Miss Ruth Mae Weber To Be Wed July 24

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Weber, route 2, Decatur, have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their eldest daughter, Ruth Mae, to Cecil Heffelmire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Heffelmire, route 1, Atlanta.

Miss Weber, a graduate of Adams Central high school, is a senior at Concordia Teachers College, River Forest, Ill. Her fiancé is engaged in farming.

Nuptial vows will be exchanged by the couple July 24 in St. Paul's Lutheran church near Preble.

MONROE BETTER HOMES CLUB MEETS RECENTLY

Mrs. Raymond Crist was hostess to the Monroe Better Homes demonstration club Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Glen Stucky assisted. Mrs. Ervin Stucky, president of the club, opened the meeting by leading the group in repeating the club creed. This was followed with evening devotions given by Mrs. Glen Stucky, who then gave the history of the song of the month, "All through the night," and led the group in singing it.

The lesson for the month on gardening was presented by Mrs. Willis Gierhart. During the business session, the club voted to give $5 to the I.F.Y.E. program and plans were made to serve the election dinner in May. Roll call was answered by 16 members and three guests.

For the health and safety lesson, Mrs. Oscar Miller, a member of the Profit and Pleasure club, showed a film on cancer. Workers were then named to canvass the town for the cancer drive next week.

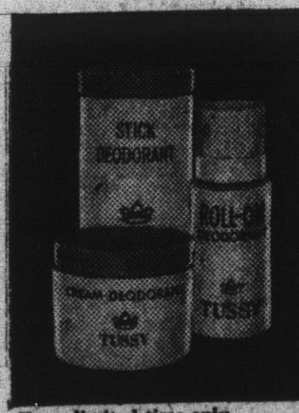

The hostesses served refreshments in keeping with the Easter season during the social hour.

Miss Myers Becomes Bride Of Robert Doan

In a candlelight ceremony performed Saturday at 6:30 p.m. in the First Methodist church, Fort Wayne, Miss Gwendolyn Kay Myers became the bride of Robert Lee Doan. Dr. Thurman Morris received the double ring vows in front of an altar banked with palms and vases of white gladioli and chrysanthemums. Music was provided by William Wetzel, organist, and Robert Cochran, vocalist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ora O. Myers, 1031 Curdes, Fort Wayne. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John M. Doan, 522 Jefferson St., Decatur.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, selected a gown of white tulle and long tapered sleeves. The bodice featured a scoop neckline and rose lace appliques which were repeated in the skirt. The chapel length train fell from two roses at the waist of the bodice. Her illusion veil showered from a seed pearl crown and she carried a cascade bouquet of white sweetheart roses and hyacinths.

Miss Sandra Metzger served as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Eleanor Ann Myers, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Richard Scovill. All the attendants were attired in powder blue embroidered cotton sateen sheath dresses with chiffon overskirts. They wore light blue petal chiffon hats and carried white carnation corsages edged in bright blue. Sweetheart rosebuds and white carnations were carried by the maid of honor.

The mother of the bride selected a light blue ensemble with white accessories. Mrs. Doan wore a navy blue silk crepe dress and navy accessories. Both pinned corsages of pink roses to their costumes.

John E. Doan served as best man and guests were seated by David Brown, Charles Myers, and Stewart Schneff.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. Servers included Mrs. Stuart Trainer, Mrs. James DiSanto, and the Misses Janet Camp and Jean Hyndman.

For a wedding trip south, the bride wore a gold and white silk shirtwaist dress with bone accessories. The new Mrs. Doan graduated from the Parkview-Methodist school of nursing. Her husband received his B.S. degree from Ball State Teachers College. He teaches at the Lincoln school. The couple will reside at 305 South 5th street, Decatur.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Kohne, of Lafayette, are leaving today on a three-week vacation at Canteel Bay Plantation, Virgin Islands. The Kohne family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barbieri, and family, of Fort Wayne, and Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Neuer, of Fort Wayne, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kohne.

David Torrence, Jr., has returned to his home in Columbus after a 10-day visit with his great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvy Bollenbarger.

S/Set. and Mrs. John J. Walters and family of Camp LaJeune, N.C. are spending a 15-day leave with his mother, Mrs. Lullie Walters of Decatur, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Miller and children Geof and Gwen, will return to Purdue Tuesday after spending Easter vacation with Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Bormann.

David Runyon is home from Indiana University for spring vacation. Runyon, in his senior year at I.U., will be a counselor at Culver Military Academy this summer. He expects to return to I.U. next fall to obtain his master's degree.

Mrs. H. O. Perner and son, Justus of Omaha, Neb., have been visiting her sister, Mrs. Roy Runyon, and family. Justus Perner has retired from the Air Force, where he served 20 years as a sergeant.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Shaw and Miss Aida Allwein of Shelby, Ohio, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Allwein and Mrs. F. G. Allwein.

Three Charged With Traffic Violations

Two Decatur motorists will appear in city court Thursday at 4 p. m. to answer city police charges. James Duane Bowman, of 422 S. 13th street, Decatur, will answer a charge of running a stop light.

Larry DeWayne Bittner, of Decatur, will also appear to answer a charge of running a red light at Monroe and Second streets. He was arrested at 11:25 p. m. Saturday. A third violator, Betty Ruth Neuschwander, 16, of Craigville, will appear in justice of the peace court Saturday at 2 p. m. to answer a charge of running a red light at 13th and Monroe at 3:25 p. m. Saturday.
