FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

2nd & Jefferson Sts.
Edward Facha, Minister
Morning Worship and Communion every Lord's Day. We invite you to come and worship with us this Sunday. We're most happy to have the McKean Trio from Monroe with us this Sunday. They will sing "Transformed" and "Tomorrow May Be Too Late." The pastor's message will be "Drifting Along."
Some of my friends have asked me lately to tell them how to preach. I thought perhaps that you would like to know also, so here it is:
"How To Preach"
1. The gospel is a fact; therefore tell it simply.
2. It is a joyful fact; therefore tell it cheerfully.
3. It is an entrusted fact; therefore tell it faithfully.
4. It is a fact of infinite moment; therefore tell it earnestly.
5. It is a fact of infinite love; therefore tell it with much love.
6. It is a fact difficult of comprehension; therefore tell it with illustration.
7. It is a fact about a person; therefore preach Christ.
You know that it is your job to preach, not just a minister's job. Well, sir, now you know how; go ye therefore...
God Bless you.
Prayer Phone 3-3158

A HAPPY HOME

Some of the ways in which a home may be made truly Christian are suggested as follows:
1. Regular family worship which provides a spiritual togetherness.
2. Regular church attendance.
3. Be sure the home is truly happy with frequent expressions of appreciation of each other, evidences of affection, and true enjoyment of each other.
4. Parents should settle their differences away from their children.
5. Do as many things together as possible in hobbies, sports, music, the reading of books, and home responsibilities.
6. Practice patience, be slow to anger, and do nothing that could be interpreted as being unfair.
7. Strict obedience is essential, but children must understand the reasons for commands and decisions concerning them.
8. Nurture the children through example, worship and service.
9. If the home is truly Christian and Christ-centered, there should be no unsolvable problems if parents remember that no two children are alike and must be treated as individuals.

CLERICUS SAYS

CLERICUS SAYS: Men persist in thinking that can serve both God and mammon and gain the benefits of both. History is not ruled by majorities but by men of power and dedication, whether for good or evil. Our personal and national welfare depends on our consistent loyalty to the right and real love for God and obedience to His commands. A nation decays and starts to crumble when the termites of spiritual indifference move in. The most terrible thing that can happen to any nation is to have its conscience die.

OUR PREACHER SAYS

Michael Pupin once said: "Extraordinary men can do extraordinary things, but the course of a nation's destiny will always be guided not by the transient efforts of one or even of several extraordinary men of a given period, but by the persistent power of the nation's traditions."
