14 Films Available At Public Library

The Decatur public library has 13 of the 16 mm films on deposit from the Indiana library film circuit for the month of June. Residents are invited to reserve the films for showing to organizations, clubs, church groups, etc.

Information on these and other films which will be available in succeeding months may be obtained from Miss Bertha Heller, librarian.

"Adobe City"—16 min., color. Shows Santa Felisa City of three cultures: Indian, Spanish and Anglo.

"Art In The Western World"—30 min., color. Treasures from the National Gallery of Art in Washington are used to present the development of Western art, starting with the 13th century. Includes the development of art in the United States.

"Battling 'Blue Fins'"—22 min., color. Tuna fishermen battle the big fish off the south shore of Nova Scotia.

"Canada From Sea To Sea"—24 min., color. This film, in its travels from east to west, stops at the principal points of interest in each Canadian province, uncovering a wide diversity of landscape, industries, vacation-lands and peoples which colorfully contribute to the changing face of this vast nation.

"David: Profile of a Problem Drinker"—27 min., b&w. Depressed after one of his extended drinking sprees, David and wife accept friend's advice to consult a doctor.

"Does It Matter What You Think?"—15 min., b&w. Setting is an exhibition of war-time equipment including a propaganda leaflet bomb; film discusses the elements and power of public opinion. Enumerates the mass media of communication and the effects of the opinions of other individuals. Show the formation and operation of group opinion for various purposes such as trade unions, charitable causes, and government.

"Facts About Fabrics"—26 min., b&w. Basic facts about fabrics are presented in this film.

"Jerusalem—The Holy City"—11 min., color. The pageantry of Jerusalem and its historic shrines sacred to three faiths—Christian, Jewish and Mohammedan. Historic buildings and contemporary shrines are shown. The interpretative narration relates the cultural and religious aspects of the Jerusalem of the past to the western heritages and traditions.

"Look To The Land"—21 min., color. This is a companion film to the "Living City," and dramatizes the dependence of all Americans on our lands, forests and water resources.

"Passionate Pastime"—28 min., color. Discusses the history of chess as a part of every civilization for the last 1500 years. Shows many examples of chess figures from many countries. A wonderful opportunity to see some rare museum chess figures and to gain an over-all appreciation of this game that had such a long and influential history.

"Rembrandt—A Self Portrait"—27 min., color. The examination of the life and works of Rembrandt combines knowledge, insight, and cinema technique eminently worth of their subject.

"Russia"—25 min., color. Produced by Julien Bryan this documents the Russia of today. Contents include: Tsarist Russia, workers in 1905, religion, collective farms, industry, Russian education, atomic energy plants.

"Steps of the Ballet"—25 min., b&w. Demonstrates the basic classical positions, movements and steps used in the creation of a ballet and explains that the dance represents the combined efforts of the choreographer, composer and designer. Presents an original ballet for the first time on film with music by the London Symphony Orchestra, narration by Robert Helpmann, famous choreographer.

"The Valley of the Tennessee"—28 min., b&w. This film is a dramatic story of the unified development of the Tennessee Valley.
