Indians Beat Orioles, Take Second Place

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press International

Since the start of the season, New York Yankees scouts have been whispering "watch the Orioles" into Casey Stengel's elephant-sized ears.

But Ole Case and the rest of the Yankees had better start worrying about the Cleveland Indians. For while the Orioles are showing signs of skidding, the Indians are flying.

The Tribe, behind the six-hit pitching of rookie southpaw Dick Stigman, bounced back into second place in the American League race Wednesday night by handing Baltimore its third straight defeat, 5-3. The loss dropped the Orioles into third place by a single percentage point.

Cleveland now has won seven of its last nine games but over that period Manager Joe Gordon has gotten only two route-going jobs from his prized pitching staff. And both of those efforts were turned in by Stigman, who stopped the Yankees with a four-hitter last weekend.

In his latest outing against the Orioles, Stigman was bothered by wildness, walking six while fanning five. But he permitted only one hit over the last three innings and was aided by three double plays.

Helps Own Cause

Stigman, who earned a promotion to the Indians this year although he lost 17 games at San Diego in 1959, helped his own cause in the fourth inning with a key two-run single off loser Jerry Walker.

Two home runs by Roger Maris helped the Yankees to a 10-0 victory over the Kansas City Athletics and Ted Williams unloaded a 430-foot, two-run homer to give the Boston Red Sox a 4-2 triumph over the Detroit Tigers in other AL action. Rain washed out the Chicago at Washington night game.

In the National League, the Milwaukee Braves downed the Chicago Cubs, 3-1, after dropping the opener of their doubleheader, 3-2, the Los Angeles Dodgers swept a twilight-night doubleheader at Philadelphia, 6-3 and 5-2, and the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Cincinnati Reds, 5-2. The San Francisco at Pittsburgh night game was rained out.

Both of Maris' homers against the Athletics came with a man on base and raised his major league-leading total to 24. Jim Coates allowed only three singles in scoring his ninth consecutive victory of the season and his 13th in a row over two seasons.

Williams' homer at Boston was his 12th of the season and the 504th of his career, leaving him only seven behind Mel Ott's lifetime total. Russ Nixon also hit a two-run homer for the Red Sox, who broke a five-game losing streak.

A pair of homers by Joe Adcock featured Milwaukee's second game victory over the Cubs, who won the opener on Bob Willis' pinch single in the ninth inning. Dick Ellsworth went the route for Chicago in the first game, allowing only five hits. Joey Jay halted the Cubs on seven hits in the nightcap.

Two major league strikeout records were equalled during the Dodgers-Philis twinnish at Philadelphia. Dodger pitchers fanned 24 men in the two games to equal one mark and the combined total of 34 strikeouts for both clubs matched another major league high.

Hitting Streak Ends
Larry Sherry won the opener in relief of Don Drysdale when the Dodgers broke a 3-3 tie with two runs in the eighth inning. Sandy Koufax stopped the Phils on three hits in the nightcap but needed relief help from Ed Roebuck in the eighth. The Dodger pitchers also combined to stop Frank Herrera's 29-game hitting streak, fanning the Phils' first sacker four times.

Stan Musial knocked in two runs with a double and single for the Cardinals, who raked three Cincinnati pitchers for 11 hits. Ray Sadecki stopped the Reds with three hits over the first eight innings but was relieved by Lindy McDaniel when Wally Post opened the ninth with a home run. McDaniel then retired the next three batters to save the game for Sadecki.

Argentines Shiver In Coldest Winter

BUENOS AIRES (UPI)—Argentines shivered today in the sub-freezing temperatures of the nation's coldest winter in years. At the southern town of Zapala the mercury had dropped to 22 degrees—a 26-year low—and even in subtropical northern Argentina temperatures as low as 30 degrees were reported.

Gene Fullmer Whips Basilio In 12 Rounds

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI)—Gene Fullmer, two-time kave conqueror of Carmen Basilio, will defend his NBA version of the middleweight crown against Sugar Ray Robinson in an October "rubber match" if Robinson will accept reasonable terms.

That's what Fullmer said today while accepting congratulations for his impressive second technical knockout victory over ex-champion Basilio in their return title bout Wednesday night before an estimated 10,500 spectators at Derks Field.

The gate was estimated at $98,000.

Has Score to Settle

"I've got something I want to settle with Robinson," said the battle-scarred champion from nearby West Jordan, Utah. "He's the only man who ever knocked me out. I want to return the favor."

Bull-shouldered Gene won the undisputed 160-pound title from Robinson on a decision at New York, Jan. 2, 1957; but Sugar Ray recaptured it from Gene on a fifth round knockout at Chicago four months later. A third meeting next October would be the decisive rubber match.

Manager Marv Jensen said "Yes, the Robinson fight is the one we want in October. If Sugar Ray will remember that he was beaten in his last two fights by Paul Pender and accept reasonable terms."

Fight In West

Jensen and Fullmer agreed the fight with Robinson should be staged in the West—perhaps at Salt Lake City, Logan, Utah, or Missoula, Mont.

Harry Markson, managing director of the Madison Square Garden Boxing Club, proposed to manager and fighter today that Gene meet Sugar Ray in a nationally televised fight in New York in October. They did not reject Markson's offer, but they reminded him Fullmer is not recognized as world champion by the New York State Athletic Commission.

The New York Commission, not a member of the National Boxing Association, recognizes Paul Pender of Brookline, Mass., as titleholder.

How About Pender?
"Because Pender won't fight any place outside of Boston," replied pilot Marv. "and we certainly wouldn't go into his home bailiwick for a fight. If Pender wants to challenge Gene in Salt Lake City or in some neutral city in NBA territory, the match might be made."

Fullmer not only out-punched Basilio Wednesday night but he actually out-boxed him, and gave perhaps the most impressive performance in his career of 57 fights as he registered his 32nd victory and his 23rd knockout.

Fullmer Improves
Fullmer, 28, weighed 159½ pounds to 156½ for 33-year-old Basilio as he improved by two rounds on his technical knockout time over the bruised and bloodied Carmen.

Referee Pete Giacomini stopped the bout at 2:54 of the 12th round because the former welterweight and middleweight champion had been battered into helplessness in the late going after having been floored in the eighth round.

In their first title fight at San Francisco last Aug. 28, Gene scored a TKO over Carmen in the 14th round.

Those two TKOs are the only knockouts against Basilio's record of 54 victories, 15 defeats and seven draws.

Ted Williams Hits 504th Career Homer

BOSTON (UPI)—Ted Williams, just two months short of his 42nd birthday, was a lucky seven away from Mel Ott's home run record today.

Ted made it 504 lifetime home runs Wednesday, facing into a Jim Bunning fast ball for his 12th of the season. The hit, a 430-foot poke into the center field bleachers at Fenway Park, got Boston started on a 4-2 win over the Detroit Tigers and halted a five-game Red Sox losing streak.

The venerable outfielder's 500th major league home run came at Cleveland two weeks ago against Indians rookie Wynn Hawkins. Williams now needs seven more homers to tie the third-ranking Ott who hit 511 while with the New York Giants.

Babe Ruth leads all home run hitters with 714, while Jimmy Foxx hit 534 for the Philadelphia Athletics and the Red Sox.

Convicted Of Bribe Offer To Pitcher

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—A former night club manager convicted of offering Philadelphia Phillies pitcher Humberto Robinson $1,500 to throw a game last season was free in $15,000 bail today pending action on his plea for a new trial.

A jury of seven men and five women found Harold Friedman, 43, guilty in less than 30 minutes of deliberation in his one-day trial. Judge Ethan Allen Doty, deferring sentence, set a hearing Aug. 1 on Friedman's motion.

Doty said after the verdict that "we cannot have people tampering with our athletes. Philadelphia has always been known for clean athletics and we propose to keep it so."

Robinson, a slim right-hander, testified Friedman offered to bribe him in Robinson's hotel room on the day he pitched and won the second game of a twin-night doubleheader with the Cincinnati Reds here last Sept. 22. Robinson was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the seventh.

Friedman, testifying in his own defense, said he merely offered to lend Robinson money after he learned that the pitcher had been robbed.

Johnny Robinson Is Freed From Contract

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Louisiana State University halfback Johnny Robinson today was free to play with the Dallas Texans of the new American Football League after a federal judge ruled his contract with the Detroit Lions had not been "unconditionally accepted."

Judge S. Skelly Wright ruled Wednesday that Robinson merely had executed an offer "which had not yet been unconditionally accepted by the Detroit Football Co. when he withdrew it."

"Detroit failed to land this fish," the judge said. "His struggle to wriggle off the hook has proved successful."

Ike Delock Is Fined For Obscene Gesture

BOSTON (UPI)—Boston Red Sox pitcher Ike Delock today had an opportunity to repent at leisure an action he took in haste which earned him a three-day suspension without pay from American League officials.

Delock, a hot-tempered 30-year-old right-hander from Detroit, Mich., was handed the suspension by American League President Joe Cronin Wednesday for an obscene gesture he made when he was driven to the showers in Boston's Tuesday night 10-1 loss to the Detroit Tigers.

To Contact Giles On Player Protest

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI)—Frank Scott, general representative of the major league players' organization, said he would contact National League President Warren Giles today to present the Pittsburgh Pirates' protest against playing a Sunday doubleheader after a Saturday night game.

But Scott was unlikely to get much accomplished in light of Giles' ruling on the case.

The NL president said Wednesday that "I expect the game to be played as scheduled."

Pirate hurler Bob Friend raised the issue with the league office after the players protested playing the Sunday, July 19 doubleheader with Philadelphia following a Saturday night contest with the Phils.

"We feel that this doubleheader is coming at an important time of the season when we are making a run for the pennant," said Friend. He said the players feel that it would be "too strenuous."

Giles wired Friend Wednesday that the Phils management was "not violating any rules or any agreements with the players in scheduling the game as they did."

The game is a rained out contest earlier this season.

Scott said the major league player representatives would be canvassed on whether to support the Pirates' stand.

"If the majority of the clubs do so," he said, "then the major league players will formally sanction the Pittsburgh club's refusal to play the second game."

"Your son was just here with his Little League team!"

Ex-Assistant U.S. Attorney Indicted

CHICAGO (UPI)—A former assistant U.S. attorney was indicted today on a conspiracy charge growing out of an alleged jury-tampering case in Federal Court. Named in an indictment which also listed several former convicts or alleged syndicate figures was Richard Gorman, 47, former Chicago police officer, who was from 1948-1953 an assistant U.S. district attorney here and then went into private practice.

Involved in the tangled background of the case are a Chicago policeman, missing since late March and feared slain; and Louis Darlak, brother of Eddie Darlak who was a companion of the late Roger Touhy in a 1945 break from Illinois State Penitentiary at Joliet. Touhy was slain last year, and his killers have not been found.

Two indictments, one concerning the charge of jury-fixing and the other a related case of conspiracy involving stolen liquor, were returned by a federal grand jury in the court of U.S. District Judge William J. Campbell. Twelve persons were indicted in all.

Gorman indicted for alleged conspiracy to tamper with a Federal Court jury that considered a liquor high-jacking case against Gerald Covelli, former manager of two near North Side nightclubs. Covelli since has been sent to federal prison on an unrelated charge, but he was acquitted on the liquor charge when the jury reported, last Jan. 20, that it was unable to agree in the case.

Investigation turned up that Robert Saporito, 27, Elmwood Park, Ill., was the juror who held out. Saporito told investigators that his brother, Michael Jr., 31, a Chicago policeman, had given him $250 to hold out, and that Michael had told him that "the boys have approached me" and asked that he hold out against conviction of Covelli.

Saporito told the investigators that Michael had told him there was $500 in it for you and a job on the police narcotics squad for me."

Jarvis, Washington Sign With Browns

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Fullback Bob Jarvis and defensive halfback Clyde Washington, both former Purdue gridders, have signed with the Cleveland Browns for the 1960 season, the professional football team said today.

Jarvis was the Boilermakers' regular fullback as a sophomore and junior. He was bothered by injuries most of last season and suffered a shoulder separation in the third game of the year against Wisconsin.

Washington, playing right half, averaged 3.83 yards per carry for his three year career. He was the 10th round choice for Cleveland.
