

Humphrey-Kennedy Debate Over WOWO

A phase of American politics that has almost been forgotten will return tonight as radio station WOWO will broadcast the Humphrey-Kennedy debate from Charleston, W. Va. The debate is one of the highlights of the campaign season as the two Democratic presidential aspirants vie for support in the West Virginia primary of May 10.

The debate is not being carried nationally by any network. WOWO, through its Westinghouse affiliation, is offering the program to interested listeners in this area. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m., Indiana Standard Time, and will last one hour.

Pleasant Mills Alumni Banquet On Saturday

The Pleasant Mills high school alumni association will hold its 40th annual banquet Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the Pleasant Mills gym. This banquet is being held in honor of the 1918 class which was the first graduating class of the school. A most remarkable feature of this class is that all members are living and expect to attend this affair. Some of the members of the original faculty will also attend.

Jerry Price, president of the association, announced also that the class of 1960 will be guests and will be welcomed as new members of the association and that the class of 1935 will celebrate its 25th reunion on this occasion.

8,388 Boxes Of Girl Scout Cookies Sold

Registration Opened To Girl Scout Camp

Registration for Limerlost Girl Scout Camp Ella J. Logan opened Monday, it was announced by Mrs. Clarence Carlson, chairman of the Camp Logan committee. All registered Girl Scouts have received camp folders with detailed information and registration forms.

concerning Camp Logan.

The fee for Camp Logan is $35 per session with an additional $7.50 fee for out-of-council campers. The program is based upon Girl Scout program fundamentals, including camping skills, nature, dramatics, music, crafts, games, outdoor cooking, and skills in living together. The campers will take canoe trips on Lake Wawasee, Lake Tippecanoe and the Barbee chain of lakes, and on the Elkhart and Tippecanoe rivers.

The camp is located on Dewar

Lake, near Syracuse, and there will be four sessions of camp: June 27-July 8; July 11-July 22; July 25-Aug. 5; and Aug. 8-Aug. 19. Limerlost council is made up of six counties: Adams, Allen, DeKalb, Huntington, Steuben and Wells. All Intermediate and Senior Girl Scouts in these counties, including girls who will enter the fifth grade in the fall, are eligible to attend. Girls who were members of troops that have disbanded within the last year may also attend.

A counselor-in-training unit designed for those girls who wish to prepare for future counselor experience, is offered. It presents an opportunity to practice leadership, group work and programming, combined with the fun of special interests. Applicants must be 16 years of age or entering their junior year in high school. There are two sessions: June 27-July 22, and July 25-August 19. The cost is $48 per session.
