Contractor Is Held In Wife's Slaying

ANDERSON, Ind. (UPI) — A contractor was in custody today for questioning in the fatal shooting of his wife, a registered nurse who told authorities that he shot her.

Mrs. Irene K. Conner, 41, died at St. John's Hospital Tuesday night, about nine hours after being shot with an Italian automatic. Police said her husband, James, admitted the shooting.

Police first were called Tuesday afternoon by Conner, who told them, "I accidentally shot my wife."

When an officer reached the home, he found Mrs. Conner sitting on aavenport, bleeding from several wounds. Mrs. Conner told the officer, "he shot me." But that was all she would say.

An emergency operation failed to save the woman's life. Officers learned that a bitter domestic quarrel preceded the shooting.

Madison County Coroner Fred Hiday said Mrs. Conner had wounds in her left arm, shoulder, chest and hip.

Power Bid On For Railroad Control

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Central Railroad today plunged into an all-out battle for control of the Baltimore & Ohio line in a power bid that may lead to the biggest struggle in the industry's history.

The Central, threatened by the Pennsylvania Railroad's merger plans that would upset the rail power balance in the East, Tuesday proposed a merger offer to B&O stockholders in a direct challenge to the Chesapeake & Ohio.

The C&O just two weeks ago made a similar merger offer to the B&O.

The Central move opens the way for a titanic struggle in the industry—reminds of the brass knuckle fight for control of the old Erie Railroad by Cornelius Vanderbilt and Jay Gould. It would even overshadow the late financier Robert R. Young's successful tilt with the Vanderbilt interests for control of the Central in 1954.

Gain Big Advantage
The Pennsylvania now owns a one-third interest in the Norfolk & Western Railway. A proposed merger agreement between the merger agreement between the N&W and the Nickel Plate Railroad thus would give the Pennsylvania a formidable competitive advantage over the Central.

Cold-shouldered by the C&O efforts to participate in the proposed merger of the C&O and B&O the Central now is seeking to forestall the two-way consolidation by offering to acquire 60.8 per cent of the B&O stock through a stock exchange and cash. At the current market price for Central stock the offer totaled approximately $66,262,500.
