Street Improvements Explained

Mayor Don Gage spent two hours Wednesday afternoon explaining in detail to the editor the present plans of the street department which are now being carried out, and other plans being considered by the city.

First, the city has $25,000 available to it to spend this year on improving the city streets. This was the money appropriated in the 1960 budget.

About $15,000 of this has been spent on the work which has been done so far.

The remaining $10,000 is now being used to start badly needed repairs on a number of streets.

While the Decatur Industries was on vacation last week, Patterson street from 13th street to the industry was reggraded and stoned. It has not yet been paved.

This road was originally built in the wrong place, and was quite rough. Since finished wood products, easily damaged, and providing employment for some 125-130 local people, have to be moved by truck over the street, the mayor and council decided it should be repaired while the industry was vacationing, as much as possible. It is the only street giving access to the property, sold to the industry by the Chamber of Commerce industrial committee organization.

Starting Monday of this week, McBarnes street is being widened. The reason for this is plain, when understood: it will be the only street this next year leading to the new southeast elementary school. It was originally hoped that a street could be built on the undedicated 50-foot strip leading from Grant street to the school; however, one of the adjoining property owners did not agree to this. Therefore, the cinder path will be blocked, and the main street into the school will be McBarnes. Since it was an old, narrow street, it had to be improved and widened for the safety of the pupils, and the use of the street by the parents, teachers, and visitors. The city is doing as much of this work as it can to hold costs down to a minimum, Mayor Gage explained.

Also, Adams street from 13th street to 16th street has been graded and stoned. This was necessary because the old cinder base would not have held the paving which is planned.

Mayor Gage explained that this work will be completed as fast as funds are available. The city council will meet August 16 to consider the transfer of $20,000 from the approximately $155,000 remaining at no interest in the bank from the electric department fund after $1,500,000 was invested in notes and bonds.

Mayor Gage and the city council are to be complimented in the fine way they are now presenting the plans of the city departments, and the coming year's budget. They are really going out of their way to make sure that the public will have full access to all of the information.

Start Tomato, Corn Packing Next Week

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—Tomato and sweet corn packing is expected to get underway in Indiana next week.

The corn pack is a little late. The major Indiana packer of sweet corn, Morgan of Austin, originally set this week for the start but re-scheduled it for next Tuesday.

A spokesman for the Indiana Canners Association said that washouts in the spring may have helped delay the corn crop a little, but that the start of the pack is not unusually late.

The corn pack usually runs about two weeks. In the Kokomo area, a trial run of the tomato pack was scheduled for this week, with canning to get going next week.

William L. Davis, farm placement supervisor for the Indiana Employment Security Division, said the Kokomo area, apparently because of soil conditions which allow earlier planting very often is the first to start packing tomatoes.

By mid-August, Davis expects to face a heavy demand for pickers from out-of-state. He estimated that the demand will be greater than supplies of either Mexican nationals or those from Texas and that 1,200 to 1,500 British West Indians will be needed.

Davis noted that "community resistance" still is a problem in many areas in bringing in the West Indians.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

A couple called at our home one evening recently, and the woman had her hair done up in pincurls with a scarf tied around her head. Am I right in thinking this was rather rude on her part?

A. This was much more than RATHER rude!

Q. When a bride's own father or mother is not living, and she has a step-parent, how are her wedding invitations worded?

A. "Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Warren request the honour of your presence at the marriage of her (or, his) daughter, Mary Ellen Bailey, etc."

Q. My wife is quite accomplished on the piano. Is it proper for me to suggest that she play for our guests, and also when we are visiting?

A. It is all right to make the suggestion in your own home — but never when you are visiting in someone else's home.

Q. When one's name has been mispronounced during an introduction, should one let the error go by or should one correct it?

A. If the introduction is a casual one and you do not expect to see the other person again, you might very well let the error pass. Otherwise, you may properly say, "I'm sorry, but I think you misunderstood my name. It is Barry, not Perry."

Q. When a bride's own father or mother is not living, and she has a step-parent, how are her wedding invitations worded?

A. "Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Warren request the honour of your
