LIVE AND LEARN HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB MEETS

Thirteen members of the Live and Learn Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Workinger. Vice president, Mrs. Marie Marbach, opened the business meeting. The song of the month was sung by the group, followed by devotions which were presented by Mrs. Nellie Price. The secretary, Mrs. Marge Gilhom, read the minutes of the last meeting and took the roll. A one day outing is being planned by the county clubs for August 10. Mrs. Myrtle Workinger gave a safety lesson on artificial respiration.

A lesson on salad making was presented by Mrs. Nellie Price. The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Gladys Koss. Hostesses were Mrs. Workinger and Mrs. Marcella Springer.

Any member wanting pie pans for the 4-H fair may obtain them from the county extension office.

Zimmerman - Strickler Repeat Vows July 23

Miss Arlene Kay Zimmerman became the bride of Glen Strickler in a candle-light ceremony at the Pleasant Dale Church of the Brethren at 6:30 p.m. Saturday. The vows were solemnized by the Rev. John Mishler in a double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladioli and ferns. Nuptial music was presented by Miss Janet Roth and Mrs. Clint Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zimmerman, Decatur, route 2, are the parents of the bride, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Strickler, Stratton Way, Decatur.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, wore a waist-length gown of lace over taffeta. The molded bodice was fashioned with a modified scoop neckline and had three-quarter length sleeves. The bouffant skirt of lace panels was caught at the waist with tiny rosettes, uncovering the full tulle ruffles. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a rhinestone tiara and she carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

Miss Judy Worthman, maid of honor, appeared in a coral colored gown of silk organza over taffeta. The gown was fashioned with short sleeves and a scoop neckline. The cummerbund was accented with a rolled satin ribbon in a crisscross pattern bringing out the effectiveness of the bouffant skirt. She wore a headpiece of matching organza and carried a cascade of rose chrysanthemums.

A line colored dress with white accessories comprised the ensemble chosen by the bride's mother. Mrs. Strickler wore a blue flowered sheath with white accessories. Both outfits were complemented with white gladioli corsages.

Terry Hike served as best man and the ushering was handled by Roland Zimmerman, brother of the bride, and Glen Bowen, brother-in-law of the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the parish hall, with Linda Reber, Gloria Zimmerman, Sharon Mattox, Janice Zimmerman and Connie Bowen serving.

For their wedding trip to Denver, Colo., the bride wore a two-toned lavender full skirted dress to which she pinned the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return the couple will reside at 639 Cleveland street in Decatur.

SUNNY CIRCLE CLUB HOLDS MEETING RECENTLY

The Sunny Circle Home Demonstration club of Preble township held their July meeting at the township community center recently. Following the club prayer the group repeated Proverbs 14:34 in unison. Devotions were led by Mrs. Arnold Erxleben and Mrs. Robert Beery conducted the business meeting. The roll call was answered with a fact about the United States after which the history of the song of the month, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," was given by Mrs. Walter Hildebrand.

Mrs. Arnold Erxleben gave a demonstration on frozen fruit salad which was later served to the nineteen members by the hostesses, Mrs. Erwin Buuck and Mrs. Erxleben. A health and safety lesson on poison was given by Mrs. Otto Fuhrman.

During the social hour games and contests were enjoyed with Mrs. A. A. Fenner and Mrs. Arthur Worth winning the prizes.

MRS. ART RAUDEBUSH HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

A surprise block picnic was held in honor of Mrs. Art Raudebush's birthday Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verlyn Geyer. A block picnic is one which includes all the neighbors of one city block. Mrs. Raudebush received many lovely gifts.

Attending the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Steiner and children, Mrs. Glenn Ehrsam and children, Mrs. William Ehrsam, Mrs. Robert Baxter and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ab Everhart, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Rupert, Mr. and Mrs. Verlyn Geyer and children, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hirschy and children, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parrish and children, Mr. and Mrs. James Klenk, Miss Barbara Wolfe, Miss Arvilla Smith, Miss Gloria Sue Raudebush, Art Raudebush and children, and the honored guest, Mrs. Art Raudebush.

DR. HARRY HEBBLE SPEAKS TO KIRKLAND LADIES

The Kirkland Ladies club held their July meeting in the home economics room of the Adams Central school. Mrs. Ed Kolter, health and safety chairman, introduced Dr. Harry H. Hebble who gave a very interesting talk on "Diseases and care of the eyes."

The club creed was recited in unison, after which Mrs. John Leyse gave the history of the song of the month, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and led the group in the singing of the song. Mrs. Robert Kershner gave a report on her trip to the Purdue conference and the citizenship trip to Indianapolis. Mrs. Edgar Zimmerman called the roll and each member answered with a fact about the United States. Mrs. Ivan Heare gave the evening devotions.

Mrs. Albert Beineke, who presided over the business meeting, announced that the clubs in the county will have a one-day outing August 10 at the Bluffton game reserve. The outing is to be in the form of a fair.

Plans for the 4-H fair were completed. The members voted to donate money to the treasurer for the fair rather than promote a project.

Secret pal gifts were received by Mrs. Walter Egley, Mrs. Oscar Brown, Mrs. Albert Beineke and Mrs. Ella Scherry.

A bowl of pink dahlias was the centerpiece of the attractive serving table. Hostesses were Mrs. Luther Arnold, Mrs. Wm. Scherry and Mrs. Ivan Heare.

The Happy Homemakers club which was to have met Tuesday, has been postponed one week.

Mrs. Gene Johnson will be hostess to the Sacred Heart Study Club Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The Magley Ladies Aid will meet Thursday at the Bluffton Park for a day-long meeting. There will be a picnic dinner at 11:30. Members are asked to bring their own table service. Hostesses will be Mrs. Wilma Gerber, Mrs. Bertha Wood and Mrs. Ella Scherry.
