OWEN WEMHOFF SPEAKS AT WOMEN'S CLUB MONDAY

The Decatur Women's Club met at the Community Center Monday evening for their February meeting.

Miss Bertha Heller, chairman of the nominating committee presented the slate of nominees to the members. Mrs. Jethro Sprunger was elected president of the club; Mrs. W. W. Cravens, first vice-president; Miss Frances Dugan, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Sittler, secretary; Mrs. Ralph E. Smith, treasurer.

Mrs. Ferris Kohne announced the program for the March meeting and Mrs. Robert Krueckeberg showed a film on cancer.

Mrs. Ralph E. Smith of the Civic department presented Owen Wemhoff, director of the Johnny Appleseed school for retarded children. His topic for the evening was "How to Help the Retarded Child." He noted early in his talk that 3% of the total population, or close to five and one-half million persons, are mentally retarded. It is the third greatest health problem facing the nation today. Indiana had no private teaching facilities ten years ago, but there are now more than fifty private schools for the mentally retarded at this time.

Wemhoff organized the Fort Wayne school in 1954 with seven part-time students and today the school has grown to include 116 students and a teaching staff of 12 persons. He stated they would move into a new school, presently under construction, in April of this year.
