MISS SUSAN CUSTER IS HONORED WITH SHOWER

A lovely miscellaneous bridal shower was held recently in honor of Miss Susan Custer, bride-elect of September 17, at the home of Miss Barbara Kalver. Assisting the hostess were Miss Janalee Smith, Mrs. Gayle Ainsworth and Mrs. John Hammond.

Upon her arrival Miss Custer was presented with a corsage of white mums tied with pink ribbons. The gifts were placed on a table centered with a fountain surrounded by floating gladioli. Several bridesmaid dolls and a bride doll were standing around the fountain, forming a very dignified courtyard. Candelabra also adorned the table.

After the honored guest had opened her gifts, a delicious lunch was served to the guests who were seated in the living room at tables which were centered with floral pieces.

Following the luncheon, cards were played by the guests. Prizes were won by Mrs. Gerald Kohne, Mrs. James Engle and Mrs. D. Burdette Custer, who in turn presented them to Miss Custer.

Those present at the shower were the Mesdames D. Burdette Custer, Tony Custer, B. L. Custer, T. C. Smith, Sr., V. J. ## LOIS SUMAN AND JAMES STANFORD ARE MARRIED

Miss Lois Belle Suman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wibur Suman, of route 3, Decatur, and James David Stanford, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Stanford, were married August 20 in the Nazarene church of Decatur. The Rev. C. E. Lykins officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with asters, gladioli and chrysanthemums. Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Les Roe, organist, and Mrs. Otho Suman, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a white linen dress which featured a cummerbund and a bow in back. She carried a purple orchid mounted on a white Bible. A white head-dress held her short veil in place.

Kaye Ann Suman served as maid of honor in a dress of blue flowered silk. She carried a bouquet of gladioli.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Suman chose a green lace taffeta dress with white accessories. A pink and blue pattern on white organza made up the frock selected by the mother of the groom. Both mothers pinned red rose corsages to their ensembles.

A dinner was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, after which the reception was held. Serving at the reception were Mrs. Harold Harvey and Mrs. Cleo Landis.

For traveling the bride changed to a dress of aqua nylon over taffeta.

Mrs. Stanton is a graduate of Olivet College and will teach at the Bradley school this fall. Her husband is a senior at Olivet College.

The couple will reside at 183 North Convent street, Bourbonnais, Ill.

Yank Travelers In Dominica Warned

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The State Department has warned American travelers in the Dominican Republic that they are no longer under diplomatic protection there. The United States broke diplomatic relations with the Dominican Republic on Aug. 26.

Cracked Dishes

If the cracks in some of your dishes are not too deep, you can probably make them invisible by boiling the dish in sweet milk for about an hour over low heat. This is often a wonderfully effective way to keep intact some pieces that are hard to replace.

Plan Third Project On Mental Health

As a result of plans made recently by the Adams county mental health association, Ed Stucky, legislative chairman, and Brice Bauserman, treasurer, escorted two of Adams county's legislative candidates to the Richmond state hospital. A booth was set up at the Berne fair and 2,000 educational booklets were presented to fairgoers. Also, Mrs. Harry Raudenbush, adopt-a-patient chairman, reported nineteen new adopters signed at the booth. Forgotten patients now have a total of 34 adopters in Adams county.

The third project by the planning committee is to be a county wide public meeting, showing a film describing the problems and treatment of mental illness. This meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 19, in the auditorium of Berne-French school.

The 55-minute color film is titled: "Stranger in the family." It was made at the Mankato state hospital in Illinois and is loaned to the association by the Illinois department of public health.

Members of the committee are: Mrs. Sherman Stucky, association president; Ed Stucky, legislative chairman; Rev. Gordon Neuen-schwander, minister's workshop; Mrs. Stanley Baumgartner, clubs and organizations; Mrs. Harry Raudenbush, booth organization and publicity; and Fred M. Crandell, associate director of the Indiana association for mental health.
