Today Is Rodeo Day At Scout Jamboree

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI) — Fifty-five thousand Boy Scouts streamed into a giant arena for rodeo day at the National Boy Scout Jamboree today.

The Rodeo Cowboys Assn. provided its best performers. And, the weather was at its hottest, dustiest, wild westiest best for a rodeo on the 2,000 acres of the Reverse J Diamond ranch covered with the tents of the jamboree encampment.

She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Kohne, 304 West Adams Street, Decatur.

More than 8,000 students are enrolled — some 2,000 coming from the mainland representing every state and the District of Columbia. Twenty-two foreign countries are represented.

Marion Man Is Found Dead In Automobile

MARION, Ind. (UPI) — Grant County Prosecutor Robert Faust said today he would ask a grand jury to investigate the death of Lawrence Eddie Handerson, 34, Marion, whose body was found in a parked car outside a local tavern.

Henderson's body was found in a car belonging to Lewis Thackston, Marion, police said.

Coroner Dr. Henry Alderfer said death was caused by a brain hemorrhage received accidentally in a fall.

Heavy Rainfall In Southern Areas

Adams county received some heavy rain in the southern part of the county over the week-end. Monroe township was the hardest hit with 2.6 inches of rain. Ben Mazelin reported. He also reported that the Ben Striker farm, about 2 miles from him, received four inches of rainfall.

Harold Moser of French township reported 1 1/2 inches of rain. While Ivan Huser of Hartford township reported 1.85 inches of rain Saturday afternoon.

Brandt-Fox Vows Spoken Sunday

Wearing a gown of white embroidered nylon organdy over taffeta, Miss Esther Mae Brandt became the bride of Kenneth Wayne Fox at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Zion Lutheran church of Schumm, Ohio. The couple exchanged vows before the Rev. E. H. Zacharias.

Music was provided by Miss Velma Schumm, organist, and Mrs. Norma Lee Luginbill, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roebuck of Rockford, Ohio, and the parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fox of Marcellus, Mich.

Charles Roebuck escorted his daughter, to the altar. The fitted embroidered bodice of the floor length bridal gown featured a wide V-neckline and long sleeves which ended in embroidered points over her hands and fastened with pearl buttons as did the back of the dress. The bride's fingertip veil held in place her rhinestone tiara. She carried a white Bible topped with an arrangement of white baby roses and streamers studded with rose buds.

The maid of honor, Mrs. Alice Bowling, a friend of the bride, appeared in a gown of blue nylon organdy over blue taffeta, featuring a taffeta cummerbund and sash, a wide V-neckline, short sleeves, and finished with a ballerina length skirt. She wore a ruffled headband topped with daisies and carried a colonial arrangement of white daisies. Attired identically in shades of green and pink were the bridesmaids, Miss Ellen Fox and Miss Nancy Fox.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Roebuck chose a peacock blue flowered rayon dress with white accessories. Mrs. Fox wore a blue two piece dress, also with white accessories. Both mothers pinned white orchid corsages to their ensembles.

Charles Brandt, a cousin of the bride, was best man and the ushering was handled by Allan Gribler and Donald Brandt, cousins of the bride.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church basement. The tables were decorated with colored bows and ribbons. The main table was centered with a three layer wedding cake trimmed with blue roses. Servers were Mrs. Madelyn Herrick and Miss Janice Engel of Oak Harbor, Ohio, and Columbus, Ohio, respectively. Joyce Keller was in charge of the gift book.

For their wedding trip the bride changed to a black and white checked taffeta dress with a wide black collar dotted with sequins. She also wore white accessories and a corsage of red roses from her bouquet.

Mrs. Fox has taught in the Mendon and Willshire, Ohio, school systems. Her husband is employed by Osborne Sales and Service in Fort Wayne.

The couple will be at home in the trailer court at 3203 Sandpoint Road, Fort Wayne, after July 31.

Kennedy Arranges Pre-Campaign Talks

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (UPI) — Sen. John F. Kennedy begins a two-week round of pre-campaign conferences today on topics ranging from political warfare in New York to unrest among the natives in Africa.

New York Mayor Robert F. Wagner was scheduled to arrive here this morning for a talk with the Democratic presidential candidate on the split between organization and insurgent Democrats in the nation's largest city.

The broad scope of Kennedy's plans for two remaining weeks at his summer home on Cape Cod was reflected in an appointment Tuesday with Toy Mboya, labor leader in the British protectorate of Kenya and chairman of the All-Africa People's Conference in Ghana two years ago.

Wednesday, Kennedy will see J. Leonard Reinsch, an Atlanta, Ga., radio-television executive who will be Kennedy's consultant in those fields during the campaign. Friday, Kennedy will be visited by Adlai E. Stevenson, his 1952-1956 predecessor as Democratic standard bearer and now one of his top policy advisers.

Next Monday or Tuesday, tentative plans have been made for Kennedy to be visited by his vice presidential running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

Earl K. Long Faces Desperate Struggle

ALEXANDRIA, La. (UPI) — Earl K. Long, Louisiana's cantankerous 64-year-old ex-governor, today faces a do-or-die struggle against a man 30 years younger, whose seat in Congress Long needs to win to survive politically.

"Uncle Earl," out-pollied in his "back yard" 8th District by Rep. Harold B. McSweeney in the first Democratic primary during the weekend, is pledged to intensify his rock-fisted campaigning until the Aug. 27 runoff.

"I ran his shirttail off," Long boasted, despite a 4,000 vote edge for McSweeney.

Long got 26,058 votes, carrying three of the district's eight parishes.

McSweeney took five parishes with a 29,820 total vote. Former State Rep. Ben F. Holt ran third with a mere 10,266.

Franklin Electric To Reduce Workers

A reduction of 40 workers will be in effect at Franklin Electric in Bluffton starting Aug. 12, when the force returns from its annual two-week vacation. This will be in addition to the cut of 72 made in May from the peak employment of some 900 workers last winter. The total cut is approximately 12%.
