First All-Star Game On Today In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—The favored National League met the American League in the first of 1960's All-Star games today and it was anybody's guess as to who were going to be the starting pitchers.

Neither Walter Alston, who as manager of the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers directed the National League in this 28th All-Star contest, nor Al Lopez, who led the Chicago White Sox to the American League pennant last season, were sure who they would start on the mound. That was because most of the 10 pitchers they each have on their squad worked either Sunday or Saturday.

But Alston was leaning toward Bob Friend, the Pittsburgh Pirates' right-hander with a record of 10 victories and 5 defeats. He last worked on Friday night, beating the Philadelphia Phillies.

Lopez was expected to go with Cleveland's Gary Bell, who was beaten on Friday night by the White Sox and has a 7-7 mark for the season.

Meets With Players
"I can't be sure until I meet with the players this morning," said Lopez from Chicago, where his White Sox played Cleveland Sunday. "But I have been thinking of Bell, Bill Monbouquette or Chuck Estrada as my starters."

"I definitely want to go with a right hander in view of that short left field fence in Kansas City's Municipal Stadium and the right handed power the National League has in its starting lineup."

Because of that hitting power, the National League was favored at 6½ to 5.

Monbouquette of the Boston Red Sox also worked on Friday, blanking the league-leading New York Yankees. He has won eight while losing seven. Estrada, with a 9-5 record, pitched both Friday and Saturday for the Orioles.

"I'm going to have to talk to all of them, the pitchers I mean, before I make up my mind," said Lopez.

Alston said he had been "leaning toward Friend or Vernon Law all the way." But when Law pitched Saturday, Alston favored Friend.

"You can't go wrong with either of them," he reported from Los Angeles, where his Dodgers beat the St. Louis Cardinals Sunday.

Considered Larry Jackson
He also had considered Larry Jackson, a 10-game winner for the Cardinals, until he pitched Sunday. Like Lopez, Alston said he would not name his starting pitcher until he meets with his squad.

Both Lopez and Alston scheduled clubhouse meetings at 12 noon, e.d.t. The game is scheduled to start at 3 p.m., e.d.t. with hot and humid weather—in the 95 degree range—forecast. It will be televised by the National Broadcasting Co.

The fact that this first of the two All-Star games this year came after a full day's schedule complicated the pitching plans of both managers. None of the hurlers on their staffs had the full complement of the normal four days rest.

But both managers felt if they get over the pitching hurdle in this one they will be in good shape for starting pitchers for the second All-Star game, scheduled for Yankee Stadium in New York City on Wednesday.

Split Last Year

Last year, for the benefit of the major league players pension fund, two All-Star games were scheduled for the first time. The National League won the first one, played in Pittsburgh, 5-4. The American League took the second one, played in Los Angeles nearly a month later, 5-3. That gave the American leaguers a 16-11 edge in the All-Star games played thus far.

Should weather prevent today's game from starting on schedule, Commissioner Ford Frick would decide the replaying time—which probably would be tonight. Should weather again interfere, the game probably would be played on Tuesday morning. But if the game could not be played then, the Kansas City portion of this double All-Star attraction would be canceled out.

A sellout crowd of 30,000 was assured for today's game.

Fairway Loses In Wolf Lake Tourney

The Fairway Par Fives were defeated by Fishers of Columbia City Saturday night at Wolf Lake by a score of 102-87. Led by the jump-shooting of John Frey and the driving of Jim Price, Decatur and Fishers battled back and forth throughout the ball game. With about four minutes to go in the game, however, and Fishers leading by 88-82, the Decatur boys ran out of gas and Fishers' fast break started to move.

Decatur led at the first period, 24-23 and Fishers led at half-time, 49-46, and the third period 76-72. The four Decatur big men, Willy Conrad, John Frey, Bob Shraluka and Larry Foreman outscored the bigger Fishers team and Baxter and Price were hitting from outside and driving well for their points. Frey played a tremendous game scoring from all over the floor with his jump shot and winding up with 22 points, all on field goals. Price added 19 points, hitting from out with great consistency.

Tom Knox, former Fort Wayne Central star, led Fishers with 24 points and Juleratt, Manchester College star, also scored 24.

Powder Puff Derby Started Saturday

Mrs. Josephine Ivetic Richardson, one of four entrants from Indiana in the powder puff derby, writes from Disneyland, Calif., that she arrived in Torrance, Calif. at 5:30 p.m. July 4. The trip was 2,125 miles, mostly against head winds, and the time of flight was 22 hours.

Mrs. Richardson left Saturday for Wilmington, Del., in the actual race, for which there were 82 entrants as of last week.

Strikeout Artist Recalled By Giants

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants have recalled strikeout artist Juan Marichal from their Tacoma farm club in the Pacific Coast League and sold pitcher Joe Shipley to the same club. Marichal had an 11-5 record and 124 strikeouts in the PCL this season. Shipley was 0-0 with a 5.85 earned run average for the Giants.

Seven Persons Killed In Sunday Accidents

United Press International) Seven persons were killed within seven hours Sunday morning to mar an otherwise good record for traffic safety on Indiana highways this past weekend.

Hosier motorists apparently got through the first 33 hours of the weekend without a single fatality.

But four deadly crashes claimed the lives of seven persons, one of whom remained unidentified for more than 17 hours.

Three persons were killed in a car-train crash at a Warren County road crossing near West Lebanon.

Dead are James Landis, 20, Williamsport; his brother, Robert 18, and Ruth Ann Faulkner, 16, Attica.

The car was smashed by a Wabash Railroad passenger train. The car was dragged for nearly a mile down the right-of-way, and the victims were thrown out.

An Illinois man and his young daughter were killed when their car crashed into a bridge on U.S. 30 east of Hanna and dropped into two feet of water in Hensley Ditch.

Killed in that crash were Thomas Lester, 32, Elgin, Ill., and his daughter, Linda, 5.

Mrs. Nelma Lester, 31, was taken to Holy Family Hospital, LaPorte, in critical condition. Mrs. Joy Duffer, 47, Fairbanks, was killed when a car driven by her husband, Joseph, 55, skidded into a tree stump along Ind. 63 south of Prairie Creek in Vigo County.

Cruz J. Gonzales, 33, Kokomo, a Mexican farm worker, was killed and 13 other persons were injured when two cars collided at the junction of Ind. 39 and Ind. 14 west of Winamac in Pulaski county. Seven of the injured were in a car driven by Arthur Sisk Jr., Harvey, Ill., who was one of those hurt.

Frank Howard Stars In Drive By Los Angeles

By FRED DOWN

United Press International

Frank Howard didn't make the National League All-Stars but he just might make the Los Angeles Dodgers champions again.

It's a long shot but the 6-foot, 7-inch, 250-pound rookie's slugging has the Dodgers definitely on the move and ready to challenge for the lead if the front-running Pittsburgh Pirates falter. They're three games behind the second-place Milwaukee Braves and eight behind the Pirates.

Howard enjoyed another sensational day Sunday when he drove in five runs with a homer, double and single. In his last five games he's collected 11 hits in 21 at bats for a .524 pace and knocked in 10 runs. That spurt has lifted his mark to .301 and given fresh impetus to a drive in which the Dodgers have won 11 of 14 games to climb into contention.

Howard's hitting featured a slugfest in which the Dodgers downed the St. Louis Cardinals, 11-7, despite the blasting of Stan Musial, who drove in four runs with a homer and a single. Julian Javier, Norm Sherry and Tommy Davis also hit homers before Ed Roebuck wound up with his eighth victory compared to only one defeat.

Pirates Maintain Lead
The Pirates maintained their five-game lead when they beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-2, the Braves knocked off the Cincinnati Reds, 7-1, and the San Francisco Giants defeated the Chicago Cubs, 5-3, in other National League games.

The American League-leading New York Yankees were beaten for the third straight time by the Boston Red Sox, 9-5, but their lead was cut only a half game to 2½ games when the Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox slip a doubleheader. The Indians won the first game, 6-2, but the White Sox took the nightcap, 6-4. The Washington Senators topped the Baltimore Orioles, 2-1, and the Detroit Tigers outslugged the Kansas City Athletics, 12-10.

The Pirates struck for four runs in the ninth inning with the aid of pitcher Robin Roberts' wild throw and then Elroy Face shut out the Phillies in the ninth to preserve Harvey Haddix' sixth win. Roberto Clemente touched off the winning rally with a double and Rocky Nelson and Bill Virdon also had key hits. The loss was Roberts' eighth of the year.

Burdette Wins Ninth
Low Burdette won his ninth game with an eight-hitter as the Braves made 10 hits and scored four unearned runs. Wes Covington doubled home a run and then hit a three-run homer during a four-run seventh-inning rally that clinched the win for Milwaukee. Bob Purkey was the loser.

Three-hitter Dave Philley's three-run homer in the seventh inning, only the second hit off Don Cardwell, tied the score for the Giants and hits by Sam Jones, Joe Amalfitano and Don Blasingame added two more runs. Jones, who pitched the last three innings, won his 11th game while Cardwell, who pitched a no-hitter this season, lost his seventh game.

Willie Tasby hit a homer, double and three singles to drive in four runs and Vic Wertz hit a grand slam homer to lead the Red Sox' 12-hit attack on Ralph Terry and three successors. Bill Skowron drove in four New York runs with two homers and a single.

Lose Fifth Straight
Vic Power doubled home the tie-breaking run for the Indians in the eighth inning of their opener to provide Johnny Klippstein, who shut out the White Sox in the last 3-2-3 innings, with his third win. Russ Kemmerer's strong middle-inning relief pitching, as homers by Roy Sievers and Jim Landis, enabled the White Sox to win the second game.

Art Wall Is Winner Of Canadian Open

TORONTO (UPI)—Art Wall Jr., the thinking man's pro with a taste for victory, took one look at the short, rolling and sometimes tricky St. George's golf course and decided just what he had to do to win the 51st Canadian Open golf championship.

That was last Tuesday. Saturday, the 36-year-old quiet man of the fairways was a runaway winner of the national title, shooting a final round 69 for a 289 total.

"There are five par-five holes on the course and I figured I had to get my birdies there if I was going to win," Wall said.

He followed his plan to perfection. Twenty times he faced those five par-five holes and 15 times he came away in less than regulation figures.

"I got 13 birdies and two eagles on those par-fives and didn't bogey one of them. That's 17 under par and that and my rusty old putter were the difference," he said.

Wall, 36-year-old Pennsylvanian from Pocono Manor, was a unanimous choice as golfer of the year in 1959, but hadn't won a tournament since July 6 (Buick Open) of last year.

Wall entered the final round with a 54-hole total of 200 and a three-shot lead over Bob Goalby, the one-time University of Illinois quarterback. Sam Snead, trying for a record fourth Canadian Open title, and Gene Littler were only four shots back. And Tommy Bolt was five off the pace. It figured to be a blanket finish but Wall had other ideas.

One by one they all cracked under the strain and Wall breezed in six strokes in front of Goalby and Jay Hebert of Lafayette, La.

Records Are Broken In Fort Wayne Meet

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (UPI)—Each of three teams broke the national 200 meter medley relay record in the girls age 13 and 14 division twice Saturday at the close of the two-day second annual Fort Wayne Open (AAU) swimming and diving meet.

The Glass City Aquatic Club of Toledo, Ohio, hung up a new mark of 2:28.2 in the finals at night after turning in a time of 2:29.1 in the afternoon trials.

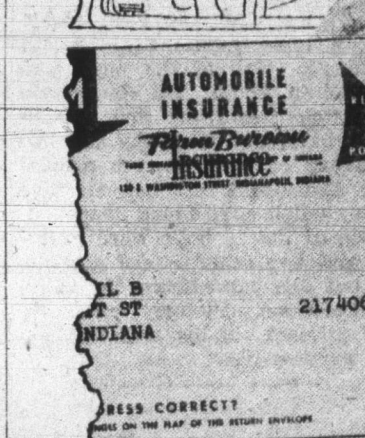

The old mark was 2:34.5 set in 1958 by the Dads Club, Houston, Tex.

The Dayton, Ohio, Dolphins were clocked at 2:31.6 in the trials and 2:30.7 in the finals. The Lakeside Swim Club of Louisville, Ky., swam the event in 2:32.1 in both the trials and finals.

The Lakeside Swim Club won the meet with 322 points followed by the Dayton Dolphins with 313 and the Westwood Country Club of Indianapolis, 220.

The Fort Wayne YMCA was fourth. There were 715 entries from 30 states at the meet.

Chimney Rock in northwest Nebraska was a familiar landmark along the old Pony Express route.
