Skelton Laughs Way Into Iron Curtain

NEW YORK (UPI) — Red Skelton waved his floppy brown hat, shook hands with a few hundred United Nations delegates and officials, and laughed his way through the Iron Curtain.

The rubber-faced comedian opened his 1960-61 CBS television series Tuesday night with a wordless pantomime show before an invitation-only audience of about 600 persons, most of them U.N. delegates or secretariat personnel.

He shook hands with every one of them as they left the theater.

"I spoke to people from Russia, the Danish delegation, quite a few Indians, Pakistan, the Philippines, South America and a Cuban woman. She didn't have a beard," Skelton said.

"I think they enjoyed it. They laughed in the right spots."

From 39 Nations
 No heads of government led their delegations to Skelton's assembly session, but 39 nations, including the United States, Russia and Cuba, said they were being represented by ambassadors or U.N. delegates. Fifty policemen were stationed outside the theater on West 54th St.

Theme of Skelton's U.N. tribute was "Laughter — The Universal Language."

Skelton dodged the language barrier by not saying a word in six of his seven routines.

Alone On Stage
 All alone on a bare stage, wearing a tuxedo and his pliable hat, Skelton played a fool who over and over again blows a feather into the air and watches it float to the ground (he finally inhales it by mistake); a slow-motion tennis player (who keeps missing the ball); an old man playing golf (who also keeps missing the ball); a sloppy chef mixing a salad (and sneezing); an American tourist in Paris whose wife insists that they take the stairs to the top of the Eiffel Tower (1,222 steps) to save the elevator fare (he wife "falls" off); and an old man watching a parade, seeing his life pass before him.

When the show was over, and the TV audience estimated by the network at 27 million persons had gone on to other things, Skelton walked back out on stage. "By the way, I have Mrs. Skelton with me, and we're celebrity-conscious," he told his U.N. audience. "Would you think us imposing on you if we shook hands with you on your way out?" Nobody felt imposed upon.

Lutheran Conference In Decatur Friday

Over 300 laymen and pastors from the 22 congregations of the Lutheran church-Missouri synod in the Decatur and Northwestern Ohio areas have been invited to attend the fall fiscal conference to be held at Zion Lutheran church in Decatur Friday.

Registration will begin at 1:30 p. m., with adjournment scheduled at 8:45 p. m.

Each congregation has been asked to send its leaders to learn more about synodical and district activities. Circuit financial goals will be discussed and accepted by the congregations.

Following a short opening devotion at 2:15 p. m., the topic "The Stewardship Life of God's People," will be discussed. Representatives of the central district office at Fort Wayne will be present to give an overview of synodical work.

Christian education, with special emphasis on the needs and problems involved in supplying adequate pastors and teachers for the church, will be included in the agenda.

A light evening meal will be served to the guests by the ladies of the host congregation at 5:30 p. m.

The budget needs for 1961 will be presented during the evening session. Delegates will be briefed on how to present the work and needs of synod to their home congregations.

This conference is one of several to be held in various areas within the central district which includes Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, and West Virginia. Various charts and displays, along with visual aids such as movies and slide presentations, have been prepared to bring as much information as possible down to the "grass roots" level.

Dr. W. C. Birkner, secretary of the Lutheran church-Missouri synod, will represent both synod and the central district office. The Rev. H. Behning, of Ossian, is counselor for the Decatur circuit and the Rev. C. H. Matthias, of Van Wert, holds a comparable position in the Ohio circuit. The Rev. Richard Ludwig, pastor of the host congregation, will conduct the opening devotion.

Boy Scout Troop 64 Enjoys Dunes Outing

Members of Boy Scout troop 64 and their leaders attended a weekend outing at the Dunes state park. This was termed a fun program for the boys, with the adult leaders preparing the meals and doing the cleanup work.

The scouts made the five and one-half mile hike over the Dunes and beach area, also hiked to the peak of Mt. Tom, highest point in the area. The scouts and the leaders slept in their tents and ate out in the open.

Bill Schooler, Ronald Andrews. Adult leaders attending were scoutmaster G. Medford Smith, assistant Jim Roop, and Carl Braun, Ted Eyan, Joe Rousseau and Jack Gordon.

COURT NEWS

Divorce Cases
 In the divorce case of Kathryn Maxine Grim vs. Robert Edwin Grim, the defendant was found to be $80 in arrears on payments for the plaintiff's attorney fees. He was ordered by the court to pay the sum of $10 per week into the clerk's office until paid in full, with the first payment due October 1.

The divorce case of Sylvia Affolder vs. Bert E. Affolder found both parties in agreement that the support payments should be reduced. The court ordered the defendant to pay $15 per week until further order, with the first payment due October 1.

The 1961 Ford Galaxie Club Victoria—beautifully built to take care of people

BEAUTIFULLY BUILT TO TAKE CARE OF ITSELF

The 1961 Ford introduces a whole new concept of what a car can do for you . . . and for itself!

It lubricates itself. New nylon bearings and a newly developed lubricant keep the '61 Ford freshly greased for 30,000 miles. Good-bye grease racks! What's more, it cleans its own oil. The 1961 Ford's Full-Flow oil filter lets you go 4,000 miles between oil changes.

It adjusts its own brakes. A "mechanical brain" keeps brakes adjusted for the life of the lining.

Rust? Ford's body is specially processed to resist corrosion, even to galvanizing body panels beneath doors.

Ford takes care of itself on the turnpike, too, with a new 390-cu. in. Thunderbird Special V-8 that has all the punch you'll ever need. The 352 Thunderbird Special V-8 and 292 Thunderbird V-8 thrive on regular gas. And, for top economy, you can choose the '61 Mileage Maker Six.

This is the 1961 Ford . . . beautifully proportioned to the Classic Ford Look . . . beautifully built to take care of itself.

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF

LUBRICATES ITSELF. You'll normally go 30,000 miles without a chassis lubrication.

CLEANS ITS OWN OIL. You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes with Ford's Full-Flow oil filter.

ADJUSTS ITS OWN BRAKES. New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves automatically.

GUARDS ITS OWN MUFFLER. Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and aluminized—normally will last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.

PROTECTS ITS OWN BODY. All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing body panels beneath doors.

TAKES CARE OF ITS OWN FINISH. New Diamond Lustre Finish never needs wax.
