Seven Short Years

Seven years ago, when General Eisenhower came to the White House, there was no doubt as to whether the United States or Russia was the greatest and most powerful nation in the world. The United States was the world leader in every phase of military might, in culture, in science.

Now, in just seven years, when President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev meet this summer, there will be great doubt as to which nation is the strongest, and which is the leader.

Seven years ago the farmers of this country were receiving good returns on what they produced—today they face depression prices for what they sell, inflation prices for what they buy.

The people of the United States are looking to a vigorous Democratic party to lead them from the chaos of Republican misadministration both in the nation and in the state, where "High-Tax Harold" Handley, and his weak-kneed partner, "Crawfish" Parker, have tried to bamboozle the Hoosiers for a second straight Republican administration, after the scandals of the Republican Craig administration.

Geneva Beats Parker Friday Night, 43-38

The Geneva Cardinals pulled in to a tie with the Berne Bears for the Adams county leadership Friday night by defeating Parker, 43-38, at the Geneva gym in the final game of the regular season.

Both Berne and Geneva have won 16 games and lost five. Parker led at the first quarter, 7-4, and the teams were tied at 15-15 at the half. But the Cardinals scored 15 points in the third period while Parker was limited to just three markers for a 30-18 Geneva lead entering the final stanza.

Larry Baumer paced the Cardinals to victory with 19 points, while Gibson tallied 14 and Slusher 12 for Parker.

Nellie Fox Signed To White Sox Contract

CHICAGO (UPI) — Nelson (Nellie) Fox, spunky Chicago second baseman who won the American League's most valuable player of the year award in 1959, was back in the White Sox fold with a new contract today.

Hank Greenberg, Sox vice president, announced Friday that Fox had signed a contract for his 11th season, becoming the 28th player to come to terms with the club. Eleven players are still unsigned. Fox, 32, led all league second basemen in fielding last year, compiling a .988 average with only 10 errors in 827 chances.

In other signings Friday, Chuck Essegian, who pinch-hit two home runs in the 1959 World Series for the Los Angeles Dodgers, signed 1960 contract for a reputed salary of $13,000.

In Lakeland, Fla., General Manager Rick Ferrell of the Detroit Tigers admitted there was "no chance" of getting all his top players on new spring training.

He announced the signing Friday of three reserve players, infielder Coot Veal, pitcher Al Pehanick from Toronto and 18-year-old outfielder Andy Kosko, a $65,000 bonus player.
