

Geneva Cardinals Defeat Commodores, 65-62, In Close Tilt Tuesday Night

The Geneva Cardinals registered their ninth victory in 16 starts in the season Tuesday night, edging the Decatur Commodores, 65-62, in a battle which was nip and tuck all the way at the Decatur gym.

The game left the two teams tied in season records with 9-7 records.

It was a see-saw battle all the way. Longest lead of the game was a nine-point advantage enjoyed by the Commodores early in the second quarter, while Geneva's biggest advantage was five points early in the ball game and again late in the battle.

The Cardinals led throughout the early going until Steve Blythe's third and fourth fielders of the period put the Commodores on top at 17-14 with 45 seconds to play. Jim Baumer and Gomer Villagomez traded two-pointers for a 19-16 Decatur lead at the end of the period.

The Commodores boosted their bulge to 27-18 midway through the second quarter, but the Cardinals, paced by Larry Moser and Mert Sprunger, cut the Decatur lead to only one point, 33-32, at the half.

Geneva took the lead early in the third period at 36-35, but the Commodores recaptured the advantage at 41-40 and took a 49-46 margin into the final eight minutes of play. Glen Lehman's two-point and Baumer's free throw knotted the count at 49-49 after the first minute of the final period. Decatur took its last lead of the game at 52-51 with 5:40 to go, but Larry Moser hit two quickies for a 55-52 advantage, and the Commodores could not move back ahead.

Moser topped the Cardinals with 23 points and Baumer added 16. Blythe and Don Kitson paced the Commodores with 19 points each, and Jerry Heimann added 10. Neither team was very effective at the foul line, the Commodores converting 16 of 29 free throw attempts, the Cardinals only seven of 20.

Both teams see action Friday, the Commodores hosting the Hartford Gorillas, and the Cardinals traveling to Huntington Catholic.

Jim Meyer Bowls First 700 Series Of Season

Jim Meyer, bowling with the Decatur Blue Flame team in the Major League at Mies Recreation Tuesday night, rolled a 715 series, the first 700 actual series of the season.

Meyer, whose average is 181, rolled games of 233, 247, and 235, for his 715 total. The 700 was the first since January 8 of last year, when Murvel Andrews rolled a 737 series.

The Commodores boosted their bulge to 27-18 midway through the second quarter, but the Cardinals, paced by Larry Moser and Mert Sprunger, cut the Decatur lead to only one point, 33-32, at the half.

Geneva took the lead early in the third period at 36-35, but the Commodores recaptured the advantage at 41-40 and took a 49-46 margin into the final eight minutes of play. Houston Votes Bond Issue To Build Stadium

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—A record vote showed the Houston Sports Association today over the last major hurdle toward fielding a team in the National League in 1962 and it was "full speed ahead" in construction of the world's first all-weather domed major league baseball stadium.

Harris County voters went to the polls Tuesday and approved, by a narrower than expected margin, a $22 million bond issue to build the stadium and access roads to it.

Ron Hofheinz, chairman of the HSA and former Houston mayor, said construction on the new stadium would begin within the next two weeks.

Full Speed Ahead
"Dirt will fly on South Main Street immediately, and our motto from now is going to be 'full speed ahead,'" Hofheinz said. "My sincere thanks to all those who supported our cause."

Hofheinz said detailed plans for excavation of the stadium, which will have the playing field surface some 35 feet below ground level, will be ready before the week is out.

"Then we will call for bids," he said. "We are jumping right into this thing."

However, there appeared to be one more stumbling block in the making.

Gail Reeves, former city councilman and a spokesman for one of the property owners groups which organized the bond issue, indicated the organization might go into court and ask for an injunction to prevent selling the bonds on grounds they are unconstitutional.

He said a decision on the possible law suit would be made within the next few days.

Exciting Days Ahead
Latest returns in the bond election showed that the first proposal, an $18 million issue for the stadium construction itself, passed by a vote of 59,311 to 32,387. The second proposal, a $4 million issue for construction of access roads, carried by a more than 15,000 vote margin.

Gabe Paul, vice president and general manager of the Houston entry into the National League, commented the vote "convinces me that the people are solidly behind our efforts, and we are going to work day and night to justify the faith of the public in us."

"This is the last big thing we had to do to lay the foundation for Houston's major league future," said George Kirksey, executive vice president of the HSA. "From now on our big task is to build a representative National League team."

"Great and exciting days are ahead for all our people."

Bradley Edged By Cincinnati Tuesday Night

By United Press International

Oscar Robertson is gone—but even so the Cincinnati Bearcats have no intention of giving up the Missouri Valley Conference title to the Bradley Braves.

Cincinnati, whose three-year reign in the league was supposed to have ended when the Big O left, showed it isn't dead yet in edging second-ranked Bradley, 73-72, Tuesday night. The victory was the 10th straight for the Bearcats, who, in turn, handed Bradley its first conference defeat.

Bonnies Trounce Marquette
Meanwhile, St. Bonaventure, ranked No. 3, tuned up for Thursday night's clash with Bradley at Madison Square Garden by trouncing Marquette 92-63, behind Duke and North Carolina, ranked fourth and fifth, respectively, remained unbeaten in Atlantic Coast Conference action. The Blue Devils downed South Carolina, 107-94, and the Tar Heels upended Clemson, 77-46.

Tom Thacker, the sophomore who was supposed to replace Robertson, turned in his best performance of the season in pacing Cincinnati to its 55th win in a row at home. Thacker tallied 22 points, including the deciding basket with seven seconds remaining. Paul Hogue chipped in 17 points for the winners and was the difference on the boards.

Walker Leads Losers
Chet Walker, with 17 points, led the losers, who now stand 5-1 in conference play compared to Cincinnati's 6-2 mark.

In other games, Chris Smith's 29 points led Virginia Tech over The Citadel, 116-93; soph Jim McCormick scored 26 points in leading Southern Conference leader, West Virginia, over VMI, 102-91; North Carolina State dropped Virginia State, 91-58; St. Joseph's (Pa.), nipped Wake Forest, 72-70; De Paul routed Christian Brothers, 92-71; Arkansas defeated Baylor, 74-58; Houston tripped the University of the Pacific, 101-66; Princeton beat Colgate, 75-58; Providence belted Brown, 80-64; Detroit dumped Western Michigan 81-68; Florida State defeated Alabama, 68-57, and Pitt romped over Bucknell, 79-67.

Bluffton Hands Berne Second Loss, 60-58

The Berne Bears suffered their second loss in a row after 15 consecutive victories Tuesday night, dropping a 60-58 thriller to the Bluffton Tigers before a jam-packed Berne gym.

Berne built up a 16-9 lead at the end of the first quarter, but the Tigers sliced this to only 31-27 at the half. Bluffton edged into a 50-48 advantage at the third period and both teams scored 10 points in the final stanza.

The Tigers, who now have a 11-5 season record, were paced by the sensational shooting of Bob Purkhiser, who tallied 31 points, the only Tiger in double figures. Rod Schwartz was Berne's leading scorer with 19 points. Jerry Nussbaum added 15 points and Stan Augsburg 10.

The Bears will seek to get back on the winning trail Friday night when they entertain the Montpelier Pacers at Berne.
