Big Week Ahead

The town of Monroe, fourth in size in Adams county but first in spirit and cooperation, will be the scene of the annual "Monroe Days" celebration next week.

The entire main street will be occupied with the fair, which is jointly sponsored by the Monroe firemen, rural firemen, and Monroe Lions club.

Highlight of the fair will be the Miss Adams County contest, which will be held Friday evening at 8 p.m., with the winner announced and crowned the following night at 9:30 p.m. Eight beautiful girls from Adams county schools are entered in the contest.

If you have never attended one of these fairs, it will be well worth your while. The fair starts on Wednesday, and you will enjoy chatting with some of your friends and acquaintances whom you will undoubtedly see there.

Proceeds from the fair are traditionally used to improve the community of Monroe. Recently, house numbers were installed on the homes in this community, which resembles a city more every day.

On these warm summer evenings, it is refreshing to drive through Adams county and visit some of the smaller communities which we do not get to visit every day. Progress in the last few years has been remarkable in our county.

SPORTS

Gridders Rest After First-Week Sessions

Decatur's footballers are spending a two-day vacation today and Sunday before getting their noses back to the grindstone next Monday. The team has really been put to work the past two days by coaches Bob Worthman and Jerry Leitz and things don't look to get any easier next Monday. They practiced twice a day during the past week and will continue to do so for the next week and a half, preparing for the opening game Sept. 6 against the Angola Hornets at Worthman Field.

Decatur's football fortunes hit an all-time low last year, losing all nine games and being held scoreless until the seventh game of the year. Prospects are much brighter this year though, with the boys appearing to be taking the game much more serious than they did last year. There are many young faces on the Jack-et's practice field this year and the seniors and juniors who expect to be playing have to keep hustling and working if they are to keep their jobs.

Seniors Important

A lot depends on that all important senior class, not because they are usually the biggest and have been playing the most, but because they are the leaders. Many a young man has gone through a fine first three years at Decatur high and upon becoming a senior he just seemed to lose everything. Bob Worthman always summed this up as "senioritis." If this year's class of seniors can just forget they are the class highest on the totem pole at the high school and remain one of the gang as they were in their first three years, Decatur could have a winning season. Just because some of the players are seniors now, none of the other teams are going to treat them with "respect," in fact the job becomes all the harder. A senior, a good senior, must lead the underclassmen, he must set an example and live by it, helping the younger boys whenever he can and treating even the freshmen with respect.

"Let's Go"

A senior that can live by this code gains the respect of his teammates and by gaining their respect he has them at his command. When he bends over in the huddle and says "Let's really go now gang," the spirit spreads throughout the team and everyone puts forth that extra something that can turn a poor team into a winner. And with the size and speed Decatur has this year they need nothing else but that "want to play attitude."

If some of the boys like John Cowan, Tom Grabill, Ed Nelson, Stu Knodel and Jerry Rambo, who have been in a lot of varsity competition their first three years, in not only football, but the other three sports, will show their teammates, through working hard and putting forth that something extra, that they want to make their final football season a winner, they can become a winner. Their momentum will spread throughout the team members and then look out.

No Complaints

No complaints have been registered as yet about the way the team is putting out, in fact they seem to really be working hard to get themselves into shape, not only physically, but mentally. A coach can't win a ball game if the players don't want to win and there probably isn't any coaching staff that works any harder than Decatur's. But if the players don't want to get the job done then the coach can only go through the motions. It is going to take a lot of hard work to make a winner this year, but the material is there and the coaching is there so that leaves it up to the guys who pull on those uniforms.

Casey Can't Figure Cookie

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

Casey Stengel simply can't figure why he should get kicked in the teeth by a guy he has named "manager of the year."

Stengel's choice is Washington's Cookie Lavagetto, a man who apparently isn't susceptible to flattery.

Less than 24 hours after Casey publicly announced that Lavagetto deserved the award over all the other managers, Cookie returned the compliment Friday night by leading his Senators to a 4-2 victory over the Yankees.

Vice President Richard Nixon was among the 27,211 fans at Griffith Stadium who saw the Yankees' four-game winning streak snapped and their American League lead cut to 1 1/2 games.

What bothers Stengel most though is that the Senators have now won their last three in a row over the Yankees and are the only team in the league boasting an edge over his club this season. The Senators, only a half game out of fourth place, have won nine of their 15 games with the Yanks this year.

Allison Wrecks Yanks

Bob Allison wrecked the Yankees Friday night with a bases-loaded single in the eighth that broke a 2-2 tie. Allison's blow came off Ralph Terry but the loss was charged to his predecessor, Ryne Duren, who put the winning runs on base. Camilo Pascual hurled a five-hitter to register his 12th victory and third straight without a loss over the Yankees this season.

Jim Lemon hit his 28th homer, Harmon Killebrew his 20th and Bob Cerv his 12th.

The White Sox took over sole possession of second place with a 10-0 romp over the pathetic Athletics while the Tigers knocked over the Indians, 5-3. The Orioles and Red Sox were rained out.

In the National League, the Phils topped the Pirates, 4-3, but Pittsburgh retained its 7 1/2 game lead when the Phillies downed the second-place Braves, 3-2. The Cardinals nipped the Dodgers, 1-0, and the Giants won their fourth straight by defeating the Cubs, 2-1.

Wynn Beats A's

Early Wynn recorded his ninth victory for the White Sox with a seven-hitter that sent the A's down to their ninth straight setback. The White Sox piled up a 4-0 lead by the end of three innings and poured it on with five more runs in the fifth. They collected 13 hits, including a homer by Minnie Minoso.

Frank Bolling's three-run homer in the sixth inning gave the Tigers their victory over the Indians. Bill Fischer went 8 1/3 innings for Detroit and Hank Aguirre preserved his fifth victory.

Home runs by Wally Post and Vada Pinson ended a four-game Pirate winning streak and gave the Reds their first victory of the season over Pittsburgh at Cincinnati. Post hit his 16th homer in the fourth inning and Pinson belted his 12th with one on during a three-run rally in the fifth.

Rookie Art Mahaffey of the Phils won his second game without a loss in holding the Braves to six hits. He had a shutout until the eighth when Eddie Mathews hit his 27th homer with one on. The Phils got to loser Juan Pizarro for two runs in the first inning and scored what proved to be the winning run in the second off Carlton Willey.

Larry Jackson of the Cards and Johnny Podres of the Dodgers hooked up in a scoreless duel until the ninth when pinch runner Bob Gibson scored the only run of the game on third baseman Jim Gilliam's error.

Southpaw Mike McCormick limited the Cubs to three hits while registering his 11th win for the Giants. Orlando Cepeda's two-run homer off southpaw Dick Ellsworth was the payoff.

Klenks, Tony's Win In Playoff

Klenks, Tony's Tap and McMillen won first round games in the City Softball League double elimination playoffs, McMillen, however, also lost a game.

Tuesday night, McMillen defeated the Merchants by a 6-3 score. Stevens and Ralph Canales were the McMillen battery, while D. Black and G. Black were the Merchants' duo.

Tony's scored six in the big sixth inning and went on to defeat Preble 9-2 in the first game Friday night. Lehrman did the hurting for Tony's with Hackman catching. Macke and Mentor chucked for Preble with Ewell doing the backstopping.

In Friday's second game, Klenks edged McMillen in a tight pitcher's duel 3-1. Hoopengardner did the Klenks' throwing, with Rowden catching while Stevens hurled his second game of the week and Canales did the catching.

The tourney will continue this week with an 8:15 game Tuesday pitting the Merchants against Preble in a do-or-die game. Both have lost a game and the loser of this game will be eliminated. In the first game Friday, Klenks and Tony's Tap, both undefeated, will duel in a winner's bracket game. In the second game, McMillen will battle the winner of the Tuesday night game between Preble and the Merchants. The loser of this game will also be eliminated. The game time for the first game Friday is 6 o'clock.
