ship service. All members of the family have the opportunity to come together to the Sanctuary with the exception of Kindergarten and Primary departments who will meet in the Sunday school annex (old manse).

For 120 years the Holy Sacrament has been observed quarterly in our church. As we take the bread and the cup, let us give thanks for the patience of God in bearing with us and with all men in our failures and sins. Here is new strength, renewed vigor, the elements of Christ's life coming through the symbols into our own weakened life. With the bread, look back in penitence and thank Him for His forgiveness. With the cup, look forward and thank Him for His promise of strength for whatever comes. The future lies in strong hands. Hands we have reason to trust. He rules and overrules. The outcome even of this world condition will be gathered into His plan.

We take these elements not because we are worthy, but because He calls us to take them in remembrance of Him. May all Presbyterian members and friends remember His words, "This Do In Remembrance of Me" and be present at His Table this Communion Sunday.

Cool Temperatures Prevail In State

United Press International

Prospects of more rain during the weekend to raise crest predictions on flooded Indiana rivers were considered negligible today.

Weather bureau forecasters saw the chance of "some light rain" late Sunday m south and central portions of the state. There were indications of similar precipitation conditions Monday.

But nothing in the forecasts and outlooks held any threat of deluges similar to those which swept Indiana Wednesday night and Thursday, creating flash floods and sending main streams above flood stage in the southwest.

Temperatures, meanwhile, cooled off somewhat. Friday highs were limited to the low 70s except in the far south. The top was 70 at Lafayette and South Bend, 71 at Indianapolis, 72 at Fort Wayne and 73 at Evansville.

Overnight lows were on the chilly side this morning, Goshen getting a 48-degree reading, South Bend and Fort Wayne 50, Lafayette 51, Indianapolis 54 and Evansville 60.

The Weather Bureau said the 50-degree low at Fort Wayne was a new record for the date, and the 54-degree at Indianapolis was within one degree of the all-time low for June 25 of 53 degrees set in 1958.

The outlook was for fair and pleasantly cool today, cool tonight and partly cloudy and a little warmer Sunday.

Highs today will range from 71 to 81, lows tonight from 53 to 62, and highs Sunday from 77 to 82.
Little temperature change was expected Monday.

Indianapolis Woman Killed In Tennessee

GALLATIN, Tenn. (UPI) — An Indianapolis woman was among three persons killed when their car went out of control and crashed into a cement bridge railing north of here Friday.

Among the dead was Mrs. Mildred Lamberth, 25, Indianapolis.
Her husband, Jerry Foust Lamberth, 26, was taken to general hospital, Nashville, Tenn., in critical condition.

Also killed were Mrs. Daisy Harris, 48, Beth Page, Tenn., and Isaac Bolten, 73, Hendersonville, Tenn.

20 Years Ago Today

Bishop F. Gerald Emley, h. a. s. said, "History knows no revival of morals apart from religion.
The most effective force in generating responsible moral attitudes has been the belief that the ultimate power of the universe—God—is behind goodness." Our most urgent need today is the discovery of a new moral dynamic, a new sense of involvement in history, a new commitment to the real issues of living. It is a sad state of affairs when we become so satiated with things, that we see nothing better in life than to possess more of the things which we no longer know how to use. The church renews our faith, helps us maintain a worthy sense of values, and strengthens our commitments to the real issues of living.

Why NOT ACCEPT THE IN-VITATION AND COME TO CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY?

Dr. William Cullen Dennis, president of Earlham College, will speak at a union church service in Decatur July 7, as China relief Sunday will be observed here.

Plans for the new $2,500,000 headquarters of the World Council of Churches in Geneva call for a modern structure with 275 offices and a centrally-located chapel, library and meeting room for 200 to 400 persons.

"One hundred million human beings have been uprooted, driven from their homes and countries in the last forty years. An estimated sixteen million persons, today's staggering refugee problem, are still homeless."

The Protestant Pavilion erected for the Brussels World's Fair has been sold to the American Church at the Hague, Holland. It will be used for the services and other congregational activities of the interdenominational Protestant church community in the Dutch city.

The Whitfield Estate Presbyterian church in Sarasota, Florida, is the first church built to serve primarily a drive-in audience.

The preacher, through the huge glass wall before him, looks directly upon a field where cars are parked with loudspeakers in the windows. Inside, to the right and left of the pulpit, there are seats for 250 worshippers who prefer to leave their cars. These drive-in facilities are used t h e year round.

The first Ecumenical Youth Assembly in Europe is scheduled for July 13-24 at Lausanne, Switzerland. The 12-day meeting will be the first major gathering of European young people across denominational lines and national borders ever held under auspices of the churches and sponsored by the Youth Department of the World Council of Churches. Its theme will be "Jesus Christ—the Light of the World."

Attending from more than 15 European countries and approximately 300 others from Asia, Africa, and Far East, the Middle America, The European group is expected to include delegations from the USSR and from several other Eastern European countries.

There are too many people praying for mountains of difficulty to be removed, when what they really need is courage to climb them.

Wit and Wisdom

J. Arthur Rank, the well-known English motion picture producer, has a unique way of handling the matter of worrying about the future. He decided to do all his worrying on one single day, on Wednesday, and he has what he calls his "Wednesday Worry Club."

When a worry comes to him on any other day, he writes it down and puts it in a box. When he opens the box on Wednesday, he finds that most of the things he was most disturbed about have already been settled.

Annual Jug-Breaking Service Sunday Night

The annual jug-breaking service of the St. Paul Missionary church will be held Sunday at 7:30 p. m. In this service the children break little jugs, the contents of which become their missionary offering.

The service will also include recitations by the primary department and play by the junior department, entitled "Money Talks."

The public is invited. The church, of which the Rev. Robert R. Welch is pastor, is located on the county farm road.
