

SOCIETY

Mrs. Fred Allen Miller

Photo by Anspaugh

Miss Agnes Barlett Weds Fred Miller

The Rev. Benj. G. Thomas officiated at the double ring, candle light ceremony which united in marriage Miss Agnes Jean Barlett and Fred Allen Miller Saturday, July 23, in the Bethany Evangelical United Brethren church, following a muscale by Miss Eleanor Miller.

Miss Barlett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barlett of 314 Oak street, Decatur, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Miller, of route 3, Decatur, are the parents of the group.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Barlett appeared in a ballerina length gown of crystal taffeta with a scooped neckline and fitted belt bow at the midriff. The gown featured three-quarter length sleeves and a full waltz length skirt. She wore a short veil of illusion with a crown of French braid and seeded pearls and carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

Marie Barlett, sister of the bride, was maid of honor in a mint green gown of embroidered organza with a scoop neckline. The full waltz length skirt was accented by a fitted midriff. She wore a mint green headband with pearl tear drops and mint green leaves and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. Barlett chose a blue nylon dress with white accessories and Mrs. Miller wore a navy voile dress, also with white accessories. Both mothers pinned red carnation corsages to their ensembles.

Wilmer Fuelling, a friend of the groom, attended as best man.

The reception was held following the ceremony at the Central Soya union hall, with approximately 150 guests present. The serving table was centered with a wedding cake decorated with white bells. Mint green and white streamers were also used in the decorations. Servers were Miss Judy Carpenter, Mary Lou Kitson, Mrs. Jack Barlett, Mrs. Kenneth Baumgartner, and Mrs. Franklin Noll.

For their wedding trip to Yellowstone national park the new Mrs. Miller changed to a green dress of dacron and cotton blend with white accessories. A red rose corsage from her bridal bouquet completed her outfit.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Decatur high school and is employed at General Electric Co. while she attends Fort Wayne Commercial College. Her husband is a graduate of Monmouth high school and is also employed at General Electric Co. while he attends the Dury Technical Institute in Chicago, Ill.

The couple will reside at 509 W. Adams street in Decatur.

The Adams County Home Demonstration chorus will meet at the Farm Bureau building in Monroe Monday at 7:30 p.m.

The Music Department of the Decatur Woman's Club will hold a called meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jerold Lobsiger, 426 N.

DRIVE-IN THEATER

SUN. & MON.

FIRST TIME AT REGULAR PRICES!

LAST CHANCE TO SEE

Carl B. DeMille's The Ten Commandments

Only 60¢—Children Free

TONITE—MAMIE VAN DOREN
"VICE RAID" & "RIOT IN JUVENILE PRISON." Bonus
"4 Skulls of Jonathan Drake"

Our Reputation for Reasonable Prices

Our reputation was given to us by those we serve. We couldn't buy it. We just keep it growing by maintaining GILLIG & DOAN prices at levels every family can easily afford.

The entire operation of our mortuary is on the ground floor with no steps throughout.

Gillig & Doan FUNERAL HOME

312 Marshall St.

Phone 3-3314

Mrs. Richard Frederick Callow

Photo by Anspaugh

Miller-Callow Repeat

Vows This Morning

White gladioli and mums provided the floral setting for the double-ring wedding ceremony of Anna Marie Miller and Richard Frederick Callow, which took place at 10 o'clock this morning in the St. Mary's Catholic church, with the Rev. Robert Jaeger officiating. Music for the reciting of the nuptial vows was provided by Mrs. Rita Girard, organist.

The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Miller of 1221 W. Monroe street, Decatur, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley T. Callow of 904 S. Ninth street, Decatur.

Escorted to the altar by her father, Miss Miller appeared in a white nylon organza gown fashioned with a round neckline edged with leaves. The leaves extended down the front of the bodice to the waist in the form of a V. The same leaf pattern was featured in four long strips down the skirt. The gown was finished with short gathered leaves. She wore a white crown headpiece of sequins and pearls and carried a bouquet of pink crysanthemums and a white orchid.

Mrs. John Kintz served as maid of honor in a mint green gown of embroidered organza with a scoop neckline. The full waltz length skirt was accented by a fitted midriff. She wore a mint green headband with pearl tear drops and mint green leaves and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. Barlett chose a blue nylon dress with white accessories and Mrs. Miller wore a navy voile dress, also with white accessories. Both mothers pinned red carnation corsages to their ensembles.

Wilmer Fuelling, a friend of the groom, attended as best man.

The reception was held following the ceremony at the Central Soya union hall, with approximately 150 guests present. The serving table was centered with a wedding cake decorated with white bells. Mint green and white streamers were also used in the decorations. Servers were Miss Judy Carpenter, Mary Lou Kitson, Mrs. Jack Barlett, Mrs. Kenneth Baumgartner, and Mrs. Franklin Noll.

For their wedding trip to Yellowstone national park the new Mrs. Miller changed to a green dress of dacron and cotton blend with white accessories. A red rose corsage from her bridal bouquet completed her outfit.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Decatur high school and is employed at General Electric Co. while she attends Fort Wayne Commercial College. Her husband is a graduate of Monmouth high school and is also employed at General Electric Co. while he attends the Dury Technical Institute in Chicago, Ill.

The couple will reside at 509 W. Adams street in Decatur.

The Adams County Home Demonstration chorus will meet at the Farm Bureau building in Monroe Monday at 7:30 p.m.

The Music Department of the Decatur Woman's Club will hold a called meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jerold Lobsiger, 426 N.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Miller appeared in a white nylon organza gown fashioned with a round neckline edged with leaves. The leaves extended down the front of the bodice to the waist in the form of a V. The same leaf pattern was featured in four long strips down the skirt. The gown was finished with short gathered leaves. She wore a white crown headpiece of sequins and pearls and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. Barlett chose a blue nylon dress with white accessories and Mrs. Miller wore a navy voile dress, also with white accessories. Both mothers pinned red carnation corsages to their ensembles.

Wilmer Fuelling, a friend of the groom, attended as best man.

The reception was held following the ceremony at the Central Soya union hall, with approximately 150 guests present. The serving table was centered with a wedding cake decorated with white bells. Mint green and white streamers were also used in the decorations. Servers were Miss Judy Carpenter, Mary Lou Kitson, Mrs. Jack Barlett, Mrs. Kenneth Baumgartner, and Mrs. Franklin Noll.

For their wedding trip to Yellowstone national park the new Mrs. Miller changed to a green dress of dacron and cotton blend with white accessories. A red rose corsage from her bridal bouquet completed her outfit.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Decatur high school and is employed at General Electric Co. while she attends Fort Wayne Commercial College. Her husband is a graduate of Monmouth high school and is also employed at General Electric Co. while he attends the Dury Technical Institute in Chicago, Ill.

The couple will reside at 509 W. Adams street in Decatur.

The Adams County Home Demonstration chorus will meet at the Farm Bureau building in Monroe Monday at 7:30 p.m.

The Music Department of the Decatur Woman's Club will hold a called meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jerold Lobsiger, 426 N.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Miller appeared in a white nylon organza gown fashioned with a round neckline edged with leaves. The leaves extended down the front of the bodice to the waist in the form of a V. The same leaf pattern was featured in four long strips down the skirt. The gown was finished with short gathered leaves. She wore a white crown headpiece of sequins and pearls and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. Barlett chose a blue nylon dress with white accessories and Mrs. Miller wore a navy voile dress, also with white accessories. Both mothers pinned red carnation corsages to their ensembles.

Wilmer Fuelling, a friend of the groom, attended as best man.

The reception was held following the ceremony at the Central Soya union hall, with approximately 150 guests present. The serving table was centered with a wedding cake decorated with white bells. Mint green and white streamers were also used in the decorations. Servers were Miss Judy Carpenter, Mary Lou Kitson, Mrs. Jack Barlett, Mrs. Kenneth Baumgartner, and Mrs. Franklin Noll.

For their wedding trip to Yellowstone national park the new Mrs. Miller changed to a green dress of dacron and cotton blend with white accessories. A red rose corsage from her bridal bouquet completed her outfit.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Decatur high school and is employed at General Electric Co. while she attends Fort Wayne Commercial College. Her husband is a graduate of Monmouth high school and is also employed at General Electric Co. while he attends the Dury Technical Institute in Chicago, Ill.

The couple will reside at 509 W. Adams street in Decatur.

The Adams County Home Demonstration chorus will meet at the Farm Bureau building in Monroe Monday at 7:30 p.m.

The Music Department of the Decatur Woman's Club will hold a called meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jerold Lobsiger, 426 N.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Miller appeared in a white nylon organza gown fashioned with a round neckline edged with leaves. The leaves extended down the front of the bodice to the waist in the form of a V. The same leaf pattern was featured in four long strips down the skirt. The gown was finished with short gathered leaves. She wore a white crown headpiece of sequins and pearls and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. Barlett chose a blue nylon dress with white accessories and Mrs. Miller wore a navy voile dress, also with white accessories. Both mothers pinned red carnation corsages to their ensembles.

Wilmer Fuelling, a friend of the groom, attended as best man.

The reception was held following the ceremony at the Central Soya union hall, with approximately 150 guests present. The serving table was centered with a wedding cake decorated with white bells. Mint green and white streamers were also used in the decorations. Servers were Miss Judy Carpenter, Mary Lou Kitson, Mrs. Jack Barlett, Mrs. Kenneth Baumgartner, and Mrs. Franklin Noll.

For their wedding trip to Yellowstone national park the new Mrs. Miller changed to a green dress of dacron and cotton blend with white accessories. A red rose corsage from her bridal bouquet completed her outfit.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Decatur high school and is employed at General Electric Co. while she attends Fort Wayne Commercial College. Her husband is a graduate of Monmouth high school and is also employed at General Electric Co. while he attends the Dury Technical Institute in Chicago, Ill.

The couple will reside at 509 W. Adams street in Decatur.

The Adams County Home Demonstration chorus will meet at the Farm Bureau building in Monroe Monday at 7:30 p.m.

The Music Department of the Decatur Woman's Club will hold a called meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jerold Lobsiger, 426 N.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Miller appeared in a white nylon organza gown fashioned with a round neckline edged with leaves. The leaves extended down the front of the bodice to the waist in the form of a V. The same leaf pattern was featured in four long strips down the skirt. The gown was finished with short gathered leaves. She wore a white crown headpiece of sequins and pearls and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. Barlett chose a blue nylon dress with white accessories and Mrs. Miller wore a navy voile dress, also with white accessories. Both mothers pinned red carnation corsages to their ensembles.

Wilmer Fuelling, a friend of the groom, attended as best man.

The reception was held following the ceremony at the Central Soya union hall, with approximately 150 guests present. The serving table was centered with a wedding cake decorated with white bells. Mint green and white streamers were also used in the decorations. Servers were Miss Judy Carpenter, Mary Lou Kitson, Mrs. Jack Barlett, Mrs. Kenneth Baumgartner, and Mrs. Franklin Noll.

For their wedding trip to Yellowstone national park the new Mrs. Miller changed to a green dress of dacron and cotton blend with white accessories. A red rose corsage from her bridal bouquet completed her outfit.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Decatur high school and is employed at General Electric Co. while she attends Fort Wayne Commercial College. Her husband is a graduate of Monmouth high school and is also employed at General Electric Co. while he attends the Dury Technical Institute in Chicago, Ill.

The couple will reside at 509 W. Adams street in Decatur.

The Adams County Home Demonstration chorus will meet at the Farm Bureau building in Monroe Monday at 7:30 p.m.

The Music Department of the Decatur Woman's Club will hold a called meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jerold Lobsiger, 426 N.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Miller appeared in a white nylon organza gown fashioned with a round neckline edged with leaves. The leaves extended down the front of the bodice to the waist in the form of a V. The same leaf pattern was featured in four long strips down the skirt. The gown was finished with short gathered leaves. She wore a white crown headpiece of sequins and pearls and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. Barlett chose a blue nylon dress with white accessories and Mrs. Miller wore a navy voile dress, also with white accessories. Both mothers pinned red carnation corsages to their ensembles.

Wilmer Fuelling, a friend of the groom, attended as best man.

The reception was held following the ceremony at the Central Soya union hall, with approximately 150 guests present. The serving table was centered with a wedding cake decorated with white bells. Mint green and white streamers were also used in the decorations. Servers were Miss Judy Carpenter, Mary Lou Kitson, Mrs. Jack Barlett, Mrs. Kenneth Baumgartner, and Mrs. Franklin Noll.

For their wedding trip to Yellowstone national park the new Mrs. Miller changed to a green dress of dacron and cotton blend with white accessories. A red rose corsage from her bridal bouquet completed her outfit.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Decatur high school and is employed at General Electric Co. while she attends Fort Wayne Commercial College. Her husband is a graduate of Monmouth high school and is also employed at General Electric Co. while he attends the Dury Technical Institute in Chicago, Ill.

The couple will reside at 509 W. Adams street in Decatur.

The Adams County Home Demonstration chorus will meet at the Farm Bureau building in Monroe Monday at 7:30 p.m.

The Music Department of the Decatur Woman's Club will hold a called meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jerold Lobsiger, 426 N.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Miller appeared in a white nylon organza gown fashioned with a round neckline edged with leaves. The leaves extended down the front of the bodice to the waist in the form of a V. The same leaf pattern was featured in four long strips down the skirt. The gown was finished with short gathered leaves. She wore a white crown headpiece of sequins and pearls and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. Barlett chose a blue nylon dress with white accessories and Mrs. Miller wore a navy voile dress, also with white accessories. Both mothers pinned red carnation corsages to their ensembles.

Wilmer Fuelling, a friend of the groom, attended as best man.

The reception was held following the ceremony at the Central Soya union hall, with approximately 150 guests present. The serving table was centered with a wedding cake decorated with white bells. Mint green and white streamers were also used in the decorations. Servers were Miss Judy Carpenter, Mary Lou Kitson, Mrs. Jack Barlett, Mrs. Kenneth Baumgartner, and Mrs. Franklin Noll.

For their wedding trip to Yellowstone national park the new Mrs. Miller changed to a green dress of dacron and cotton blend with white accessories. A red rose corsage from her bridal bouquet completed her outfit.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Decatur high school and is employed at General Electric Co. while she attends Fort Wayne Commercial College. Her husband is a graduate of Monmouth high school and is also employed at General Electric Co. while he attends the Dury Technical Institute in Chicago, Ill.

The couple will reside at 509 W. Adams street in Decatur.

The Adams County Home Demonstration chorus will meet at the Farm Bureau building in Monroe Monday at 7:30 p.m.

The Music Department of the Decatur Woman's Club will hold a called meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jerold Lobsiger, 426 N.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Miller appeared in a white nylon organza gown fashioned with a round neckline edged with leaves. The leaves extended down the front of the bodice to the waist in the form of a V. The same leaf pattern was featured in four long strips down the skirt. The gown was finished with short gathered leaves. She wore a white crown headpiece of sequins and pearls and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. Barlett chose a blue nylon dress with white accessories and Mrs. Miller wore a navy voile dress, also with white accessories. Both mothers pinned red carnation corsages to their ensembles.

Wilmer Fuelling, a friend of the groom, attended as best man.

The reception was held following the ceremony at the Central Soya union hall