ART GROUP TOURS EXHIBITS
AT BALL STATE COLLEGE

Thirteen members of the Art department of the Woman's club motored to Muncie Sunday afternoon to tour the Ball State art gallery. David James, an art student at Ball State Teachers' College, conducted the group through the various exhibits.

A one-artist show by Alice Welty Nichols, chairman of the college's art department, was currently being featured. The works, all modern in feeling and technique, included caseins, oils, watercolors, collages, drawings, and prints.

Also viewed with great interest were the extensive permanent collections of the gallery. Among these was the Florentine room containing a large and valuable display of Italian paintings, carvings, and furniture. Jewelry, glass, pottery, and sculpture were also included in the collections of this gallery, which ranks among the finest in the country in number of original masterpieces.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the trip consisted of Miss Glennys Rupp, Miss Vera Van Buskirk, and Miss Catherine Weidner.

met after temple recently at the Moose home. Twenty members were in attendance.

The meeting was presided over by the vice president, Mrs. Cletus Schnepf. Mrs. C. L. August and Miss Grace Lichtensteger served as hostesses. Luncheon was served from tables decorated with yellow crepe paper and spring flowers. Individual place settings were marked with colorful paper umbrellas, matching larger umbrellas which centered the tables.

At the conclusion of the meeting, games were played and prizes awarded the winners. Mrs. Robert Garard won the door prize.

GALLMEIER-ANTHONY VOWS
SPOKEN IN MARION

In a ceremony performed Easter Sunday at 3:30 p.m. in Marion, Miss Myrnesth Anthony became the bride of Kenneth Gallmeier. The double ring ceremony was read in front of an altar banked with palms and vases of white snapdragons and chrysanthemums. Music was provided by Mrs. J. R. Reece, organist and friend of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones of Marion. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gallmeier of near Decatur.

The bride, given in marriage by her stepfather, appeared in a floor-length gown of white embroidered organza, fashioned in princess style with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline, and long tapered sleeves. Her illusion, lace-edged veil showered from a crown of seed pearls and she carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

Miss Leah Anthony attended her sister as maid of honor and Mrs. Chalmers Wolfe, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Both were attired in light blue sheath dresses styled with matching lace overskirts. They were matching headpieces and carried cascade arrangements of pink carnations.

The bride's mother selected a blue lace dress with blue accessories and wore a corsage of red roses. A flowered chiffon over taffeta frock was worn by the groom's mother, which she accented with white accessories. A yellow rose corsage was pinned to her ensemble.

John Neireiter served as best man and Bob Beasum was groomsmen. Guests were ushered to their seats by Dwight Anthony, brother of the bride, and Chalmers Wolfe.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church basement for approximately 250 guests.

For an eastern wedding trip, the bride changed to a plaid suite, accented with black accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Mrs. Gallmeier graduated from Sweetser high school and is employed at the Marion hospital. Her husband graduated from Monmouth high school and International Business College and is employed at Fisher Body Division of General Motors in Marion. The couple will make their home in Marion.
