Serna-Hernandez Vows Exchanged

Miss Guadalupe Serna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Serna of 946 North Twelfth street, Decatur, and Eulajio Hernandez, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Eulajio Hernandez of Crystal City, Texas, were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony in the St. Mary's Catholic church at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Simeon Schmitt received the vows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of French lace and tulle with a scalloped scooped neckline of iridescent sequins and long tapered sleeves. A bouffant lace skirt with a side detail of alternate ruffles of lace and tulle completed the gown. Her queen's crown of crystal and rhinestones held her fingertip veil of imported French illusion in place and she carried a crescent bouquet of wood carnations with lilies of the valley.

Miss Toni Vergara served as maid of honor in a street length dress of violet taffeta. The bodice featured a sabrina neckline with three quarter length sleeves. The dress was completed with a lavender cummerbund ending in a far bow at the waist. She wore a violet tiera trimmed with pearls and circular veils and carried a small colonial bouquet of white fiber roses trimmed with lavender net.

Serving as bridesmaids were Rita Mendez, Carmen Quinones, Alice Villagomez, and Trinidad Vergara. All wore gowns identical to that of the honor attendant. Miss Lily Romero was flower girl.

Buster Vergara served as best man with David Vargas, James Cancino, Jerry Villagomez, and Albert Vergara acting as groomsmen. The ring was carried to the altar by Arthur Deleon.

Following the ceremony a wedding party for close relatives was held at the home of the bride. Servers were Miss Minnie Serna, Miss Anita Mendez, Miss Angela Jauregui and Mrs. Manuel Mendez. A reception was held at the Youth and Community Center from 8 to 12 o'clock that evening. Music was furnished by the Latin Combo.

The couple will reside at Crystal City, Texas.

ATTENDS FALL COUNCIL MEETING OF CLUBS

Mrs. Mary Howard represented the Decatur Business and Professional Women's club at the annual fall council meeting of the Indiana Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs at the Claypool Hotel, Indianapolis, Sunday.

Following the international luncheon, Mrs. Marie Carlton, executive secretary for the federation, sang songs of South America, and Don Bolt, well known lecturer and traveller spoke on "Latin America, The Powerful Unknown."

The Indiana Federation has a membership of 8,952 business and professional women. The goal for 1960-61 is 10,261 members. The state theme is "Hoosier women advancing together."

The local club has 43 members.

ADAMS COUNTY W.C.T.U. PLANS SPRING INSTITUTE

The Adams County Women's Christian Temperance Union held a workshop at the Monroe Methodist church recently. Mrs. D. C. Shady, county president, opened the meeting with prayer, after which a report was given by all the department directors. Mrs. Loretta Blackwood spoke on legislation and Mrs. Albert Lehman on flowers and missions.

Mrs. Clovis Oberli gave the noon-tide prayer and a sack lunch was served. Mrs. D. C. Shady presided over the afternoon session during which Mrs. John Gage spoke on armed service, asking for money to purchase television sets and a public address system for the veterans hospital at Marion.

Plans were made for the spring institute, which will be held in Decatur April 7. Mrs. D. Joe Hendrickson, state vice president, will be the speaker at this session. It was decided to invite the Bluffton unions to be the guests of the Adams county institute.

The meeting was adjourned with prayer by Mrs. Ferd Mettler.

Beta Sigma Phi will hold a ritual for pledges Wednesday evening at the Elks home at 8 o'clock.

Our Lady of Good Counsel study club will meet with Mrs. Theima Andrews Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The meeting of the Shakespeare club, which was to have been Wednesday, has been postponed one week due to the death of Earl Adams, husband of a long-time member of the club.

The Pleasant Grove W.M.A. will meet Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock with Mrs. Betty Burger.

The ring was carried to the altar by Arthur Deleon.

Following the ceremony a wedding party for close relatives was held at the home of the bride. Servers were Miss Minnie Serna, Miss Anita Mendez, Miss Angela Jauregui and Mrs. Manuel Mendez. A reception was held at the Youth and Community Center from 8 to 12 o'clock that evening. Music was furnished by the Latin Combo.

The couple will reside at Crystal City, Texas.

Mrs. Franklin Fuelling

Miss Carrol Heine Is Wed Saturday

Amid a setting of gold altar vases and tall white standards filled with pom poms, Miss Carrol Lou Heine and Franklin Fuelling were joined in marriage in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Harold Luecke of New Haven in the St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church at 7 o'clock Saturday evening.

Miss Heine is the daughter of Mrs. Lester Wm. Heine of 6233 East State Blvd., Fort Wayne, and the late Mr. Heine, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fuelling of route 3, Decatur, are the parents of the groom.

Nuptial music was provided by Miss Peggy Burchardt, vocalist, and Arthur Werling, organist.

The bride was escorted by her uncle, John A. Lehman, down an aisle lined with lighted tapers and white satin bows with greens. She wore a floor length gown of hand-clipped chantilly lace over crystal taffeta tapering into a short brush train. The back of the gown featured a cascade of tulle ruffles accented with a scalloped apron extending from the front of the bouffant bridal dress. A multitude of tiny covered buttons detailed the bodice in back. The gown was fashioned with long sleeves ending in points over the hands and a scalloped sabrina neckline enhanced with iridescent sequins and simulated seed pearls. Her fingertip length veil of French illusion was fastened to a looped crown of seed pearls and crystal pendants which twinkled in the candle light and she carried a cascade of pom poms surrounding a white orchid and entwined with English ivy.

Miss Donna Heckman served as maid of honor in a pumpkin colored full skirted dress of Peau D'or, featuring a fitted bodice which tapered to a deep vee back and was accented with a cummerbund and streamer ties. She wore matching mitts and carried an arm basket of wicker containing fall colored chrysanthemums interspersed with English ivy. Her headpiece was a half hat of multi-colored velvet leaves with short veils. Miss Arloa Boese and Marchia Lehman, both cousins of the bride of Fort Wayne, were bridesmaids and Miss Louann Fuelling, sister of the groom, was junior bridesmaid. They wore gowns identical to that of the honor attendant in fall shades of cinnamon, golden wheat and willow green, respectively. Miss Janalee Thompson of Hoagland, flower girl, also wore willow green. She carried a miniature arm basket of mums and was gowned identically to the rest of the attendants.

The bride's mother wore a dress of mauve rose lace over taffeta accented with gunmetal accessories. A frock of royal blue with a raised design was worn by the groom's mother, along with black accents. Both mothers wore white feathered hats and corsages of white pom poms.

Donald Fuelling served his brother as best man and Max Fuelling, another brother of the groom, was junior groomsman. The guests were ushered to their pews by Glenn Wolff, cousin of the groom, of Fort Wayne and George Fuelling, brother of the groom. Charles Potts, of Fort Wayne, carried the rings on a heart shaped white satin pillow.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Goeglein Kerschval reserve. Servers were the Misses Sandra Guenther and Pat Snyder, both of New Haven; and Joan Buhr, Joyce Dager, Louanna Lepper and Susan Morris, all of Fort Wayne. Also serving were the Mesdames George Fuelling, Decatur; and John A. Lehman and Richard K. Young, both of Fort Wayne.

For traveling to the Smokey Mountains and Washington, D.C., the bride wore a blue and green dacton print dress with matching blue and green feathered hat. The white orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet was also pinned to her ensemble.

DECREASING COST OF DRUGS

... the case of penicillin

In 1943 penicillin cost $100 for 100,000 units. By 1956 the price was about 22 cents! This is an example of how drug prices go down after sales and production increase. Today's prescriptions are your biggest health value. We specialize in the handling of prescription drugs.
