Kleinknight
Hurls No-Hit
Win Wednesday

Rudy Kleinknight pitched himself a masterpiece Wednesday afternoon as the Decatur Yellow Jackets' southpaw hurled a no-hitter as the Jackets shut out the Winchester nine, 5-0, at the Worthman field diamond.

Only three Winchester batters reached base, as Kleinknight walked two batters, and one reached first on Decatur's only error of the game.

Decatur's attack wasn't exactly robust, either, as the local Jackets obtained only three hits, two in the final inning against the second Winchester tosser.

Decatur gave Kleinknight the only run he needed in the first inning when Walters was hit by a pitched ball, advanced on an infield out and scored on an error.

Two more scored in the fifth on a walk, hit batsman, an error and Rambo's hit. The last two tallies counted in the sixth on a walk, two errors and Gay's triple.

The Jackets will open their Northeastern Indiana conference schedule this afternoon, entertaining the New Haven Bulldogs, defending champions, at Worthman field at 4 o'clock.

Dodgers Drop
Four In Row;
Yanks On Top

By FRED DOWN

United Press International

The Dodgers are all shook up today because an old pal and an old nemesis returned to haunt them.

Toss in a couple of clutch hits by Del Crandall and it all added up to a triumphant return to Los Angeles for Milwaukee Braves Manager Charlie Dressen and a fourth straight defeat for the stumbling world champions Wednesday night.

Manager Walt Alton sought to end the Dodgers' losing streak by shaking up his lineup and starting Don Drysdale on the mound but Dressen countered with Bob Buhl, and the hatchet-faced right-hander from Saginaw, Mich., bested the Los Angeles ace, 2-1, with a glittering three-hitter.

Batterymate Crandall supplied all the offense Buhl needed with a run-producing single in the second inning and a homer that snapped a 10 tie in the ninth.

Buhl, a long-time Dodger nemesis, whipped them five times last season and now has a 21-4 career record against them.

Buhl was typically wild with six walks but he struck out five batters and the Braves threw up a tight defense behind him that left seven Dodger runners on base.

The victory, the Braves' fifth in six games, moved them to within two games of the first-place Pittsburgh Pirates in what is now a tightly-bunched National League field.

Cubs Beat Pirates

The Chicago Cubs handed the Pirates their second straight loss, 5-1, the Cincinnati Reds shaded the San Francisco Giants and the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-3, in the other National League games.

The New York Yankees took over first place in the American League when they topped the Detroit Tigers, 4-2, and the Baltimore Orioles downed the Chicago White Sox, 6-4. The Washington Senators beat the Cleveland Indians, 7-6, and the Kansas City A's defeated the Boston Red Sox, 5-3.

Alton's new lineup had Gil Hodges at third base and Bob Aspromonte at shortstop but the Dodgers were helpless against Buhl except in the fourth inning when a walk, Duke Snider's double and an infield out produced their run. Drysdale's record is now 3-3.

Dick Ellsworth, 20-year-old bonus left-hander, pitched a five-hitter for the Cubs, who dealt Bob Friend his first loss with an eight-hit attack that included Frank Thomas' third homer in two days. Ellsworth struck out four and walked none in facing only 31 batters.

McLish Wins First

Cal McLish, acquired in one of Frank Lane's controversial winter deals, won his first game for the Reds and snapped Willie Mays' 16-game hitting streak in the process. Shortstop Roy McMillan delivered the game-winning blow when his single snapped a 2-2 tie in the sixth. Jack Sanford suffered the loss for San Francisco.

Joe Cunningham's two-run single snapped a 3-3 tie in the eighth inning and enabled St. Louis' Marshall Bridges to win his second game. Carl Sawatski had singled to tie the score after an error by shortstop Joe Koppe started the Redbird rally.

The Yankees, who were in seventh place on this date last year, moved into the AL lead behind a six-hitter by rookie Bill Short.

Elston Howard's two-run homer in the sixth inning was the blow that wrecked Frank Lary, who entered the game with a 2-1 lifetime mark against New York.

Roger Maris led the eight-hit Yankee attack with two doubles and a single.

Wynn Kayeod Again

Right-fielder Al Smith's error led in the tying run and Brooks Robinson's two-run single followed as the Orioles overcame a 4-2 White Sox lead.

Early Wynn, a White Sox lead, was 22-game winner last season, was 22-game winner for the fourth straight time but relief pitcher Frank Bauman took the loss. Hoyt Wilhelm, whose dancing knuckler caused Gus Triandos to make a league-record-tying four passed balls, was the winner with relief help from Jerry Walker.

Jim Lemon homered with one aboard in the seventh to give the Senators their fourth one-run victory in their last eight games. Lemon, who also knocked in two runs with a double, shared game slugging honors with Cleveland rookie Walt Bond who drove in four runs with two homers.

Lou Boudreau
Appointed To Manage Cubs

CHICAGO (UPI) — Lou Boudreau, a Chicago Cubs radio announcer for the past two seasons, today took over as the Cub's manager with "some very definite ideas of my own" for improvement.

Boudreau, 42, was named Cubs' manager Wednesday in an "inter-family" switch which moved former Manager Charlie Grimm, 61, into Boudreau's job as sportscaster.

The "trade" was jointly announced by Cub General Manager John Holland and Ward Quaal, vice-president of radio station WGN. Boudreau will finish out Grimm's one-year contract as manager of the Cubs, and Grimm will take over the balance of Boudreau's pact with WGN, the announcement said.

Outlines Plans

Boudreau, who will be managing a major league team for the fourth time in a career that included capture of the American League's Most Valuable Player award in 1948 and its batting crown in 1944, lost no time in outlining his plans.

"I've had a good opportunity to watch the Cubs from an off-the-field perspective for the past two seasons and I've got some very definite ideas of my own on how to help the club," Boudreau said.

First off, Boudreau said, the pitchers have not been wisely used.

"They are arm-weary. The first thing I'm going to start work on is the pitching," he said.

Has Own Ideas

"They are going to have to learn to pitch themselves out of trouble. They're not going to have the solace of looking toward the bullpen and see reliable Don Euston getting ready to take over," he said.

Boudreau said he won't need to be filled-in on details by the old manager.

"I've got a book on the National League clubs," he said. "I have my own ideas and the club is going to have to follow them."
