I. U. Swimmers
Help Batter
AAU Records

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (UPI)—Mike Troy and Alan Somers, both of Indianapolis, helped batter American swimming records Saturday in the finals of the National AAU championships in Yale University's 25-yard pool.

Troy won the 100-yard butterfly event in 33.1 seconds to set an American and meet record. The previous record of 33.4 seconds was set by Frank Legacki, Ann Arbor, Mich., in 1959. Legacki came in second.

Somers, like Troy an Indiana University student, swam the 440-yard freestyle in 4:22.6 to set an American citizen's record. The previous record was 4:28.2 by Ford Konno, Hawaii, in 1955.

Several other I.U. students, swimming unattached, placed in their specialties. Chet Jastrowski was third in the 100-yard breaststroke and fifth in the 200-yard individual medley. Frank McKinney took third in the 100-yard backstroke; Peter Sintz placed fifth in the 440-yard freestyle, and John Roethke was third in the 200-yard individual medley.

George Breen of Indianapolis was sixth in the 440-yard freestyle while swimming for the Indianapolis Athletic Club which finished sixth in the team totals.

Breen and Troy also won events Friday, the second day of the three-day meet. Breen took the 1,800-meter freestyle in 18:00.8 and Troy, one of three double winners, came home first in the 220-yard butterfly event in 2:12.4.

Musial Hits;
Cards Aim For
First Division

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI)—Solly Hemus thinks the St. Louis Cardinals have first division potential, an opinion shared by a few baseball people.

The Cardinals' little manager points to the deals they made during the off season and claims they strengthened his pitching and his bench. That they might have done, but they did nothing to help a porous defense.

Officials of other clubs tag the Cards as the poorest defensive club in the league, but Hemus isn't but that. He does admit he gave up defensive strength when he sent second baseman Don Blasingame to the Giants for Daryl Spencer and Leon Wagner.

"I hated to part with the guy, but when you finish seventh you have to make changes," explained Hemus. "I know Spencer will do a good job for us at shortstop and Wagner will help out at catcher. They tell me Wagner is a butcher in the outfield, but from what I've seen of him, I can't go for that."

The other players acquired by the Cards were pitcher Ronnie Kline, outfielder Bob Nieman and catcher Carl Sawatski.

Eyes First Division
Hemus figures by adding them to Ken Boyer, Joe Cunningham, Stan Musial, Bill White, Larry Jackson, Wilmer Mizell, Lindy McDaniel and Hrl Smith he has the groundwork for a first division finish.

"And once you are in the first division, it doesn't take an awful lot more to get you all the way," observed Hemus hopefully. The only part of his ball club set at the moment is the infield which will see Musial to first, Alex Grammas to second, Spencer at short and the hard-hitting Boyer at third.

Musial has been hammering the ball this spring like he did in his best years and there is no question in his mind, or Hemus' either, that he will tack a lot of points on to the sickly .255 average he compiled last year.

Hemus rates Grammas one of the best glove men at second in the league and "the Greek" hit .269 for him last season. Spencer, after a year of playing second, is happy to be back at short. His normal position, and also has been walloping the ball in exhibition games.

Boyer Well Recommended
Boyer's 1959 marks are enough to recommend him — 28 homers, 94 runs batted in and an average of .309.

For infield reserves there are George Crowe, Dick Gray and Wally Shannon.

Actually, Hemus has four first basemen for that is also the normal position of Cunningham and White, Musial and Crowe are the others.

But the St. Louis outfield material is such that Cunningham and White will be back out there as they were last season. Cunningham, a .345 hitter, will be in right and White is one of three candidates for the left field post, the others being Nieman and Wagner.

Curt Flood, who hit only .255 last season, will be in center and no matter who flanks him in left and right, Flood is going to have his work cut out for him. Ellis Burton, a .292 hitter last season, also will play center and probably will split.

Smith will be the No. 1 catcher with Sawatski behind him. A rookie, Chris Cannizzaro, who hit only .213 at Omaha last season, has been rattling base hits, all over Florida and may beat out Darrell Johnson, the ex-Yankee, for the third string berth.

Pitching Appears So-So
Kline, 11-13 with the Pirates last season; Jackson (14-13); Mizell (13-10); Ernie Broglio (7-12) and Bob Miller (4-3) will be the five starting pitchers with McDaniel (14-12) heading the bullpen corps.

Hemus rates Jackson among the best in the league and is high on both Broglio and Miller, the bonus baby who finally started to live up to his promise last season.

He also has a pitching candidate, right hander Bob Gibson, whom many National League hitters claim has the fastest ball in the league. Gibson won nine while losing the same number at Omaha last season and then was 3-5 with the Cards after they called him up.

Back of McDaniel for relief will be Marshall Bridges (6-3) and perhaps Bob Duliba, another Omaha graduate.

When it's all added up, it is easy to see why few share Hemus' optimism for a first division finish.

When Bathing
That "itch-all-over" feeling after a bath is no fun. This uncomfortable state is often caused by using too much soap, taking too many hot baths, or dry skin. Adding starch or bicarbonate of soda to the water helps, as does frequent use of lotions.
