As we approach the Easter season we take stock of ourselves and look at ourselves in the light of God's Love. But what of God's Love? Well, let's look at John 3:16.
For God so loved the world that He gave... This is the fullness of God's love. "That He gave." He that gave man the earth and all that is therein; that gave the light, that we might see; that gave us in our creation, His own image —this, our Creator, who through the fullness of love gave to us all things—so loved the world that He gave His Son. He had given us all the things that He had created, and yet we had to have more. And He was willing to give more—He gave His Son! He gave of Himself.
On that fateful Good Friday, man gave His Son back. Gave Him back broken and bruised, His blood drained from His body; gave Him back with a crown of thorns. His raiment ripped from Him; gave Him back because man could not understand God's love. Do we still feel the same? Are we still unable to see the fullness of God's love?
The Christ stands again before us, for death could not hold Him. He stands before you and me. Let us bow down before Him and weep with joy! For God so loved the world, that He gave His Son."

Will you worship in the church of your choice this Sunday? You'll never be more at home than in church. God bless you.

The Better Way Risk-taking is both inevitable and essential to life. No one escapes it, from the business man to the scientist. As long ago as in Old Testament times, extraordinary men were taking extraordinary risks. Then, too, there were men of Faith, who elected to stand out and be different, taking calculated risks. The Greatest Risk was the one which Christ took of course, since His Faith was so great that He believed that by losing His life He would be gaining the redemption of His fellow-men.

Wayne A. Smith, minister Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. Lawrence Michels, supt. Sunday school for every age group including a nursery. The lesson for this week is: "Jesus The Master Teacher." It is not the circumstances of our life that give it character, but our relation to God under any circumstances.
Morning worship, 10:30 a. m.
Message by the pastor.
Christian endeavor, 7 p. m. Topic
"Born Over Again."
Evening service, 7:30 p. m. The YPMB society is sponsoring this service and will be presenting a Missionary Play plus special music.
Tuesday, the WMA will meet in the basement of the parsonage at 7:30 p. m.
Wednesday, 7:30 p. m., the "Hour of Power" mid-week prayer service.
Friday, 7:30 p. m., the Harvesters will meet in the basement of the parsonage for their first meeting of the new year.
You do not test the resources of God until you try the impossible.
If you think that it is impossible for you to get up on Sunday morning and come to church, think of the rich resources of life that you are missing. Come and worship with us.
