GALS AND PALS

HAVE HALLOWEEN PARTY
Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Joe Brite, Mrs. Ned Ray and Mrs. Vernon Hirschy were awarded prizes for their costumes at the October meeting and Halloween party of the Gals and Pals Home Demonstration club which was held at the Pleasant Mills school recently.

After unmasking, the president, Mrs. Harvey Jones, called the meeting to order and the club repeated the club collect in unison. Mrs. Earl Geyer led the group in the singing of the song of the month, "O Mary Don't You Weep." The secretary's report was given by Mrs. John Johnson, and Mrs. Wayne Clouse gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. Clyde Jones, a guest from the Jolly Housewives club, gave an interesting report on civil defense, after which Mrs. Walter Bittner presented the citizenship lesson and quiz.

For the November meeting the club decided to have a carry-in supper, featuring a fasting party and silent auction. All new officers are asked to be present for installation.

Refreshments were served to 21 members and two guests by Mrs. Jack Everett, Mrs. Kenneth Manley and Mrs. Herman Lenhart. The door prize was won by Mrs. Russell Watkins.

BETTER HOMES CLUB

ELECTS NEW OFFICERS
The Monroe Better Homes Demonstration club met Tuesday evening with a masquerade party at the home of Mrs. TeFrona Floyd. Each masked member's identity was guessed after which the president, Mrs. Ervin Stucky, opened the regular meeting by leading the group in the club creed.

"O Mary Don't You Weep" is the song for the month and Mrs. Glen Stucky gave the history and led the group in the singing of the song. The evening devotions were given by the hostess, Mrs. Floyd, followed by the reading of the minutes of the last meeting by Mrs. Verlyn Geyer, and the roll call, which was answered with "an autumn beauty spot."

Mrs. Eliza Hahnert gave the health and safety lesson concerning "eye illness," giving points to be aware of when confronted with bad eyes. The citizenship lesson was given by Mrs. Harry Crownover, who stressed the do's and don'ts of voting in the coming election. She helped the members in answering a quiz on the county, state and national officers now in office, and also the new nominees.

The president led in the business session and Mrs. Verlyn Geyer was in charge of the election of new officers with the following results: president, Mrs. Wilbur Stanley; vice president, Mrs. Richard Everett; secretary, Mrs. Leonard Johnston; treasurer, Mrs. James Nussbaum; leaders, Mrs. Richard Reinhart and Mrs. Claud Lausure; alternate leaders, Mrs. Raymond Crist and Mrs. Gaylord Weaver; publicity, Mrs. Clifford Essex.

The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Harry Crownover. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Floyd, Mrs. Ed Pierce and Mrs. Richard Everett to 22 members and five guests. The guests included Mrs. John Baltzell, Mrs. Walter Baltzell, Mrs. DeLota Engle, Mrs. Kenneth Parish and Mrs. Ted Pyles.

MRS. HERMAN SAUTBINE

HOSTESS TO LYDIA CIRCLE
The singing of "Faith of our Fathers," followed by prayer by Mrs. Elmer Winterregg, opened the meeting of the Lydia Circle of the Trinity Evangelical United Brethren church Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Herman Sautbine.

The lesson on "Our Heritage and Horizons in Home Missions" was given by Mrs. Winterregg, leader, who displayed many books of records, pictures and other mementos from the early days of the church.

Voices of the past were portrayed by Mrs. Vernon Hill, voice of Albright; Mrs. Herman Sautbine, voice of Canada; Mrs. Glenn Hill, voice of Otterbein; Mrs. Nina Light, voice of Twentieth Century; and Mrs. Vernon Hill, voice of Ybor City. Mrs. Blanche Mumma gave a study on "Heritage and Horizons in Home Missions."

The scripture was read by Mrs. Lloyd Kitson, followed by prayer. The meeting was closed with the singing of "We've a Story to Tell of the Nations" and the repeating of the Mizpah benediction.

Ten members and four guests, Mrs. Georgia Gage, Mrs. Josephine Weldy, Mrs. Flossie Bogner and Mrs. Helen Drake, were present. The hostesses served lovely refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS TO

MEET AT WOODLAN
Woodlan high school will be the scene of the fall district meeting of the Future Homemakers of America Saturday. The theme will be "Home—the Hub of Good Citizenship." Those attending from the Monmouth chapter are Judy Selking, Diane Miller, Judy Conrad, Janet Fuelling, Connie Bergman, Jeanie Cook, Barbara Roe, Diane Erleben, Dorothy Schlemmer and Lois Scherer. Adults attending will be Mrs. Paul Herderhorst and Mrs. Floyd Strouse.

Barbara Roe will give the devotions as the requirement for the meeting. Connie Bergman, district historian, will teach a class for historians and take part in the program.

DELTA GAMMA HAS

INSPECTION DINNER
The Decatur Youth and Community Center was the scene of an inspection dinner held by Delta Gamma chapter of Psi Iota Xi Tuesday evening.

Fifty-four active and six honorary members were present to hear Mrs. W. P. Dawn, of Muncie, who is the national secretary of Psi Iota Xi. Mrs. Dawn brought news

Miss Roselyn June Flora

Roselyn Flora To Wed Winston Lister

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Flora of 428 Lumberlost Trail have announced the engagement of their daughter, Roselyn June, to Winston C. Lister, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lister of Preble.

Miss Flora is a graduate of Decatur high school and is presently employed by Northwest Airlines in Chicago, Ill. Her fiancé was graduated from Adams Central high school and is attending Purdue University, where he is studying industrial engineering. No date has been set for the wedding.

of the work being done by the sorority on the national level. The organization's main projects are in the field of speech and hearing.

Prior to the dinner, Mrs. Dawn was taken to visit the Trading Post by Mrs. R. K. Parrish, chapter president. This shop, operated by the local members, furnishes the money with which the group maintains its charitable projects.

Co-chairmen for the event were Mrs. Wm. Freeby and Mrs. Dale Morrissey. They, along with their committee, had decorated the dining area with fall flowers and horns of plenty from which flowed bittersweet and colored leaves.

DINNER MEETING HELD BY BUSINESS WOMEN
Mrs. Dorothy Wilson of Montpelier, district director of Business and Professional Women's club, was a special guest at a dinner meeting of the local club held Wednesday evening at the American Legion home. Other guests were Mrs. Jeannette Simmons of Montpelier, and Mrs. Ann Husmann and Mrs. Mary Schnepp of Decatur.

"Buzz" groups were formed and answered questions pertaining to the history, finances, government, purposes and committees of the federation. Thirty-one members and five new members attended the meeting, led by Mrs. Vera Doty, president. Membership chairman, Mrs. Mary Howard, presented the new members, Mrs. Mildred Brinksneider, Mrs. Norma Mahan, Mrs. Margaret Sutton, Mrs. Fern Fogel and Mrs. Josephine Meyer.

A Columbus Day theme was used in colorful red, white and blue decorated U-shaped tables. A small American flag waved from the prow of miniature boats filled with candies and a large model boat centered the speakers' table. Styrofoam blocks held banners proclaiming, "Be Sure To Vote," "Freedom of Press," "Freedom of Speech," etc., along the length of each table.

The girls' sextet from Monmouth high school sang "California, Here I Come," and "Born to be Free." Those singing were Lila Kruetzman, Nila Girod, Winifred Rafert, Helen Reppert and Ruth Ann Berry. They were accompanied by pianist, Mrs. Rafert.

During the business session, Miss Lucile Beavers told of the mental patient whom the club has adopted and plans were made for a special offering to be taken in January for gifts for this forgotten woman.

Reports on the bicycle safety check held recently at Decatur schools were made by health and safety chairmen, Mrs. Irene Hicks, who also outlined plans for the painting of safety signs and slogans in windows of cooperating business firms Saturday, November 12. Students from the schools in Northern Adams county are participating in the contest. Co-chairman of these events is Mrs. Betty Singleton.

Legislation chairman, Miss Glennys Roop, urged all members to vote November 8.

A tour of the Adams county memorial hospital will feature the November 9 meeting of the club. This is a coordinated program by the hostess national security committee and the health and safety committee. A project of the former this year is to have every member's blood typed so the information can be carried with them at all times.

Members of the public relations committee in charge of the meeting were Mrs. Geraldine Herderhorst, chairman, Mrs. Grace Welland, Mrs. Nora Bieberich and Miss Irene Zwick.

TRI KAPPA SORORITY HOLDS BUSINESS MEET
Tri Kappa will hold a second card party at the Center November 15. Anyone wishing to attend is to contact any sorority member for tickets.

Six student tickets to the Civic Music association were purchased and will be given to Miss Helen Haubold to be distributed among the students. A donation was given
