Miss Gallmeier Is Bride In Friday Ceremony

In a ceremony performed Friday at 6:30 p.m. at the St. John's Lutheran church, Miss Glendolyn Gallmeier became the bride of Chalmer L. Wolfe, the Rev. Edwin Jacob officiating.

The double ring ceremony was read by candlelight before an altar decorated with vases of white flowers and palms. W. E. Uffelman and the St. John's choir provided the music.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Gallmeier of near Decatur and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wolfe of Decatur.

The bride appeared in a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over crystal white taffeta. The fitted lace bodice featured a scalloped scoop neckline outlined with seed pearls and sequins and long sleeves and the bouffant skirt was fashioned with alternating cascades of Chantilly lace and tulle. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was caught to scalloped crown of pearls and crystal pendants and she carried a cascade arrangement of white roses and carnations.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Patsy Ann Miller and bridesmaids were Miss Myrna Anthony and Miss Carolyn

Wolfe, sister of the groom. The attendants were gowned in blue nylon chiffon over taffeta, featuring fitted bodices and accented by taffeta cummerbunds. Matching bow head bands completed their ensembles. The honor attendant carried red roses and bouquets of pink roses were carried by the two bridesmaids.

The bride's mother appeared in a pale pink lace dress with black accessories and the mother of the bridegroom chose a turquoise knit dress. Both wore corsages of red roses.

Harlen Shaffer served as his cousin's best man and guests were shown to their seats by Kenneth Gallmeier, brother of the bride, and Harley Wolfe, brother of the groom.

The American Legion hall in Decatur was the scene of the reception. Servers were Mrs. Martin Braun, Mrs. Norvin Buttemeier, Mrs. Ed Selking, Mrs. Frank Scheiman, and the Misses Betty Wolfe and Patty Ann Shaffer. Gifts were registered by Miss Beverly Fuelling and Miss Garnita Hartman and Miss Karen Reiter and Miss Jeanette Schroeder served the wedding cake.
