Minnesota And Iowa To Clash Next Saturday

By GARY KALE
United Press International

A three-peat may be at stake when Iowa and Minnesota clash Saturday — the national collegiate football championship, the Big Ten Conference title and a possible trip to the Rose Bowl.

The top-ranked Hawkeyes and the No. 4 Gophers have come down to their most important game this season with identical 6-0 records.

Iowa holds a slim conference lead over Minnesota, having beaten league foes in four encounters. The Gophers have won all three of their circuit clashes.

Both prepped for this "turning" game by beating teams from Kansas during the weekend. Iowa, using a strong ground attack, topped the University of Kansas, 21-7, as quarterback Wilburn Hollis went over for two touchdowns.

Fourth-string fullback Jerry Jones and quarterback Larry Johnson each scored twice in Minnesota's 48-7 pasting of Kansas State.

Ties Rebels
Navy and Missouri were the only other teams in the top 10 ratings to retain perfect status as Missouri was held to a 6-6 tie by LSU and Syracuse and Baylor went down to defeat.

The fifth-ranked Middles nipped Notre Dame, 14-7, on Bullet Joe Bellino's two touchdowns and now take on Duke as they strive for the first unbeaten and untied season in Naval Academy football history.

Missouri, No. 6, won its seventh straight and moved a step closer to the Big Eight and moved a step closer to the Big Eight Conference crown by whipping Nebraska, 28-0. The Tigers could virtually clamp the lid on the title by defeating co-leader Colorado Saturday.

Second-ranked Mississippi, which narrowly beat Arkansas the previous weekend on Allen Green's last-minute field goal, was happy to settle for a tie as Green's magic boot was effective from the 31-yard line in the final six seconds.

handed third-ranked Syracuse, last year's national football champions, a 10-0 setback to smash the Orangemen's 16-game winning streak.

Baylor not only dropped from the perfect plateau but also lost its Southwestern Conference lead when Texas Christian clipped the seventh-ranked Bears, 14-6, as Guy Gibbs passed for one touchdown and scored another.

Eighth-ranked Ohio State, still in the Big 10 race, set about improving its ranking by scoring a surprise 21-10 victory over a favored Michigan State squad. The Buckeyes meet Iowa on Nov. 12.

Washington pulled another game out of the fire in the closing stages on Bob Hivner's 47-yard touchdown pass to Don McKay, leaving less than three minutes remaining to edge Oregon, 7-6.

The ninth-ranked Huskies now face Big Five co-leader Southern California in a bid to represent the West Coast in the Rose Bowl.

Retains Clean States
Yale, Utah State and New Mexico State, the only other major colleges with clean records, scored key victories to keep abreast of their respective conferences.

Yale remained in a tie with Princeton in the Ivy League by defeating Dartmouth, 29-0; Utah State topped Brigham Young, 34-0, in a Skyline Conference battle, and New Mexico State trimmed Arizona State University, 27-24, in the Border Conference.

Yale meets Pennsylvania Saturday in a league tilt, while Utah State and Wyoming tussle for the Skyline lead.

Despite Mississippi's tie, the Rebels maintained a slight lead over Tennessee in the Southeastern Conference race. Duke holds sway over the Atlantic Coast Conference and Rice replaced Baylor as front-runner in the Southwestern Conference.

Rutgers also dropped from the perfect ranks, victimized by Villanova, 14-12. Another startling upset was George Washington's 20-6 win over the Air Force Academy.

Greetings of the season!

Politics is the king bee right now, college and pro football are still holding the spotlight in the nation's sports pages, but the king of all Indiana sports splashes into the scene this week.

Basketball, sometimes more appropriately termed the "Hoosier Madness," gets underway officially tomorrow, Nov. 1, in Indiana high schools.

Adams county schools are no exception, as two of the county's eight high schools play Tuesday night, the first date permissible under IHSAA rules, and four others will start their dribbling and shooting in earnest Friday.

The Pleasant Mills Spartans and Hartford Gorillas have the honor of launching the 1960-61 season Tuesday night, with the Spartans playing host to Poling of Jay county, and the Gorillas entertaining Union Center of Wells county.

Four games are on tap Friday. The Decatur Commodores tangle with the Cubs at Monroeville, the Monmouth Eagles host the Adams Central Greyhounds, Hartford plays at Pleasant Mills, and Geneva travels to Marion Bennett.

The Berne-French Bears, sectional and county champions, wait until Nov. 11 to open their season, meeting the Portland Panthers at the Berne gym. The Decatur Yellow Jackets, who completed their football season only last week, wait until Nov. 18 to start roundball, entertaining Adams Central at the Decatur gym.

Three new coaches will make their bows in the county this season. Leon Youngpeter with the Decatur Catholic Commodores, Tom King with the Pleasant Mills Spartans, and Bruce Smith with the Berne-French Bears.

Seven of the county's top 10 scoring leaders last season graduated, leaving tough replacing jobs for the coaches. Only returnees from the individual leaders this season are Rod Schwartz of the Berne Bears, and Denny Bollenbacher and John Cowan of the Decatur Yellow Jackets.

Schwartz was fourth in scoring honors, with Bollenbacher eighth and Cowan ninth.

The final standings from last season, including all tourney games, were:

W. L. Pct
Berne-French 19 6 .760
Adams Central 16 6 .727
Geneva 16 6 .727
Hartford 8 14 .364
Commodores 7 14 .333

Packers Take Over Lead In West Division

By NORMAN MILLER
United Press International

You might call the Green Bay Packers the "Pittsburgh Pirates" of pro football.

The Packers don't often overwhelm an opponent. They chip away, come from behind and have a knack of coming through with the big play.

In case you've forgotten, those were the tactics the Pirates used to win the baseball world championship.

The Packers, seeking their first National Football League crown since 1944, took over sole possession of first place in the Western Division Sunday when they rallied for a 19-13 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers — and right in the Pirates' ballpark, at that.

Paul Hornung chipped away with four field goals — two of 35 yards and others of 47 and 17 — to give Green Bay an early 12-0 lead before a crowd of 30,155.

Bobby Layne, playing with a still sore "thumb," put the Steelers ahead with touchdown passes of 37 yards to Tom Tracy and 48 yards to Buddy Dial.

In Final Minute
But the Packers struck back for the winning touchdown with only 63 seconds remaining. They gained possession on their own 34 by jarring the Steelers for their fifth fumble of the afternoon.

Quarterback Bart Starr set up the score by passing 15 and 14 yards to Boyd Dowler and fullback Jim Taylor plunged over from the one.

This was Green Bay's fourth victory in five games, with a big one coming up next Sunday against the defending champion Colts in Baltimore. The Colts moved up to second place by drubbing the winless Dallas Cowboys, 45-7, while the San Francisco Forty-Niners dropped the Chicago Bears into third place with a 25-7 upset victory.

The Cleveland Browns moved into a first-place tie with the Philadelphia Eagles in the Eastern Division by defeating the Washington Redskins, 31-10, and the St. Louis Cardinals knocked the New York Giants off the top rung with a surprise 20-13 triumph.

The Los Angeles Rams scored their first victory in 14 games by beating the Detroit Lions, 48-35.

In the American Football League, the revived Buffalo Bills upset the Eastern Division-leading Houston Oilers, 25-24, and the Dallas Texans scrambled the Western Division race by defeating the Denver Broncos, 17-14.

Bob Frisinger Fires Hole In One Saturday

Robert Frisinger, Decatur's acting postmaster, hit the golfer's dream Saturday afternoon, firing a hole in one at the Decatur Golf course, the first of his golfing career.

Frisinger holed his tee shot on the No. 4, par three, 125-yard hole. He finished his round with a 42. This is only the second ace at the local course this season. Playing with Frisinger were Thane Custer, Frank Bohnke and Jack Tumlin.
