

Third-Class Mail May Be Refused

A question commonly asked of post offices is what can be done to prevent receipt of unsolicited and unwanted third-class mail matter, especially advertising circulars.

According to acting postmaster R. D. Frisinger, patrons may refuse unwanted circular matter by carrying assurance of return postage, endorsing it "Refused" and handing it back to the carrier or class matter should note whether placing it in a collection box. This is not the sender's agreement to return the piece to be paid, which is indicated by one of the following entries the sender has placed a guarantee on the left-hand side on the mail stating that return of the mailing piece postage will be paid. If this guarantee is not shown on the envelope, wading postage guaranteed; for then it would be useless to re-form 3547 requested to fuse this type of mail, as the post "Refusal to accept all matter office destroys all undeliverable" is not always an assurance that third-class matter which does not no more will be received, cautions Frisinger. "Even though you endorse unwanted pieces of third-class mail refused and the sender has a guarantee to pay return postage, you may still be plagued with this type of mail until your name is removed from the sender's mailing list."

"The most direct and most effective action toward stopping objectionable third-class mail is to return the piece to the sender with the request that you be taken off his mailing list. Complaints to the postmaster are important when obscene materials are involved, but only the recipient can do anything to discourage or to eliminate receipt of matter which is not morally or legally offensive. All matter that enters the mails properly prepared and carrying adequate postage must be delivered."

The Pony Express lasted from April 3, 1860 until Oct. 24, 1861.

Important Points Scored By Nikita

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

It is difficult to escape the uncomfortable conclusion that Nikita Khrushchev has scored some important points in the last week in his all-out propaganda campaign against the United States.

He has pressed forcefully his campaign to oust U.S. influence in Latin America, wherein he is being loudly aided and abetted by Fidel Castro of Cuba.

Then there also has been the incident of the U.S. Air Force RB-47 reconnaissance plane shot down by Russia over the Barents Sea.

The latter is a point for Khrushchev only in that it long has been established that the truth seldom catches up to the big lie.

Had Head Start
Khrushchev was first in announcing that the plane had been shot down, and gave validity to his charge that it violated Soviet air space by filing protests with the U.S., British and Norwegian governments.

With a 24-hour head start, it is doubtful that equal effect will be achieved by the White House rejoinder that he lied in his teeth and that actually the U.S. plane was shot down over open seas in an attempt to create an international incident.

The Latin American situation is more complex.

Fitting perfectly into the Soviet scheme are the Cuban charges of U.S. aggression soon to be heard by the United Nations Security Council.

The U.S. Monroe Doctrine has "outlived itself, outlived its usefulness and died a natural death," Khrushchev proclaimed this week.

New U.S. Program
Unfortunately, his words will fall pleasantly on far too many Latin American ears.

Especially his line that it was not lack of industry in underdeveloped Latin American countries that accounted for poverty, but rather that it was due to "Americans plucking the last morsel from the mouths of people and wanting to justify this on the basis of the Monroe Doctrine."

And once again it may be feared that the truth never will overtake the big lie.

This week the United States announced a new program of ecoomic aid for South America. Too many Latin neighbors will say that the program springs not from good will but rather was forced by Castro and Russia's new attentions. Others will resent the clear implication that aid will be forthcoming only to those who avoid both Castro and communism.

Similar reservations attached to the so-called Eisenhower Doctrine in the Middle East ended in virtual total failure for the program.
