Attention On Democrats

With the Democratic national convention starting Monday in Los Angeles, public attention is again focusing on the oldest political party in the world. Founded in the early 1790's by Thomas Jefferson to protect the freedom of the recent immigrants to the United States, and the rights of all the citizens from the callous attempts of John Adams' Federalist administration to impose a strong central authority on a rapidly expanding agricultural nation, the Democratic party has weathered every storm and stress period of our country's history.

The Democratic party has traditionally appealed to the underdogs, the downtrodden, those needing help. It has consistently favored a reciprocal tariff policy to lower the cost of living; fair bargaining power for labor to help them meet the demands of big business; a banking and fiscal system that favors the borrower, builder and "small merchant" to build volume, not percent of profit on an individual loan.

It was the Democratic party that placed in the present state constitution the limits on bonded indebtedness, and the pay-as-you-go state policy, which makes our state one of the few in the nation that is always solvent.

And next week the Democratic party will choose from a group of some two dozen men its choice for president and vice-president. No one now knows who it will be, but everyone may be well assured that all Democrats in the nation will support the convention's choice, because they well know that all of the Democratic candidates are better qualified, better able to operate our national and international policy, than the single choiceless candidate of the opposing party.

Cardinals Win Over Monroe Friday Night

The Decatur Cardinals blanked Monroe, 5-0, in an Adams county Pony League game Friday evening at the Adams Central diamond.

The Cardinals scored the only run they needed in the fourth inning on hits by Bob Mies, Tom Cowans and Terry Conrad. Another tallied in the fifth on a hit by Dave Anspaugh, a walk to Willie Putteet and Gred Ladd's single. The Cardinals ived the game with three in the seventh on a single by Putteet, a double by Ladd and three bases on balls.

Monroe obtained seven hits off Ed Minch, but the Decatur hurler kept them well scattered.

Fairway Will Play In Tourney Tonight

The Fairway basketball team will play Fisher's of Columbia City in the Wolf Lake Merchant's basketball tourney at 7:30 tonight. The team will leave from the Fairway at 6 o'clock.

Fishers beat Decatur in the Mermaid festival by a 76-43 score. But since that time Decatur has added Bucky Walls, an outstanding basketball player.

Walls did a fine all around job against Gouty's of Fort Wayne, especially in holding Jimmy Rayl to 16 points.

Fishers is definitely one of the state's best independent ball clubs, and it appears that Decatur has to play them the first game in every tourney or not play at all. However with the team members rounding into shape, the story should be a bit different than the last time.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—A cross section of old veterans and new faces will make up the cast Monday when the All-Star baseball game makes its Kansas City debut in Municipal Stadium.

For the first time in Kansas City's long baseball history, first as a high-ranking minor league center and for the last six years the home of the American League Athletics, the game's top stars will gather here for the drama which draws second billing only to the World Series.

More than 31,000 are expected to see the game, which will begin at 3 p.m. e.d.t. when former American League President Will Harridge throws out the first ball. Millions more will watch it on nationwide television.

The second All-Star game, an innovation last year, will be played Wednesday in New York. Neither American League manager Al Lopez nor National League pilot Walt Alston, who managed last year's pennant winners, has named his starting pitcher. But each has a 10-man mound staff that would have delighted any All-Star manager over the 27-year history of the game.

Although the managers picked the pitchers and reserves for the All-Star team, the players themselves voted to select the starting lineup.

Roger Maris, 25-year-old right-fielder for the New York Yankees, drew the most votes in both leagues with 198. Willie Mays, San Francisco's centerfielder, was the leading choice in the National League with 193.

Dodgers Move Into Third By Win Over Cubs

By JOE SARGIS United Press International

Who said the Dodgers and White Sox are dead? For a while it looked as if they were, but that hardly was the case today.

Combining solid pitching and timely hitting, the Dodgers huffed and puffed their way to a 5-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs Friday night behind a nifty relief performance by Ed Roebuck.

The White Sox, who lost out to the Dodgers in the World Series last fall, belted the Cleveland Indians, 4-1, with Frank Baumann, a former sore-arm case like Roebuck, tossing an impressive six-hitter.

The Dodgers' victory, their fifth in-a-row and 10th in the last 12 games, moved the defending world champions into third place in the National League race, eight games off Pittsburgh's pace. They still have a long way to go to catch up, but there is a strong parallel in their recent surge to the drive they made at about this time last year after a similarly slow start.

Beating Indians a Habit

The White Sox, getting into a habit of beating the Cleveland Indians this season, found themselves in about the same spot in the American League race. Bugged down with both the pitching and hitting off, they finally got squared away and now have won three straight and nine of their last 14.

Today, they are only 4½ games behind the league-leading New York Yankees and are running about two weeks ahead of last year's pennant-winning pace.

The Pirates, who suddenly have found the going a little rough, split a two-night double-header with the Philadelphia Phillies, had gained a 6-5 victory in the opener, the second-place Milwaukee Braves defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 6-3, on a combined five-hitter by Juan Pizarro and Don Piche, and the St. Louis Cardinals routed the sagging San Francisco Giants, 7-1, in other National League games.

The Boston Red Sox buried the Yankees, 8-0, with Willie Tasby and Frank Malzone providing the hitting and Bill Monbouquette the pitching; the Washington Senators surprised the Baltimore Orioles, 9-5, and the Kansas City Athletics outlasted the Detroit Tigers, 5-4, in 13 innings to round out the American League.

Roebuck, who missed most of the 1959 season because of a sore arm, pitched six scoreless innings of relief after taking over for Roger Craig, and the Dodgers made sure his effort was not in vain.

Farrell Wins Own Game

With 36,057 fans — Philadelphia's biggest crowd in three years — looking on, the Phils won the opener on relief pitcher Dick Farrell's 10th inning single. The Preble Spouting upset second place Klenk's Tuesday night by a 2-1 score to feature action in this week's City softball league.

Mentor pitched a fine game for Preble with Wefel catching. Hoopengardner and Brown were the Klenk's battery.

In Friday's action Klenk's defeated Tony's, 12-3. Hoopengardner and Rowden were Klenk's battery. Lehman and Beauchot hurried for Tony's with Busse catching.

In the second game, McMillen defeated the Merchants by a 13-9 score. Harvey and Stevens did the chugging for McMillen with Grafton catching. Worden and Black were the battery for the Merchants.

Next week's schedule finds Klenk's playing the Merchants Tuesday night and the double-header Friday pits Klenk's against McMillen in the first game and Preble against Tony's in the nightcap.

Standings:

Man Arrested For Public Intoxication

Otto Johnson, 70, 1223 Patterson street, was arrested by city police on South 18th street at 8 p.m. Friday for public intoxication. No date has been set for trial as yet.

nightcap was no contest as

Friend (10-5) spaced seven hits and his mates pounded a trio of Philadelphia pitchers for 10 hits. Pizarro, sidelined for more than two weeks with a sore arm, had a two-hitter through eight innings when he suddenly lost his stuff in the ninth, but Piche bailed him out to choke off a ninth inning Cincinnati rally.

Ray Cudecki, a rookie left-hander, doled out just four hits to the Giants, who slipped into fourth place, and Stan (The Man) Musial belted a two-run homer to lead the Cards to their victory.

Baumann, who has suffered with arm miseries and wildness since coming up to the majors in 1955, had little trouble subduing the Indians, who didn't help themselves by committing three errors.

Monbouquette, named to the American League All-Star team, kept the Yankees off stride while Tasby and Malzone teed off with doubles in a big, six-run seventh inning rally.

The Senators scored four unearned runs off starter and loser Jack Fisher to gain their fifth victory in their last six games and hand the Orioles their third straight loss.

Bill Tuttle belted a two-run single in the bottom of the 13th inning to give the A's a come-from-behind victory. The Tigers had moved ahead, 4-3, in the top of the frame on Charlie Maxwell's 13th homer.

Umpires Are Named On All-Star Games

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jim Honochick, Nestor Chylak, and John Stevens of the American League and Dusty Boggess, Tom Gorman and Vinnie Smith of the National League today were named to umpire the two All-Star baseball games next week.

Honochick will start behind the plate in the first game at Kansas City on Monday with Boggess switching behind the plate after four and a half innings. In the game at New York on Wednesday, Chylak and Gorman will divide the duties behind the plate, Chylak starting out there.

Stevens and Smith will be the foul line umpires.

Bill Veeck Released From Hospital Friday

Veeck was released from Mercy Hospital Friday and doctors told the White Sox head "to stay away from the ball park."
