Cardinals Win
In Pony League
Opener, 9 To 3

Scoring eight runs in the second inning, the Decatur Cardinals opened their 1960 Pony League season Wednesday evening with a 9-3 victory over Geneva at the Geneva diamond.

Geneva took a quick lead with a run in the first inning on two walks, an error and a wild pitch. But the Cardinals combined five hits with two walks, a fielder's choice and a wild pitch for eight in the second. Ed Minch, Greg Ladd, Dave Anspaugh and Dan Lose all singled, and Willie Putteet climaxed the rally with a triple.

Geneva picked up single runs in each of the third and fourth innings, and the Cardinals closed out the scoring with one in the fifth on three walks and a single by Terry Conrad.

The Cardinals were scheduled to play at Monroe this evening, but rain caused postponement until Friday, June 24. The Monroe-Cardinals game scheduled for July 7 at Monroe has been changed to Friday, July 8.

First Hole In One

Claude Van Kleeck, Van Wert, O., golfer, recorded the first hole in one of the 1960 season on the Decatur Golf course on Memorial Day. His ace was on the 125-yard par three fourth hole. He used a nine-iron for his shot from the tee. Playing with Van Kleeck were Buck Le Valley, Clyde Ford and Nib Elliott, all of Van Wert. Van Kleeck will receive several items for his feat from Golf Digest clearing house.

Ladies League

The Ladies league opened play Wednesday, with Honora Haugk and Lil MacLean posting identical 49s for the nine holes. Marguerite Saylor won the low putts and Lil MacLean the blind bogey. Starting next Wednesday, the ladies will begin matches and ringer scores. All ladies are invited to play at 1 p.m. each Wednesday.

Skinny Brown
Limits Yanks
To One Hit

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

A pitcher Paul Richards once scorned as "line drive Brown" is making the Baltimore Orioles' leader look like the manager of the year.

His full name is Hector Harold (Skinny) Brown and he's traveled the hamburger circuit for much of his 15-year career. But along with the rest of Richards' kids and castoffs he's caught a severe case of early-season pennant fever and Wednesday night he came within one pitch of no-hit fame.

The 35-year-old native of Greensboro, N.C., yielded a first-inning homer to Mickey Mantle and then went on to beat the New York Yankees, 4-1, without allowing another hit. The victory boosted the Orioles' American League lead over the rained-out Cleveland Indians to 2½ games and was their sixth triumph in seven games and their 10th in 12.

Baumann Tiger Killer
Frank Baumann, who has scored six of his 15 big league victories against Detroit, pitched the White Sox to a 6-0 win that handed the Tigers their fifth straight loss in the only other American League game. Washington's two-nighter at Boston was rained out.

The Pittsburgh Pirates retained their game-and-a-half grip on first place when Bob Friend shut out the Cincinnati Reds, 5-0, the San Francisco Giants shaded the Chicago Cubs, 2-1, the Milwaukee Braves beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-3, and the St. Louis Cardinals scored a 5-2 win over the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League.

Rookie shortstop Ronnie Hansen hit a three-run homer off Duke Maas to give the Orioles the lead in the fifth inning and Brown took it from there.

The White Sox nudged Jim Bunning for two runs in the fifth and then raked up Tom Morgan in a four-run ninth featured by homers by Earl Torgeson and Gene Frieze.

Friend Throws 3-Hitter
Friend pitched a three-hitter for his third shutout and sixth win of the season as the Pirates ran their winning streak to five games and their season record at home to 18-5.

Sam Jones pitched a five-hitter and doubled home the winning run in the ninth inning to win his sixth game. Jones struck out seven and walked one.

Wes Covington drove in two runs with his third homer and a double and Joe Adcock singled home two runs as the Braves snapped a four-game losing streak. Bob Buhl went the distance for his fourth win.

Ken Boyer drove in two runs with a single and his 13th homer and Daryl Spencer doubled in two runs for the Cardinals.

Summer Program
At Adams Central

Amzie Miller, Adams Central high school coach and also director of summer recreation for the community, has announced recreation plans for the summer.

The Monroe Pony League team began play this week, and the Adams Central Little League will open next Monday, with both major and minor league divisions.

The summer afternoon program will start Monday, June 13, and be in operation until Friday, Aug. 12.

In the afternoon program, the gym will be open Mondays from 1:30 to 3 o'clock for ping pong, badminton, volleyball and shuffleboard. Tuesdays, from 1:30 to 3, there will be Little League and Pony League practice on the school field, for boys aged 8 to 14. Wednesdays, from 1:30 to 3, there will be basketball practice for all of this year's 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grade boys. This will be the only activity in the gym and all prospective basketball players are urged to be present. Miller will be the instructor.

Thursday afternoons, the school will be used for band practice, and there will be no other activity. Friday, from 1:30 to 3, there will be baseball practice at the field for all boys from ages 8 to 14. The major Little League will play Monday evenings and the minor Little League Thursday evenings. The major league is boys assigned to a team from 8 to 12 years of age. The minor league is 8, 9 and 10-year-old boys only.

Team To Practice

All members of the Indians Morning league team are asked to report at the Stratton diamond at 10 o'clock Friday morning. Coaches for the team are Jim Rumschlag and Steve Blythe.

Injured Race Driver
Reported Improved

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — Eddie Russo, slowly recovering from injuries suffered in Monday's 500-mile auto race, was reported in fair condition at Methodist Hospital here Wednesday night. He was the only driver injured seriously in the Memorial Day classic.

Russo, 34, Kansas City, Mo., underwent surgery Tuesday for a badly lacerated scalp and a severe facial cut. He also suffered a brain concussion when his car smashed into the retaining wall on the southeast turn after a tire wore through.

Willie Pastrano
Beats Sonny Ray

CHICAGO (UPI) — Willie Pastrano, a dancing light heavy-weight who extended his winning streak to six bouts Wednesday night, will forsake the United States for his next scrap, he said today.

Pastrano, a unanimous victor over Sonny Ray in 10 rounds, planned to go to Glasgow, Scotland, for a 10 round match with Chickie Calderwood for $10,000, which he said "I can bring back with me."

Pastrano, a New Orleans native now living in Miami, said that he would like to get a title chance at 175 pounds with the light heavy-weight champion Archie Moore, but he didn't anticipate the chance.

"I guess my best chance would be for him not to be able to make the weight and try to fight heavyweights," he said. "Then if they'd have a tournament for the light heavy weight championship, I could get in it, and I could win it."

Pastrano, 24, had little trouble with Ray, from Chicago took his 10th loss in 34 fights and Pastrano racked up his 35th win 45 outtings.

Neither fighter ever was off his feet and it appeared that there was only one solid blow, a right hand to the head by Ray in the 9th. But Pastrano said "he never hurt me."
