Veterans Star In Major Loop Games Tuesday

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
They say there's no sentiment in baseball but who can deny a tip of the old chapeau today to vets like Ted Williams, Stan Musial, Curt Simmons and Luis Arroyo?
All four were considered just about washed up when the season started but now Williams has reached another home run milestone, Musial and Simmons are playing major roles in the St. Louis Cardinals' astonishing rise to pennant contention, and Arroyo is the lifesaver of the New York Yankees bullpen.
Here's how the four old pros showed the young 'uns how to do it in Tuesday night's major league action:
—Williams, 41, tied Mel Ott for third place in the all-time home run race when he hit the 511th of his brilliant career in the Boston Red Sox' 6-3 loss to the Cleveland Indians.
—Musial, 39, figured in three runs with two doubles and a sacrifice fly in the first game and Simmons, 31, pitched a five-hitter as the Cardinals whipped the Phillies 5-4 and 6-0, to move into second place in the National League.
—Arroyo, 33, turned in his sixth straight fine relief job to gain credit for the Yankees' 7-4, eight-inning triumph over the Chicago White Sox. The win boosted the Yankees' American League lead to 1½ games.
Pirates Beat Cubs
The Baltimore Orioles beat the Detroit Tigers, 3-0, and the Kansas City Athletics beat the Washington Senators, 8-3 after a 2-4, 12th inning loss, in other American League games, while the Pittsburgh Pirates topped the Chicago Cubs, 7-1, and the Los Angeles Dodgers shaded the Milwaukee Braves, 3-2, in other National League action. San Francisco at Cincinnati was rained out.

Williams hit his 19th homer of this season off Jim Perry, who went on to win his 14th game for the Indians. The blow by Williams, who is hitting .305 this year, sailed far over the 300-foot mark in Cleveland Stadium and produced a 3-3 tie in the fourth inning. Only Babe Ruth, with 714, and Jimmy Foxx, with 534, hit more homers than Williams, whose heroics were negated by a two-run homer and a run-producing double by Vic Power.
Musial, who lifted his average to .281, doubled and scored for both the sixth and eighth innings to help relief ace Lindy McDaniel raise his record to 9-3. Then Simmons, a sore arm case for several years, topped his ex-Philadelphia teammates for the third time to complete the sweep and give the Cardinals four straight victories and 12 in their last 14 games.
Errors Aid Yankees
Arroyo, brought up from Jersey City of the International League three weeks ago, shut out the White Sox for 1-2-3 innings to win his first game for the Yankees. The Yankees pushed over three runs in the eighth inning with the aid of errors by Joe Ginsberg and Roy Sievers with the bases filled and the game was called after the White Sox' eighth because of a sudden rainstorm.
Brooks Robinson's three-run fourth-inning homer and Chuck Estrada's four-hit pitching gave the Orioles their fourth straight victory and ninth in 10 games. It was the 12th win against six losses for Estrada, who handed Frank Lary his 11th defeat.
Harmon Killebrew's two-run

150 Local Athletes Take Examinations

About 150 boys from both Decatur high schools and junior high grades received their physical examinations in the high school gym this morning. Bob Worthman, Decatur high football coach and athletic coordinator, stated he would like to thank the seven doctors who ran the examination program. He said this was the biggest turnout of doctors in a long while and it helped to finish in about 45 minutes.
The doctors were: R. K. Parrish, G. J. Kohne, Harold F. Zwick, Arthur H. Giron, John B. Terver, James M. Burk, and William C. Freeby.

Willshire Seeking Basketball Games

The Willshire schedule is: Nov. 1, Mendon-Union; Nov. 4, Grover Hill; Nov. 11, Celina ICHS; Nov. 15, at Fort Recovery; Dec. 2, Ohio City; Dec. 9, at Lincolnview; Dec. 13, Decatur Catholic; Dec. 16, at Crestview; Jan. 6, Pleasant Mills; Jan. 10, at Rockford; Jan. 13, Lincolnview; Jan. 20, Crestview; Jan. 27, at Ohio City; Feb. 3, at Pleasant Mills; Feb. 10, at Payne.

Legion Bowlers To Organize August 19

An organization meeting of all American Legion bowlers will be held at the Legion home at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 19. Bowlers from previous years are urged to bring new bowlers or any one interested in bowling in the Legion league to the meeting.

Three Advance In Play In LL Tourney

The Decatur Indians, Decatur Tigers, and Berne Yankees advanced to the second round of the county Little League tourney with easy victories Tuesday night. The second game at Berne, between the Decatur White Sox and the Geneva Cubs was called in the second inning because of rain with the score tied at 1-1. The game will be played tonight at Worthman field. Game time is 8 p.m.
The Indians, behind the four hit pitching and hitting of Sam Blythe, won out over the Dodgers of Berne, 12-4, in the game played at Berne. Blythe poked a grand slam homer in a big second inning in which the Indians scored six runs. Berne tied it at six apiece, counting five runs in the fourth inning, but the Indians came back with three runs in the fifth and sixth innings each for the victory.
In the opener at Worthman field in Decatur, the Berne Yankees slaughtered the Adams Central Master Mix team in a game called at the end of four and a half innings. Berne scored 18 runs in only four times at bat to win 18-2. Schwartz, Berne pitcher, held Adams Central to only four hits and had himself a good night at the plate with three singles and a double in four trips. Bentz, Berne's left fielder, had three singles and a walk in four plate appearances, with both Schwartz and Bentz scoring four times each.
In the nighttime, the Tigers, co-champs of the Decatur Little League, went on a hitting rampage to trample the Adams Central Funks, 20-4. Jeff Zimmerman led the winners' attack with a home run, a double, two singles, and a walk in five trips, knocking in five runs and scoring four. John Love had two doubles to aid the cause.
The second round games will open Thursday with the Decatur Senators and Berne Cardinals playing at 6:30 at the Berne diamond. The Decatur Indians and the winner of tonight's Decatur White Sox-Geneva Cubs game will meet in the second encounter.
In the first game at Decatur Thursday, the Decatur Red Sox will be pitted against Adams Central Stucky and the Decatur Tigers and Berne Yankees will play the nighttime.

Californian Winner Of Horseshoe Title

MUNCIE, Ind. (UPI)—Southpaw Don Titcomb, Los Gatos, Calif., twice runner-up, won the "world" and national horseshoe pitching championship Tuesday night with an overall record of 33 victories in 35 matches.
Titcomb, who succeeded Ted Allen, Boulder, Colo., won six of seven games in the final round of the round robin tourney. His only loss was to Wilbur Kelso, Logansport, Ind., 51-49, in his first match.
Canadian champion Elmer Hohl, Wellesley, Ont., was the runner-up with a 30-5 record, and Indiana titlist Curtis Day, Frankfort, was third, also at 30-5 but with a lower percentage record than Hohl.
Titcomb tossed 2,443 ringers out of a possible 2,878 in the five-day grind for a world record, tourney officials said.
Another world mark was set when Titcomb and Carl Steinfield, Rochester, N.Y., tossed 310 ringers in their match.
Steinfeld, and Gene Brumfield, Marksville, Ind.; Ralph Maddox, Potosi, W.Va., and Allen finished with 28-7 records.
Other Indiana records: Kelso, 14-1; John Coble, Peru, 12-2; Ernie Recht, Fort Wayne, 10-25; Graydon McFartridge, Rushville, 22-13.

Today's Sport Parade

(Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.)
By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—The cold war is getting hotter today which is no more than might be expected just before the Olympic Games.
The international muscle contests were devised, in their modern inception, to promote peace and international amity. This is as against the ancient precept when they were held to celebrate victory in war.
Sometimes the ideas and ideals get kind of mixed up — Particularly since the cub of the Russian bear entered the competition. Year in an year out, something always seems to happen to promote discord instead of harmony. A case in point was the last Olympic Games at Melbourne where you might say, it was more than usual.
As example, the games were preceded by the Hungarian uprising and when the lads got down under you couldn't hardly expect them to embrace each other.
They didn't — except when they figuratively had knives in their hands.
The Blood Flows
The classic illustration was when the Hungarians and Russians met in the water polo finals. More time was spent under water than on top of same. Blood ran like the proverbial wine. The Aussies stood on their chairs screaming at the Russians. Police had to be called to escort the beaten Russians from the pool.
Then there was the case of Ireland against the world. The Irish brought their own flag to the Olympic Village. It was much larger than the regulation banners supposed to be hoisted atop the flagpoles in front of each team's quarters.
"Down it must come," insisted the Australian officials.
"Try and take it down," shouted the entire Irish boxing team as it lined up, fists poised, in front of the jackstaff.
So this one in Rome should be no exception and the first shots already have been fired with, once again, our Siberian cousins at the lanyard.
Ridicule The Church
Rome being the seat of the Roman Catholic hierarchy, you could bet in advance that the doubting Dmitri from behind the Kremlin walls would take a pot shot at the holy cloth. They have, and are.
For days the Communist and leftwing press in Italy has been conducting a campaign of ridicule against the church mixing in with the invading athletes.

Cartoons in the Communist newspaper "Unita" have been particularly vicious and satirical. They have shown priests in the boxing ring telling fighters to "turn the other cheek"; priests diving into a pool to shield the figures of female divers behind veils, and a priest pacing a runner to tell him that "the first shall be last, and the last first."
