Hott, Baumann Recite Vows

An altar adorned with white gladioli and pink majestic daisies provided the background for the double ring wedding ceremony which united in marriage Miss Judy Alice Hott and Gerald J. Baumann. The Rev. Hazen Sparks received the vows in the First Methodist Church at 1:30 Saturday afternoon.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Harold Hott of 312 North Tenth street, Decatur and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Baumann of 821 North Eleventh street, Decatur, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. J. Fred Fruchte presented the organ preceding the ceremony. Selections were "To A Wild Rose" by MacDowell, "I Love You Truly" by Bend, and "Because" by D'Hardelot. "O Perfect Love" was played during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace and pure silk bombazine. The lace bodice featured a sabrina neckline and long lace sleeves tapered to points over her wrists. The princess line of the silk bombazine skirt was fashioned with soft pleats and scattered lace appliques over the skirt. Her bouffant veil of pure silk illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls and aurora borealis crystal. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses twined with ivy.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Philip Krick of Indianapolis. She was gowning in a lace over taffeta street length gown of Nile green. Her bodice featured a modified scoop neckline and taffeta ribbons at the tucked waistline. The bell shaped skirt was fashioned with soft pleats and hand clipped scalloped hem. Her headpiece was a matching companied by his mother, Mrs. Beulah Parrish. Plants were presented to Hazel Brunner, youngest mother, Mrs. John Nelson, oldest mother, and Neve Noll, most children.

The meeting was closed with the club prayer, after which refreshments were served by Edith Walters, Betty Zerkel, Jean Butler and Neva Noll.
