Getting The Facts

The young men and women of the Decatur area, in fact more than 500 of them, have now started the annual summer reading program.

This year for each book read between June 1 and the end of the program, a sticker with a president's picture will be placed on the youngster's card, kept on file at the library.

To complete the program, at least ten books must be read during the summer. Some read more than 100 books. During the first ten days of the program, only one book may be taken out at a time—otherwise, all the books would be out, and some would not get to read.

Reading habits are developed when we are young, and reading for pleasure increases the speed with which we can comprehend written facts.

Adults should remember that the library is always there for their enjoyment, too. Nearly every question can be answered by a little research at the library. Garden sections, historical sections, encyclopedias, and of course thousands of fiction books are present.

Keep a book or two on hand to read during the slow moments of the summer. You will be pleasantly surprised at the enjoyment you get from reading a good book. It will increase your conversational ability with friends, too, and your background of general information.

Nearly every book on every subject is available through the inter-library exchange program, too. So remember your local library this summer, and fill your life with more pleasure by reading in your spare moments.

Law Shuts Out
Phillies, 8th
Win Of Season

By MILTON RICHMAN

United Press International

The Pirates are using strong-arm methods but no one can stop them because they've got the Law on their side.

That would be 30-year-old Vern Law, an ordained minister of the Mormon Church and a pitcher without a peer right now in either of the major leagues.

Law, who has been beaten only once, became the first big league pitcher to win eight games this season when he blanked the Phillies, 3-0, Friday night. The Pittsburgh ace yielded eight singles and walked one batter, to lead the Pirates to their sixth straight victory and keep them two games in front of the pack.

The Phillies lost not only the game but also the services of shortstop Joe Koppe, who will be sidelined six to eight weeks as a result of injuries received when he collided with teammate Tony Curry. Koppe dislocated his right wrist and Curry was suffering from shock.

Giants Down Cardinals

The Giants defeated the Cardinals 3-2, the Braves beat the Reds, 6-4, and the Cubs scored a 10-inning 6-5 win over the Dodgers.

In the American League, the Indians climbed to within 1½ games of first place with a 6-2 victory over the Tigers, the Senators cooled off the league-leading Orioles, 4-1, the Athletics downed the White Sox, 7-2, and the Yankees broke a three-game losing streak with a 4-3 decision over the Red Sox.

Southpaw Mike McCormick won his seventh game for the Giants with a six-hit effort against the Cardinals. Joe Amalfitano struck the big blow when he hit his first major league homer with one on in the third inning.

The Braves won their third game in a row on a barrage of four home runs although Don McMahon had to halt a ninth-inning rally by the Reds to preserve Carlton Willey's third victory.

Altman Breaks Tie

George Altman's 10th inning pinch single, which scored Don Zimmerman from second, ended a three-hour and 32 minute marathon between the Cubs and Dodgers. Duke Snider hit the 360th homer of his career in the ninth with one on to tie the score.

Jim Perry and Johnny Klippstein teamed up for Cleveland's victory over Detroit. Perry won his fifth game although Klippstein relieved him in the seventh with the bases full, struck out Al Kaline and hurled hitless ball the rest of the way.

Had Woodeshick of the Senators snapped Baltimore's three-game winning streak with a five-hitter that earned him his second victory.

Kansas City scored its sixth victory in the last seven games by handing Chicago its 10th loss in 14 game. Mark Thronberry had a homer and two singles to pace Kansas City's 11-hit attack against loser Early Wynn and two relievers.

Six Of Commodores
On CIC Loop Team

Al Lindahl, Decatur Catholic high school coach, has received word that six members of the Commodores baseball team have been placed on the all-conference team of the Central Indiana Catholic conference, selected by coaches and players of the four schools.

Jerry Gillis, Steve Omor and Tom Kohn were named to the CIC first team, while Fred Kauffman, Phil Lose and Steve Blythe were awarded honorable mention.

Two Phillies
Are Added To Injured List

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — This just doesn't look like the Philadelphia Phillies' year.

As if they didn't have enough trouble, the last-place Phils were informed today that shortstop Joe Koppe will be lost to them for six to eight weeks.

At that, the Phillies got off lucky. They came mighty close to losing their star rookie outfielder—Tony Curry—also in a bone-jarring collision against the Pittsburgh Pirates Friday night.

Koppe and Curry both came together with tremendous impact while trying for Rocky Nelson's pop fly in the third-inning. Curry, batting .343, sprawled unconscious but was revived by oxygen in the dressing room.

Players Hospitalized
Both players were taken to the Temple University hospital, where Koppe was found to be suffering from a dislocated bone in his right wrist and a sheared styloid process of the right elbow. His arm will be set today. X-rays of Curry's chest proved negative but he remained in the hospital overnight because of shock. The Phillies also lost the game, 3-0.

The latest Philadelphia mishap occurred while Jack Meyer, Philadelphia pitcher who was fined $1,000 for "horsing around" in a Pittsburgh hotel room, appeared ready to withdraw his threat to sue the case to Commissioner Ford Frick.

Meyer's injury resulted in his being placed on the disabled list along with rookie outfielder John Callison, who suffered a knee injury. Koppe and Curry were the fourth Phillies injured in the span of a week.

Denies Appeal Planned
The latest report from Meyer, bedded down in Jefferson Hospital with a slipped disc, was that he denied saying he planned to hire a lawyer to plead his cause with the baseball commissioner.

Meyer insists his back injury was suffered May 14 in Cincinnati and that manager Gene Mauch knew of it. The Phillies levied the heaviest fine in the club's history, claiming Meyer hurt his back in a rough-house session in Pittsburgh.

"I feel the club is asinine to be so demanding and god-like when they don't have the complete story—or if they do have it," Meyer said.

Big Ten Probing
I.U. Violations

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (UPI) — Indiana University, still smarting from the four-year athletic probation imposed by the NCAA, now is under Big Ten investigation for football recruiting violations other than those which prompted the NCAA action.

Prof. John F. Mee, I.U. Big Ten faculty representative, confirmed the existence of such an investigation Friday, but added that the conference charges are directly associated with football and not with any other sport.

He said a hearing on the matter will be arranged at the Big Ten's Chicago office "within days" after the I.U. commencement exercises next Monday.

Mee said about six separate cases were under conference scrutiny, but would not give an exact number or details concerning any of the accusations.

"But," he added, "it is no secret that we are being investigated."

The I.U. campus has been buzzing with rumors concerning the immediate future of the Hoosier football program and the possible fate of head coach Phil Dickens ever since Big Ten Commissioner Kenneth (Tug) Wilson took the case under advisement following the conference spring meeting at East Lansing, Mich., several weeks ago.

Unpopular Decision
In Friday's Fight

NEW YORK (UPI) — Welterweights Emile Griffith and Jorge Fernandez were practically rematched today for a return 12-round bout at Madison Square Garden July 19 because of the near-fifth's unpopular split decision at St. Nicholas Arena.

Chairs and rubbish were hurled from the gallery into the ring and press section when it was announced that clever Griffith, 22, New York, had won the 10-round verdict over slugger Fernandez, 24, of Argentina in their nationally televised fight.

how to eliminate the funeral bill at time of sorrow

Instead of letting the burden of funeral expense devolve on the family when bereavement comes, why not prepare for sorrow in advance by pre-arranging funeral costs. This not only eliminates lump-sum payment but also protects the family from emotional overspending. Call Zwick's today for full particulars.
