FBI Smashes Plot To Blow Up Dormitory

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI) — The FBI smashed what it called a "sinister plot" to blow up a Negro college dormitory with 40 sticks of dynamite early today, two hours before a bomb blasted a hole in the side of a public school warehouse.

A spokesman for the FBI in Washington said quick action by FBI agents "may have saved some lives." But Dr. R. E. Arnold, dean of instruction at Philander Smith College, which owned the dormitory, said no students were in the building. The FBI arrested three men.

The bomb at the warehouse blew a hole in a wall. The FBI arrested Emmett E. Miller, 44, and Robert Lloyd Parks, 39, whom Casper said, they caught touching a match to a candle that would have touched off a fuse leading to 40 sticks of dynamite in a black box.

FBI agents arrested Hugh Lynn Smith, 33, Bassett, Ark., at his home.

Miller, Parks and Smith were the first persons arrested under anti-bombing provisions of the new civil rights law.

Miss Mary Diane Rousseau Is Wed

Miss Mary Diane Rousseau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Rousseau of 324 Marshall street, became the bride of David Allen Beltz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Beltz of route 2, Decatur, in a double-ring ceremony at 10 a.m. June 2 before a floral setting of altar vases of white gladioli in the St. Mary's Catholic church.

The Rev. Robert Jaeger performed the ceremony which was preceded by a musicale presented by the men's choir, accompanied by Mrs. John Girard at the organ.

Joseph Rousseau, father of the bride, escorted his daughter to the altar. Miss Rousseau appeared in a street length dress of white border embroidered nylon organza over snow white spinner satin. The dress featured an embroidered scalloped neckline with embroidered to the waist and was set off with long sleeves. The embroidered border of the skirt draped around to meet at the waist in back with two embroidered ruffles, forming a bustle effect. The dress was designed and made by the bride.

A shoulder length veil of imported French illusion attached to a rhinestone crown adorned her head and she carried a bouquet of blue carnations centered with a white orchid.

Miss Catherine Schnepf attended the bride as maid of honor in a beige sheath dress of brocade taffeta with a scoop neckline forming a V in back. A pleated overskirt of beige net and silk organza finished the outfit. She wore a crinkled brocade headpiece dyed to match her dress, and carried pink carnations.

The bridesmaid, Miss Sara Gass, appeared in a blue dress identical to that of the maid of honor. Junior bridesmaids, Patricia and Julia Rousseau, sisters of the bride, and flower girl, Miss Debbie Bauman, niece of the groom, wore identical dresses of pink brocade taffeta with pink silk organza overskirts. Master Zeno Rousseau, brother of the bride, was ring-bearer.

An embroidered blue linen sheath with blue accessories comprised the bride's mother's ensemble for the wedding and the groom's mother chose a beige dress of lace chiffon with beige and black accessories. Both mothers wore red rose corsages.

Larry DeLong attended the groom as best man. Guests were seated by Karl Fuhrman and Edward Britte.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was held at the American Legion home. The reception was held at the K. of C. hall. Servers at the reception were Miss Susie Parrish, Miss Bonnie Hake, Miss Carol Ann Rumschlag, Miss Judy Ellenberger, Miss Roseanne Litchfield, Mrs. Karl Fuhrman and Miss Mary Schultz. Mrs. Richard Bauman registered the gifts.

The bride's going away dress was a white linen sheath with pink and coral embroidery and white accessories. She also wore the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Beltz is a 1960 graduate of Decatur Catholic high school. Her husband graduated from Monmouth high school and is employed by Peterson Boat Trailer Co. in Fort Wayne.

The couple is residing at route 2, Decatur.

In Washington, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover called the attempted dormitory bombing a "sinister plot."

The FBI said the men had placed the dynamite under a staircase of Budlon Hall, a four-story building containing a chapel, men's dormitory, classrooms and choir practice rooms.

"I think we saved some lives," an FBI spokesman said.

There is a summer session now underway at the college. Residents of the dormitory probably would never have known what hit them if the dynamite had been touched off.

The blast at the warehouse probably did more damage to Negro homes in the area than it did to the wooden frame building. Police said it ripped siding off of about 15 feet long and six feet high, but the main force of the explosives seemed to crush in the back of a nearby home occupied by Mrs. T. H. Roundtree.

FBI agents would not make any immediate comment on whether the three men arrested were responsible for the warehouse explosion as well as for the plot to blow up the dormitory building on the college campus.

The warehouse is located about 10 blocks from Central High School. The college is also in the same general vicinity.

The State Department denied press reports that the U. S. ambassador to the Congo, Clare Timberlake, had "agreed in principle" with the troop request.

"He did not agree in principle with it," State Department press officer Lincoln White said. "He only agreed to transmit the request to Washington."

White said it was not clear whether the Congo was asking this country to send troops independently of any United Nations action.

The department said Timberlake also reported a serious food shortage in Leopoldville. He said the Congo government had asked the United States to rush 100 tons of flour there. He said this was being considered on an "urgent basis."

White said no decision had been made in the State Department on how to handle the troop request.

"We are in touch with the United Nations on the troop request," he added.

The developments delayed Herter's departure for U. S.-Canadian defense talks in Canada. Gates said Herter had not cancelled the trip but may go to Canada Wednesday.
