponsored by the A. C. voc-ag department. Martin Watson said this morning.

Watson, who teaches voc-ag at the school, said classes will start Monday at 7:30 p.m. with adult farmers especially invited. Topics for discussion will be soils, fertilization, and new and improved planting of seeds. Prospective farmers, as well, are invited to attend.
