

Four separate makes of cars—each offering from 8 to 24 different series and models—were produced for the first time this year by the major U.S. auto manufacturers.

New York City is the largest market for kosher meat in the world—4,800,000 pounds a week, of which about 87 per cent is beef, 8 per cent lamb, and 5 per cent veal.

Plot Already Built On Edwards' Show

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—New guest stars and fresh plots are the bugaboo of every TV show from Perry Como to "Gunsmoke," but one video program is free of such headaches—Ralph Edwards' "This Is Your Life."

Ralph is troubled by too many new faces and plots. The genial emcee must select 39 guests from among thousands of suggestions for a "Life" treatment. "I guess we're unique in that department," Edwards said happily. "Everyone of our guest subjects has had a different life story. The plot is already built in, and there's nothing we can do to change it. The future possibilities are unlimited."

NBC-TV evidently agrees with Ralph. The network has signed the program for another two years. As it is, Ralph's eight years on the air gives him the distinction of having the longest-running program in a single time slot in the net's history—a fact in which he takes great pride. Despite the formal dignity Ralph exudes on his show, he is not above a sly trick on the people who kid "This Is Your Life."

Less than two weeks ago comedian-writer Carl Reiner kiddingly speculated that Ralph would appear on the Dinah Shore Show, on which he was appearing, to do a program on his (Reiner's) life. Several times he told Dinah, "I know Ralph is hiding in the wings somewhere. I've brought all my relatives out here. I'm ready."

Ralph happened to be watching the show.

"I decided to get even with him," Edwards grinned. "So on last week's Dinah show I appeared near the end of the program and announced that this was, indeed, his life. The show can be seen Wednesday night."

"It was the shortest notice my staff ever had," Ralph went on. "We did all the research and background material in record time. He thought it was a gag again. But this time we nailed him beautifully. We even returned to Dinah's stage and used her studio audience for our show."

For a Man's Man

(who's a sometime ladies' man!)

There's nothing more apropos to the occasion ... almost any occasion ... than the studied casualness of the Capps Co-Ordo Sport Coat. The rich fabrics and he-man styling (a sure hit with the ladies!) combine with Capps' exclusive "forward pitch" shoulder section for the best fitting, best looking sport coat you can own. The proof is in the wearing.

There's a "Wonderful Difference" in the feel of Capps' Clothes
