Had an interesting talk with Ben Lucas this week. Mr. Lucas will supervise one phase of the midwest region educational television program, and is also the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cowens, of Decatur. Ben's field is Spanish languages, and since his home is in Miami, Fla., one of the events he has the opportunity to watch are the telecasts of Fidel Castro. Lucas said it was interesting to hear some of the statements made by Castro, some that never reach print.

One was that if Americans think they have freedom, they should come to Cuba, where the people really have freedom. It is nice of Mr. Castro to extend the invitation, but on this Fourth of July week-end, when we honor our American freedom, most of us will stay here. Anyway, it is nice to know that when a program like the midwest television setup is organized, personnel like Lucas is obtained. Perhaps if the affair is well enough accepted to become permanent, the Lucas family will become permanent Yankees, instead of just for one year.

PLEASE DRIVE CAREFUL. The ghouls already have down on paper the number of people who will be killed over the holiday week-end. That's their job, and they probably don't like it any better than the rest of us. Let's all try to make liars of them. Besides, the way Americans get around now days, one has to be careful. The person you hit may owe you money.

NOTES FROM AFTER THIRTY

COME AND GET IT
There are five Boy Scouts from Celina who have a warm feeling for the Decatur Lions club. Last Monday, the local Lions had their annual picnic. While they were preparing the meal, they noticed some tents at Hanna-Nuttman park. Investigation showed that the tents belonged to five Celina scouts who had ridden their bicycles to Decatur to spend the night in the park. The Lions invited the boys to eat with them, and the boys didn't hesitate a minute. When last seen, the boys were headed east on 224 Tuesday morning in a drizzle of rain. They might not like Decatur weather, but they had full stomachs to testify to Decatur and Lions' hospitality.

A local waitress was surprised last week when she came to work at the restaurant where she was employed and noticed that a jar she had put out the day before was back on the shelves. She asked the proprietor why he hadn't thrown that jar of rotten stuff away. She said she had opened it, and one smell was enough to tell that it was spoiled. The proprietor replied that what she thought was spoiled was three dollars worth of Roquefort cheese salad dressing, and that it was supposed to smell that way. Live and learn.

FARDON THE BLUSH
Roy Kalver informed us that the movie, "Heller in Pink Tights" will be showing soon at the Drive-In. This is to assure people that as far as we know, it is no relation. Looking at some of the ladies in the picture, though, we wouldn't mind getting acquainted.

Adrian Coffee was telling about a brother-in-law who celebrated New Year's entry, and the manager of signalling another 35 might serve as fair warning to 1 & M. When the whistles blew for midnight, the gentleman decided to add to the greeting for 1960 and went out the back door and let fly with the family shotgun. When he re-entered the house, the lights were doing all sorts of tricks. Some were blinking, some were dim, and some would come on when other switches were flipped. The next day, the cause was found. When the shotgun was fired, the load had clipped the electric line coming into the house. The wires hadn't been cut entirely in half, just enough to short out sometimes.
