

Many Budget-Priced Foods In Markets

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Mid-summer food shoppers will find many budget-priced foods at their favorite markets this weekend, as fruits and vegetables continue to increase in volume, and many popular cuts of meat remain plentiful.

Out-of-door menu planners will find excellent values in beef, lamb, pork, and veal this weekend, with many markets featuring certain popular cuts. Broilers, fryers, turkeys, and eggs continue plentiful, and wear favorable price tags.

At the vegetable bins, plentiful include snap beans, corn, peppers, eggplant, squash, lettuce, celery and tomatoes. Potatoes and sweet potatoes are plentiful, along with onions, cabbage, cucumbers, broccoli, cauliflower, beets, and mushrooms.

Fruit counters will offer a plenty of watermelons, cantaloupes, honeydews, blueberries, peaches, lemons, and limes. Also bananas, new crop apples of several varieties, plums, pears, mangoes, apricots, and nectarines.

As for fish, there will be good supplies of such favorites as both fresh and frozen shrimp, scallops, and canned tuna.

Roger Schnepf Tops In 4-H Dog Show

Roger Schnepf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Schnepf and a member of the Washington Variety Farms 4-H club, placed first in the 4-H dog project. The 4-H dog project was judged by Mrs. Noland and Cooper of Fort Wayne Wednesday afternoon. Roger showed a Chihuahua dog. Second place honors went to Mike Thieme of Union township who showed a German Shepherd dog. Bill Rydell of Union township showed an Irish setter to place third and Jim LeFever of Blue Creek township placed fourth with a Toy Manchester. Fifth place went to Brian Schwartz of Monroe township with a Border Collie. Other participants in the dog show were Iris Cayle of Kirkland township and Lois Jean German of Union township. Iris showed a Border Collie and Lois Jean a German Shepherd.

This is the first year for the 4-H dog project. The dogs were judged 30% condition and grooming and 70% on performance. Mrs. Charles Kent gave a demonstration of obedience training for the dog club members and the audience with her miniature poodle, "Tupper." Dr. Elizabeth Peck was in charge of the 4-H dog show and made all the arrangements for the new 4-H show dog program.

Orders Tax Refund To Woodburn Firm

PORT WAYNE, Ind. (UPI)—The Gross Income Tax Division of the Indiana Department of State Revenue must refund $5,383 plus interest and costs to a Woodburn trucking firm, an Allen Superior judge ruled late Wednesday.

The E. W. Bohren Corp. had filed suit against the state charging that gross income taxes paid under protest in 1954 and 1955 were collected illegally. The firm contended that it was engaged in interstate commerce and therefore exempt from the tax.

The state argued that the firm did not possess Interstate Commerce Commission permits for its trucks, but leased the trucks to other firms with ICC permits.

Judge Lloyd S. Hartzler ruled that the firm entered into contracts, not leases, with the companies which leased its trucks and therefore was an independent contractor operating in interstate commerce and not subject to the state tax.

Three deputy attorney generals attending the trial indicated the state would appeal the ruling to the Indiana Supreme Court because it set a precedent.

Raul Castro Says Brother Not Serious

HAVANA (UPI)—Armed forces Minister Raul Castro, just back from a trip to Moscow and Communist East Europe, said early today Russia's "rockets of peace" will blast the United States if it attacks Cuba.

In a rambling, hour-and-40-minute speech, Premier Fidel Castro's younger brother also:

Contradicted reports that the premier is seriously ill, saying that he is "feeling well" and will come back "stronger than ever." The master of ceremonies at the meeting Raul addressed said Fidel will speak Saturday at the closing of the current youth convention here.

Said he will produce proof in a telecast Friday that Edwin L. Sweet, of Abilene, Tex., and William G. Friedmann, of Stillwater, Okla., U.S. diplomats expelled from Cuba in June as "spies," were Nazi agents at the service of Hitler.

Suggested in a popular comment on a U.S. newspaper columnist's proposal that the United States annex Cuba that it should first "disannex" Texas, Puerto Rico and the Panama Canal.

A passing reference to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev touched off a one-minute standing ovation among the unionists and youth delegates the younger Castro was addressing.

Other speakers at the meeting included ousted Guatemalan ex-President Jacobo Arbenz. At the conclusion of his speech, Castro seized Arbenz' hand and raised it over his head like a referee hailing a victorious boxer.

Two Cuban photographers who snapped picture of the pose were arrested.

Three Indicted For Vote Falsification

CROWN POINT, Ind. (UPI)—Three persons were indicted by a Lake County Grand jury late Wednesday in connection with alleged vote falsifications during the recent primary elections.

County prosecutor Floyd Vance refused to reveal the identities of those named in the indictments or the nature of the charges pending their arrest.

The grand jury investigated charges of illegal voting in three Gary precincts and accusations that some election board members had falsified the vote count.

PROPOSES

bers, one from each of the six townships involved, and one member to be appointed by the other six from the area at large. Originally the board will include three two-year members, three four-year members, and one three-year member, with all terms being four years after the first, thus staggering elections so that the majority never leaves the board the same year.

South District
The south Adams community school district will have a six-man school board, all members being appointed. One member will be appointed from each of the three south townships, Jefferson, Wabash and Hartford, by the respective township trustee and advisory board. The Geneva town board will appoint one member of the board. One member will be appointed from Berne by the city council, and the sixth member will be appointed from the French, Blue Creek, and Monroe township rural area, mostly now attending the Berne school, by the Berne city council.

Two of these will be appointed for four years, one for one year, one for three years, and two for two years.

Coming Public Meetings
Before the actual preliminary plan is presented to the people, and the final plan, including the suggestions adopted from those made at the public meetings to be announced soon, the qualifications of board members, officers, the assignment of assets and liabilities of the present districts will be made by the study committee.

The state committee will then come to Adams county and hold a hearing in each of the three proposed districts. Following this, they will approve or disapprove the submitted final plan. If it is approved, the people will then get a chance to vote on it, if 55% have not already approved it by petition.

The entire process will take several years at best, Grabill explained.

Grabill commented that the final meeting was "really wonderful," with all members compromising the remaining differences, and a unanimous vote on every question.

Over 2,600 Daily Democrats are sold and delivered in Decatur each day.
