Johansson And Patterson To Fight Tonight

NEW YORK (UPI) — Floyd Patterson, bucking the odds and tradition, will try to recapture the world heavyweight championship tonight from unbeaten Ingemar Johansson, Sweden's dimpled dynamite, in their international return fight at the Polo Grounds.

An expected crowd of 40,000 in the former Giants ball park will watch as 25-year-old Patterson of Rockville Centre, N.Y., attempts to become the first man in ring history to win back the heavy-weight crown. And the first to tag into with a professional defeat.

None of the eight who previously tried to recover the title were able to do it. And the betting is 8-3 that Floyd doesn't turn the trick.

Brawny Johansson, who floored Floyd seven times for a third round technical knockout in their first fight last June 26, apparently wasn't fretting about the return. He appeared personally on a 10:30 p.m. e.d.t. television show Sunday night — the night before his first defense.

Sleeps Like A Baby

Surprised sports writers asked the brown-haired champion to the natty blue tropical suit if Sunday night's late outing might interfere with tonight's performance at 10:30 p.m. e.d.t. under the ring lights.

"No," he said. "I get to bed late. I sleep like a baby — late, till maybe 10:30 and get up feeling fine for the weigh-in."

It was reported without confirmation that he received $2,000 for his appearance as a mystery guest on the TV show "What's My Line?" His identity was quickly established.

Tonight Ingemar and Floyd are expected to pick up about $50,000 each for their scheduled 15-rounders as their shares of the "live" gate of perhaps $800,000 at the park and the receipts from theater-television, radio, movies, etc., expected to total about $2,500,000.

No Home TV

There will be no home television, but ABC will radio it to homes nationally. It will also be carried by radio in six languages to 28 foreign countries.

Champion and ex-champion motored into New York from their respective camps Sunday — Johansson from Grossinger, N.Y., and Patterson from Newtown, Conn.

During their six weeks of training Patterson indicated in his sparring sessions that he would carry the fight to into this time.

Writers Guild Votes For End To Strike

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI) — The Writers Guild of America voted to end officially Sunday night their five-month strike against major studios making television films and 16 members of the Alliance of Television Producers.

Negotiators settled the strike last week, but the new contract had to be ratified by membership vote Sunday night.

Guild spokesmen said the most important gain in the new six-year agreement was a clause whereby writers will share in profits from their works as do playwrights.

Kentucky Beats Indiana, North All-Stars Win

United Press International

It was back to drills today for Indiana's high school basketball All Stars, trounced 61-41 by Kentucky at Indianapolis Saturday night, while the North set its sights on a two-game sweep in its intrastate series with the South.

Kentucky's underdog stars, led by the brilliant Jeff Mullins of Lexington Lafayette with 26 points, dumped the Hoosiers by more than 14,000 surprised Butler Fieldhouse fans, 95-86.

The North, acting like it owned Roberts Memorial Stadium at Evansville, tripped the down-staters with awesome ease, 90-56. The two clubs meet again in Fort Wayne Tuesday, while Indiana hopes to salvage some prestige by taking the return scrap with Kentucky at Louisville Saturday.

It was only the third time in the colorful history of the 20-year series that Kentucky pulled off a triumph at Indianapolis.

"Finest Triumph"

And the boys from the Bluegrass, trailing by 10 points early in the game, virtually dominated the final 20 minutes to rack up their finest triumph since they licked the Hoosiers three years ago, 91-71, and swept the two-game benefit show.

Mullins, 6-7 Bill Smothers, Gene Pendleton, Larry Holt and Tom Finnigan wrecked Indiana with a well-balanced scoring punch and well-honed pattern offense. Smothers, a giant on the boards, also dropped 17 points. Holt 15, and Pendleton chipped in with four timely baskets.

Against that tough offense, Indiana countered with Muncie Central's hot-shooting Ron Bonham whose 32 points garnered the "Star of Stars" award. But the next-best for the Hoosiers was 10 markers apiece by Mel Garland of Indianapolis Tech and John Dampier, Bonham's hometown teammate.

Biggest disappointment for the Hoosiers was Madison's Buster Briley, who picked up four personals in a hurry and finished with just two points.

Protest Decisions

Indiana sportsmanship, meanwhile, also wore a gaudy black eye. Twice, the spacious playing floor was littered with debris from fans protesting decisions by the officials.

The North, which lost at Evansville last year, 99-92, but took the return match, 92-75, had too much speed and rebounding power and pulled up a 41-16 half-time lead on the South before just 3,000 fans.

Bob Pelkington of Fort Wayne Catholic with 18 points and rebounder Jesse Yates of Churubusco, two boys who played mostly in the background to the likes of Bonham and Briley during the season, had their day.

The upstaters had their offense down pat and their defense was sticky. Big Jim Davis of Muncie Central chipped in 13 points.

The best for the South was an even dozen points by Bud's Graham of Odon. Marty Nicholas of Ferdinand got 10. Bob Luegers of the final period when he netted six points.

The best North-South talent picked after Tuesday night's game will take on an Ohio All-Star aggregation in Fort Wayne Saturday night.

Yanks, Orioles Keep Pace On Pair Of Wins

By MILTON REICHMAN

Quit shoving, fellas! There's plenty of room in the rear, but how can anyone convince the Yankees and Orioles when they keep crowding each other up front?

Neither of them wants to give an inch.

The Yankees, winners in 13 of their last 15 games, ordinarily would have a comfortable lead on the rest of the American League. But their lead — if you could call it that — is only three percentage points and the persistent Orioles are much too close for comfort.

The Yankees did their best to put some daylight between them by sweeping a doubleheader from the wobbling White Sox Sunday, 7-5 and 5-3. That didn't faze the Orioles, though. They simply took both ends of a twin-bill from the Tigers, 2-0 and 1-0, with some of that superb pitching that has carried them this far.

Two-Team Affair

If nothing else, the AL race is shaping up as a two-team affair. Boston took a doubleheader from Cleveland, 7-1 and 3-2, dropping the third-place Indians three games back. Detroit is 4 1/2 games behind in fourth place and fifth-place Chicago is five games down. Washington tightened its hold on sixth place with a 6-5 decision over Kansas City.

There was no change among the two National League leaders Sunday. Both lost. The Dodgers beat the first-place Pirates, 8-6, and the Phillies defeated the second-place Giants, 2-1, in 11 innings. The Cardinals downed the Braves, 4-3 in the opener of a doubleheader, but the Braves won the nightcap, 3-2. The Reds swept a twin-bill from the Cubs, 4-3 and 7-5. The Yank's Jim Coates won his eighth game without a defeat in the game without a defeat in the cause of opener and helped his own cause by driving in three runs with a pair of singles. The Yanks came from behind in the nightcap with Roger Maris singling home the deciding run in the sixth after Mickey Mantle tripled.

Wilhelm Tosses Two Hitter

Knuckballer Hoyt Wilhelm pitched a two hitter for Baltimore over Detroit in the opener and Milt Pappas came back with a three-hitter against the Tigers in the nightcap.

Bill Monbouquette's four-hit pitching plus homers by Frank Malzone, Ted Williams and Gary Geiger gave Boston its opening game win over Cleveland. Jim Perry was the loser. In the nightcap, credited to Tom Brewer, Geiger tripled to drive in two runs and Don Eddin supplied the clincher with a fifth-inning homer.

Chuck Stobbs' clutch relief pitching enabled the Senators to complete a three-game series sweep over the A's. Washington built a 6-0 lead but the A's rallied for two runs in the sixth and scored three more in the eighth before Stobbs put the fire out.

Don Demeter's three-run triple highlighted a six-run inning that the Dodgers won in the eighth to beat the Pirates after Dick Stuart's grand slam homer in the fifth narrowed Los Angeles' margin to 6-5.

Strikes Out Eleven

Robin Roberts of the Phils turned in his finest effort of the season at the expense of the Giants. Roberts struck out 11 and gave up only five hits. The victory was Roberts' third compared with seven defeats.

The Cards broke a 2-2 tie in their opener with the Braves by scoring two runs in the eighth. Reliever Ernie Broglio posted his fifth victory and Warren Spahn was tagged with his fourth loss.

Hank Aaron singled home the winning run for Milwaukee in the nightcap. Carlton Willey won his fourth game with help in the ninth.

Jerry Lynch's two-run homer in the seventh inning paced the Reds to their opening game victory over the Cubs and a pair of homers by Vada Pinson in the nightcap helped make it a sweep.

Arnold Palmer Wins Open By Brilliant Rally

DENVER (UPI)—It was two down and two to go today for Arnold Palmer, the new U.S. Open champion.

He has the British Open and PGA championships to go to score the grandest grand slam in golfing history. He reached the halfway mark in his objective Saturday when, with the greatest comeback the game ever has known, he won the U.S. Open championship with a par-busting round of 65, six-under-par.

In April he won the Masters by birdying the last two holes. In the heat of a June day near the foothills of the snow-capped Rocky Mountains Saturday he came from seven strokes back to win the Open—the most prized title in golf. He did it with a game that was hotter than the weather — "Star of Stars" award. But the next-best for the Hoosiers was 10 markers apiece by Mel Garland of Indianapolis Tech and John Dampier, Bonham's hometown teammate.

Biggest disappointment for the Hoosiers was Madison's Buster Briley, who picked up four personals in a hurry and finished with just two points.

why Mercury is the better low-price car!

MORE VALUE. Just look at these Mercury advantages over other low-price cars:

You ride smoother because Mercury has up to 8 inches more wheelbase . . . and is up to 494 pounds heavier.

You're more comfortable because of Mercury's extra shoulder room, leg room, and foot room. You feel safer because Mercury's brakes are bigger (up to 26%), and visibility is better (up to 21% more).

Mercury has at least two dozen extra values. Why not enjoy them all, and save a little money, too?

PRICES START $63 TO $86* BELOW EVEN THE LOWEST-PRICED V-8 POWERED PLYMOUTH FURY OR CHEVROLET IMPALA.

And we're not talking about a 'stripped' Mercury. This price comparison is based on a deluxe-appointed Monterey with luxurious nylon interior and deep, soft wall-to-wall carpeting.

This amazing price story is the result of Mercury's dramatic 1960 price reductions (as much as $174 lower than last year, including extras that are now standard equipment).

Every Mercury is lower priced than last year. All Monterey are now low-price cars. They are priced below, or within a few dollars of, the other deluxe V-8 series in the low-price field. Come in. See for yourself.

*Based on comparison of manufacturers' suggested 1960 retail base prices for lowest-priced V-8 models.
