FAT OVERWEIGHT

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, our drug called ODRINEX. You must lose ugly fat in 7 days or your money back. No strenuous exercise, laxatives, massage or taking of so-called reducing pills, candles, crackers or cookies, or chewing gum. ODRINEX is a tiny tablet and easily swallowed. When you take ODRINEX, you still enjoy your meals, still eat the foods you like, but you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because ODRINEX depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food. Your weight must come down because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. ODRINEX costs $2.00 and is sold on this GUARANTEE: If not satisfied for any reason, just return the package to your druggist and tions asked. ODRINEX is sold with this guarantee by: SMITH DRUG STORE, Decatur. Mail Orders Filled, get your full money back. No ques-

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hindenlang

Judy Bollenbacher Becomes Bride

The Pleasant Mills Methodist church was the scene of the double-ring, candlelit ceremony which united in matrimony Miss Judith Ann Bollenbacher and Gene Max Hindenlang. The couple was married July 9 before an altar banked with beauty vases of pink gladioli and white pom poms.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bollenbacher, of route 5, Decatur. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hindenlang of route 6, Decatur.

Nuptial music was presented by Carolyn Luginbill, organist, and Lynn Mefford, vocalist. Selections presented by the musicians were "Always," "I Love You Truly," and "Because." "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us" was played as the bride and groom knelt at the altar.

Kenneth Bollenbacher, father of the bride, escorted his daughter to the altar. Miss Bollenbacher was lovely in a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace and nylon chiffon. Her lace bodice was accented with a round neckline and short sleeves. She also wore a string of pearls, a gift from the groom. Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was held in place by her tiny cap of lace and sequins and she carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations and ivy adorned with tiny seed pearls.

The maid of honor, Miss Kay Bollenbacher, sister of the bride, was gowned in pink organza over taffeta. The dress was featured with a pink rose sash. She also wore a pink veiled headpiece and carried pink and white carnations. Miss Beverly Butler served as bridesmaid and Miss Terry Bollenbacher, sister of the bride, as junior bridesmaid in gowns similar to that of the honor attendant.

Miss Suzette Bollenbacher, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bollenbacher chose a black and white dress with which she wore white accessories. A navy blue sheath with white accessories comprised the ensemble worn by the groom's mother. Both mothers wore corsages of deep pink carnations pinned to their ensembles.

Phillip Nussbaum, Jr., was best man, with Dave Mitchell and Bill Augsburg serving as groomsmen and Gregory Bollenbacher, brother of the bride, as ring bearer. Seating the guests were Mike McGill, cousin of the bride, and John Spurgeon, cousin of the groom.

A reception, attended by approximately 150 guests, was held immediately following the ceremony in the church basement. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out throughout the room. A four tiered wedding cake trimmed with pink roses centered the serving table, with white rosettes and pink streamers adding the finishing touches.

Servers at the reception were Barbara Geisler, Pat Johnson, Mary Geisler and Rita Clouse. For their wedding trip to Canada the new Mrs. Hindenlang changed to a yellow cotton dress with a matching cummerbund and white accessories.

The former Miss Bollenbacher is a graduate of Pleasant Mills high school and is employed by Lincoln National Life Insurance Co. in Fort Wayne. Her husband is a graduate of Adams Central high school and is presently attending Indiana University.

The couple are living at 121 S. First street, Decatur.

The M.Y.F. of the First Methodist church will sponsor an ice cream social on the church lawn from 5 to 9 p.m. Friday. Sandwiches, pie and ice cream will be served.

Gardening Exhibit Won By Philip Isch

Philip Isch of the French Happy Hoosiers 4-H club exhibited the grand champion gardening exhibit at the 4-H fair at Monroe. Philip is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Isch of route 1, Berne, and is in his third year of 4-H club work. He is completing his third year in the garden project.
