OFFICERS ELECTED BY MONROE METHODIST W.C.S.

The Monroe Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service met Thursday evening in the youth room of the church for their April meeting.

After Mrs. Russell Mitchel had opened the meeting with a piano prelude, Mrs. Arlen Mitchel presented the devotion. Special music was presented by Mrs. Herb Fruechte and Mrs. James Nussbaum. The lesson on "The Work of the Church in Town and Country" was given by Mrs. Mitchel, who was assisted by Mrs. Rene Brandt, Mrs. James Lobsiger, Mrs. Gerald Cook, and Mrs. James McCullough.

Mrs. Glen Stucky, president of the society, presided over the business meeting. The following officers were elected to serve for the coming year: Mrs. Harry Crowmover, president; Mrs. Arlen Mitchel, vice president; Mrs. Glen Stucky, treasurer; Mrs. Paul Bahner, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Isch, promotion secretary; Mrs. Paul Lobsiger, missionary secretary; Mrs. Richard Everett, secretary of Christian social relations; Mrs. Sheldon Wagley and Mrs. Herbert Fruechte, secretary of local church activities; Mrs. Charles Workinger, secretary of student work; Mrs. Willis Gierhart, secretary of youth work; Mrs. James Michaels, and Mrs. Jim McCullough, secretary of children's work; Miss Virginia Burkhead, secretary of supply work; Mrs. Darrel Borne, secretary of spiritual life; Mrs. Paul Nussbaum, secretary of literature. The dismissal prayer was given by Mrs. Paul Lobsiger. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Howard Habegger, Mrs. Loren Burkhead, Sr., Mrs. Harvey Haggard, Mrs. Orval Lenhart, Mrs. Harold Rich, and Mrs. Glen Workinger.

CANCER FILM SHOWN TO TOWN AND COUNTRY CLUB

The C.L. of C. hall was the scene recently for a meeting of the Town and Country home demonstration club. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. William Keller.

Mrs. Oscar Miller was introduced to the club and showed a film on cancer. Program leaders, Mrs. Herman Heiman and Mrs. Homer Reace, gave the lesson on business management. Mrs. John Bayles presented the history of the song of the month and roll call was answered by "my personal idea of being rich." Mrs. William Meyers was in charge of the citizenship lesson.

The meeting was closed with the members repeating the club prayer in unison.

EASTER THEME USED FOR WESLEY POTLUCK DINNER

The April meeting of the Wesley Sunday school class of the First Methodist church was held recently in the dining room of the church. Tables were decorated in keeping with the Easter season for a potluck carry-in supper.

Following the meal, several hymns were sung. Mrs. Niland Ochsenrider was in charge of the devotion, reading the 17th chapter of John. She also read the stories of "Christ and the cedar tree" and the "Quality of Mercy," closing the devotion by leading the group in the Lord's Prayer.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Dortha Shady in the absence of the president, Mrs. Robert Rice. All members having birthdays in the months of March and April were presented Easter cookies baked by Mrs. Tim Sprague.

Hosts and hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Orval Baughman, Mr. and Mrs. Niland Ochsenrider, Mr. and Mrs. John Doan, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lewton, Mrs. Niland Neil, and Mrs. Raymond Walters.

NUTTMAN W.M.A. MEETS WITH MRS. LAISURE

Mrs. Pearl Laisure was hostess recently to the Women Missionary society of the Nuttman Avenue United Brethren church.

The leader for the meeting, Mrs. Clara Dague, opened the service with song and scripture taken from Matthew. Mrs. Wayne Smith then led in prayer, which was followed by a reading entitled "My Mother," read by Mrs. Amy Augenaugh.

The lesson on "Let's Discover Africa" was presented in playlet form by the group, directed by the leader. Mrs. Howard Rover presided over the business session, during which a silent auction was held.

Mrs. Iris Harkless was in charge of the candlelighting installation service for the newly elected officers. The consecration song was given by Miss Shirley Harkless.

At the close of the meeting, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. William Huss, Mrs. James Smith, and Miss Nellie Campbell, served refreshments.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY CONDUCTS MEETING

Prayer led by Mrs. Emery Hawkins opened the recent meeting of the Church of God Missionary society in the fellowship basement.

Mrs. Huston Bever, Jr. was in charge of the devotion. After the group had sung a hymn, Mrs. Bever read an article on "The Old Rugged Cross," the story of the crucifixion from the Gospel of Luke. In charge of the program was Mrs. Floyd Mitchel, who read prayer partner letters and articles from the Missions magazine on Africa. Mrs. Kenneth Mitchel read a poem prior to the business session.

The meeting closed with the missionary pledge.

Refreshments were served to 18 members, three visitors, and one child by the hostesses, Mrs. Paul Meyers and Mrs. Charles Frank.

MAGLEY LADIES AID HOLDS QUILTING MEETING

Mrs. Carl Bieherich and Mrs. Jesse Blume were hostesses recently for the Magley Ladies Aid group.

The day was spent quilting and embroidering quilt squares. The Rev. Settlege was in charge of the devotion. Roll call was answered by each member repeating a Bible verse. Mrs. Otto Hilbrand was in charge of the business session.

ZION LUTHERAN NEEDLE CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Members of the Zion Lutheran Needle club enjoyed a chicken dinner recently at the Fairway. An Easter egg hunt and a social hour were held later at the parish hall. Sixteen members and one child were present.

In an article on the Rose Garden club meeting, appearing in Thursday's edition of the Decatur Daily Democrat, the name of Mrs. Dale Moses was unintentionally omitted. Mrs. Moses presented the lesson at the Garden club meeting, speaking on seedlings.

Mrs. Raymond Crist will be hostess for the Monroe Better Homes demonstration club at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday. A lesson on insurance will be presented at the meeting.

St. Dominic study club will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Adrian Wemhoff.

Ronald W. Feller, son of the Rev. and Mrs. William C. Feller of Decatur, has been pledged to the Alpha Phi Tau society at Heidelberg College, Tiffin, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Kortewer returned Sunday from Rosewood Heights, Ill., where they visited their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Robert F. Underwood, for the past week.

Ed Fledderjohn, realtor at Columbus, O., who moved from Decatur 43 years ago, visited in Decatur today. He was an officer with the interurban company here, and came back to visit with Albert Scheiman, of route one.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Ross and Mrs. Arthur Irwin spent Sunday in Columbus, Ohio, visiting Miss Debra Hinkle, who is a patient at University hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Busche and daughter, Lena, were weekend visitors in Jacksonville, Ill., at the home of Henry Busche and family. While there on Sunday, they attended the dedication of the Crist carillon for the Annie Merner Chapel at MacMurray College. Henry Busche directed the MacMurray College choir which sang the Requiem by Gabriel Faure. The MacMurray choir will again sing at the general conference of the Methodist church, to be held the latter part of May in Denver, Colorado.

Over 2,500 Daily Democrats are sold and delivered in Decatur each day.
