

Mrs. Robert Eldon Fosnaugh

Westfall-Fosnaugh Rites Read Saturday

Vases of pink gladioli and white pompons banked the altar of the Nelson Street Church of the Nazarene in Fort Wayne Saturday, where Miss Sharon Marie Westfall became the bride of Robert Eldon Fosnaugh. The Rev. L. E. Tucker, pastor, officiated at the ceremony. Music was presented by Mrs. Leo Habegger, organist, and Herbert Zuercher, vocalist.

Miss Westfall is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Westfall, 2105 W. Packard, Fort Wayne. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fosnaugh, route 4, Decatur are parents of the bridegroom.

Entering on the arm of her father, the bride appeared in a gown of rosepoint lace over tulle. The elongated bodice was detailed with a scalloped sash and neckline and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt featured a front panel of pleated tulle and a cascade of alternating ruffles of rosepoint lace and pleated tulle, swept into a wide train. A tiara headpiece of lace and pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a heart-shaped bouquet of pink roses and white hyacinths.

Mrs. Paul Westfall, sister-in-law of the bride, served as matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of pink satin, fashioned with a crushed midriff tied in a back butterfly bow extending into streamers. A matching headpiece and bouquet of aqua pompons completed her ensemble. Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Dorensel and Mrs. William Stator. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Sandy Fosnaugh, cousin of the groom, flower girl, and the bridesmaids were attired in aqua gowns identical in style to that of the honor attendant. The flower girl wore a pink satin frock with a matching headpiece and carried a basket of pink and aqua petals.

The mother of the bride selected a powder blue dress of embroidered silk organza with navy and white accessories. She wore a corsage of pink rose buds. A navy ensemble with navy and pink accessories was worn by the bridegroom's mother.

Marvin Fosnaugh served his brother as best man and ushers were Paul Westfall, brother of the bride, Leon Habegger and Steve Beavers, cousin of the groom. Steve Fosnaugh, cousin of the bridegroom was ringbearer.

A reception for 200 guests was held at the Emmaus Lutheran Hall immediately following the ceremony. The wedding cake was made and presented by Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hawkins of Decatur. Servers included Mr. and Mrs. Melvin R. DeVoe, Mrs. James Worman, Mrs. Gary Black and Miss Monda Tucker, all of Fort Wayne, Mrs. Richard Petersen, Lafayette, Mrs. Donnie Murray, Bluffton, and Miss Patty Nidlinger, Decatur.

When the couple departed for a two-week trip to Florida, the bride was wearing a beige suit with white and wedgewood blue accessories and a corsage of red roses. The new Mrs. Fosnaugh graduated from Central high school. Her husband, a graduate of Adams Central high school, and the International Business College, is employed by Klehn's Appliances, in Fort Wayne as an accountant. The couple will reside at 2203 1/2 Rehm Drive, Waynedale.

MRS. BAKER HOSTESS FOR PAST MATRONS CLUB

Mrs. Adrian Baker entertained members of the Past Matrons club Thursday evening. Mrs. John Doan presided over the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Robert Macklin, club president.

During the social hour, bingo was played, with all members receiving a prize. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Nilah Neil, Mrs. Raymond Snyder, and Mrs. Robert Krick. Mrs. Gene Hike will be hostess for the next meeting April 21.

ANNUAL BANQUET HELD FRIDAY AT ADAMS CENTRAL

A sparkling fountain illuminated with multi-colored lights was the focal point of interest at the annual Adams Central Sunshine Banquet Friday night. The annual semi-formal affair was held in the school cafeteria. An "April Showers" theme was carried out as gaily decorated umbrellas, clouds and raindrops added to the atmosphere. Dinner music by Chester Longenberger set the mood for the meal. The highlight of the evening was a talk by Irene Meyers, popular humorist and world traveler. Guests wished at a wishing well before leaving the cafeteria. Those present included Supt. and Mrs. Hugh Tate, principal and Mrs. Herman Frantz, Mr. and
