Jay's Hurling, Yanks Errors Even Series

NEW YORK (UPI)—It was Joey Jay's pitching and Yankee mistakes.

They told the story of the Cincinnati Reds' 6-2 triumph over the New York Yankees in the second game of the World Series Thursday—a game that tied the Series at one game each and sent the clubs on their way to Cincinnati for the third game Saturday.

Jay doled out only four hits to the Yankees and struck out six batters—including home run king Roger Maris twice with men on bases. He missed a shutout only because of a two-run homer by Yogi Berra in the fourth inning. Yogi's 12th home run in Series competition.

But even Jay's brilliant hurling will be overshadowed when historians look back on this game by the spectacle of sloppy fielding by the usually flawless Yankees.

Boyer Muffs Grounder

Glove artist Clete Boyer muffed a grounder at third; Berra, playing left field, committed a three-base error; relief ace Luis Arroyo made a two-base wild throw; and worst of all, catcher Elston Howard looked elsewhere as Cincinnati's Ello Chacon scored on a passed ball.

The game started as a duel between Jay and Yankee right-hander Ralph Terry. But Terry, who tossed Bill Mazeroski the home run ball that beat the Yankees in the last game of last year's World Series, had no better luck this time.

Boyer's muffed let Frank Robinson reach first in the fourth inning, and Gordon Coleman followed with a home run to make 2-0—a 380-foot drive that just barely cleared the fence in the right-center bleachers. The Yankees wiped out that lead in the same inning when Maris walked and Berra lofted his homer 20 rows deep into the lower right field stands.

Chacon Races Home

With two out in the fifth, Chacon popped a looping single into center and then raced to third on Eddie Kasko's ground single through the middle. When Howard let a low pitch by Terry get away from him, Chacon broke for home and Kasko for second.

Howard retrieved the ball and gazed at Kasko streaking for second. Terry was slow breaking off the mound. Howard finally saw Chacon, made a desperate lunge, but was too late to tag him at the plate.

The Yankees put two men on in the last of the fifth but Jay did his best pitching of the day—fanning Tony Kubek and Maris to end the threat.

With two out in the sixth, Wally Post of the Reds doubled into the left corner. Gene Freese was purposely passed, but John Edwards grounded a single to right to

Lettermen Register At Tonight's Game

Booster Club president Norm Steury reminded all lettermen to register at the gate at tonight's football game, that includes anyone who ever lettered in football at Decatur high school.

All those registered will be presented with an identification tag for the lapel.

Approximately 40 cards have been returned, stating that the recipients will attend. Only those who lettered in the past 14 years, while coach Bob Worthman has been at the school, were mailed cards, and only lettermen of those years will be introduced before the game.

However, Steury pointed out, the Booster club wants all lettermen to register at the gate before the game. Also, all the football lettermen, their wives and girlfriends, and members of the Booster club are invited to attend the smorgasbord to be held at the Youth and Community Center after the game.

The Jackets will entertain Bluffton, with the opening kickoff slated for 8 p.m., and the lettermen festivities will be held before the initial kickoff.

Junior High Team Defeats Parkway

The Decatur junior high team jumped into a 13-0 first period lead and coasted home to a 20-6 win over Parkway junior high of Ohio Thursday. The local boys scored the first two times they had the ball, John Lose and Nick Smitley scoring the touchdowns and Sam Blythe adding one extra point on a plunge. Ralph Canales also carried for a TD on a pass play, but the play was called back for a holding penalty.

Decatur scored on five plays to open the second half. Blythe's smashing off tackle for the six-point and then plunging for the extra point. The junior high squad returns to action next week, entertaining New Haven Thursday, Oct. 12. The locals now own a 1-1 record.

score Post and make it 4-2.

Terry Goes Out

Terry went out for a pinch-hitter, but the Reds added two more runs in the eighth off Arroyo to wrap up the game.

Arroyo walked Robinson. Coleman topped the ball in front of the plate for a single. Arroyo's desperate throw to first sailed wildly, scoring Robinson, but Coleman was out trying to reach third.

Post then flied to Berra, but Yogi lost the ball in the sun and it went through him for an error as Post ran to third. Freese again was purposely passed and again Edwards delivered, this time a double over the drawn-in infield to score Post.

Then Jay wrapped it up.

DICK FEASEL AND WILLIAM CALLOW show several of the large antelope and deer that they brought back from a week's hunting trip in northcentral Wyoming, near the South Dakota border. They saw more than 300 antelope during the trip.

Four Hunters Shoot Limit In Wyoming

Four Decatur men returned Wednesday from a week's hunting trip in northern Wyoming that saw them shoot their limit in antelope and deer.

William Hutter, Larry Jennings, of Muncie, Dick Feasel, and William Callow drove straight through both ways, 1,250 miles in 26 hours, to Newcastle, Wyo., near the South Dakota state line.

Game was more than abundant, in fact, "thicker than fleas on a dog's back." Two of them had taken their limit the first day, and shot gophers, jack rabbits, and prairie dogs the rest of the week. They saw more than 300 antelope, but it was quite necessary to have a telescope sight to hit anything. Callow and Feasel used 30.06 rifles, while Hutter had a 2.44 Remington, and Jennings a 2.57 Roberts.

Hutter got a doe deer, Callow a nine-point buck and a large buck antelope, Jennings a doe deer and a buck antelope, and Feasel an eight-point buck deer and a large buck antelope.

Softball Tourney Will Open Monday

The Southeast and Northwest schools will battle Monday in the tourney opener, while the two Lincoln nines, A and B, will meet Tuesday. The winners will then meet Thursday, Oct. 12, for the championship.

All games will be played at the Homestead diamond, and will begin shortly after school. The Southeast school won the regular season with a 3-0 record. The tourney champion will be presented with a large trophy.

Miami Favored Over Navy In Game Tonight

By DICK JOYCE
United Press International

If you go by comparative scores, you'd have to back the Miami Hurricanes against Navy at the Orange Bowl tonight—but the shadow of "old man upset," already prominent in this year's college football schedule, gives the anxious Middles more than a fighting chance.

The oddsmakers have made Miami a 13-point favorite over Navy on the basis of the Middles' 21-10 loss to Penn State in their season opener and Miami's 25-8 upset victory over the Nit-tany Lions, last week.

The Hurricanes rely chiefly on the passing combination of George Mira and Bill Miller for scoring punch—but also can present some strong runners in Jim Vollenweider and John Bennett.

Navy's main strength lies in quarterback Ron Klemick and Bob Hecht, who passed William & Mary silly last week in rolling up a 44-6 triumph.

Florida Over Tulane
In Friday night's other major games, Florida is rated a one-point choice over Tulane and Penn State is a 16-point favorite over Boston University.

On Saturday, four Big Ten powers are expected to dispose of their West Coast opponents. Top-ranked Iowa, although starting halfback Larry Ferguson is ailing, is rated a 14-point choice over Southern California in the nationally-televised game over the ABC network starting at 5:15 p.m. EDT.

Fourth-ranked Michigan State, seeking its third straight victory, meets undefeated Stanford. The powerful Spartans, who blanked Wisconsin, 20-0 last week, are a 15-point choice over the surprising Indians, composed mostly of sophomores.

Ohio State gets the nod by 13 points over UCLA and Minnesota, 1960 national champions, tries to rebound from last week's 6-0 loss to Missouri against Oregon, an eight-point underdog.

Irish-Purdue Even
Rejuvenated Notre Dame tangles with its old nemesis, Purdue, as the Fighting Irish look to regain national recognition as a top power. They're rated even.

In another top game, Michigan plays host to Army and is a seven-point favorite. The Cadets won their first two games against Richmond and Boeton University but Coach Dale Hall claims "Michigan has no weaknesses, according to our scouts, and I'm afraid we won't be able to handle such a team at this stage of the season."

Other leading Saturday contests include Syracuse-Maryland; North Carolina-Clemson; California-Missouri; Northwestern - Illinois; Wisconsin - Indiana; Duke-Wake Forest; Southern Methodist-Air Force; Colorado-Kansas; Pittsburgh-Washington; Alabama-Vanderbilt; Auburn - Kentucky; Georgia Tech-Louisiana State, and Mississippi-Florida State.

Lincoln A Wins Over Northwest

Lincoln A walloped Northwest school in the final season game of the 5th and 6th grade softball league, 10-0. The winners connected for seven hits and played errorless ball, while Jim Cass limited Northwest to only two hits, and they committed five errors.

Cass and Pettibone formed the Lincoln A battery, Koos hurling for Northwest and Meyer catching.

A's Name Ed Lopat As Pitching Coach

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Kansas City Athletics have signed Ed Lopat as their pitching coach for the 1962 season, it was announced today by the A's owner, Charles Finley.

Lopat, a former star southpaw with the New York Yankees, was a pitching coach with the Minnesota Twins during the past season.

Finley said that the contract of Ted Wilks, who had served as the A's pitching coach this year, will not be renewed.

"However, we hope to retain Ted in some capacity with the club," the A's owner said.

Finley added that "we feel fortunate in acquiring the services of Lopat. We are confident he will be great help to our young pitching staff."

Lopat won 166 games and lost 112 during his major league career.

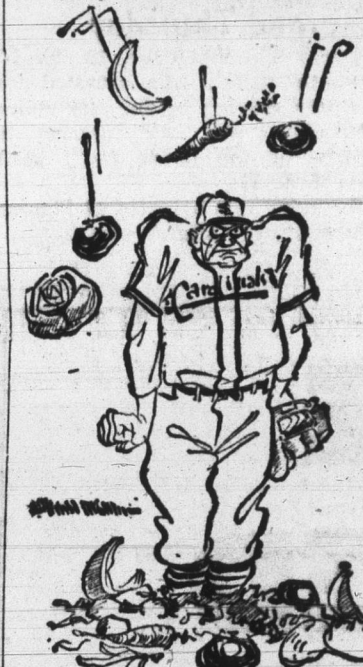

Hartford Gorillas Win Cross Country

Favored Hartford ran away with the Adams county cross country championship held at the Decatur Golf course Thursday afternoon, totaling a low score of 45, compared to runner-up Adams Central's 68. The winners were led by Bob Fields, who took top individual rating with a time of 9:49. Adams Central nosed Berne for the second spot, Berne registering 67 points.

Decatur Catholic finished third with 114, trailed by Pleasant Mills with 125, Monmouth with 136, and Geneva with 143.

The top ten individuals were: Fields, Hartford; Boeger, Monmouth; Bauman, Geneva; Brooks, Berne; Habegger, Hartford; Runke, Hartford; Habegger, Berne; Hirschy, Adams Central; Ohler, Pleasant Mills; and Luginbill, Pleasant Mills.

WORLD SERIES HIGHLIGHTS

DID YOU KNOW a Series game once was halted by irate fans until an innocent player was removed from the game? According to the newly-published World Series Encyclopedia, this was in 1934 when Detroit fans, angry with Ducky Medwick for nicking Tiger Marvin Owen, showered the Cardinal outfielder with debris. After the field was cleared, Medwick met a second barrage. Realizing fans wouldn't leave Joe alone, Commissioner Landis ordered him removed from the game "so we can finish it."

Notre Dame And Purdue Tilt Is Rated As Even

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (UPI)—The experts say Saturday's Purdue-Notre Dame football battle is considered "even." Which means virtually anything can happen.

And with a full house of more than 50,000 fans packing Ross-Ade Stadium, this could develop into another of those classic battles the two intra-state rivals have engaged in since 1896.

Like last year, when the Purdue ran wild, scored four touchdowns and a field goal in the second period and piled up a 51 to 19 victory, their biggest in the 32-game series.

Notre Dame will depend on the explosive running of Angelo Dabiero, who piled up 176 yards from scrimmage against Oklahoma last Saturday, and Mike Lind, who racked up the two other touchdowns against the Sooners.

Purdue, with its traditionally tough line, has its own backfield stars—in sophomore quarterback Ron DiGravio and ballcarriers Tom Bloom, Dave Miller and Roy Walker.

They won't find the Irish line a pushover—not with the likes of Les Traver, Nick Buoniconiti and 240-pound tackle Joe Carollo leading the way.

It will be the home opener for the Boilermakers, who took such care in preparing for this crucial game that they dispatched two scouts to South Bend last Saturday.

"Notre Dame turned in a top first game performance," said Purdue coach Jack Mollenkopf. And Brad Lynn, who scouted Purdue on the west coast, reported to
