A Cultural Lift

One of the brightest spots in Decatur's cultural life is the civic music program, which has improved significantly in the past few years, thanks to the dedication of local workers, and the vast improvement in the national organization which schedules the programs.

This week more than 100 persons are taking part in the annual membership drive. This drive is open until Saturday night, period. You cannot buy a ticket after that time.

The programs will depend entirely on how many people sign up. Much better programs will be obtained if more people buy tickets. Many local industries and businesses are buying tickets, and lending them to workers who want to attend one particular concert, but cannot afford a $7.50 series ticket.

The Indianapolis symphony orchestra, a highlight of the program each year, has already been scheduled. But the rest of the programs will depend on the number of memberships sold.

Mrs. Roy Kalver heads the entire program, and Mrs. J. Clark Mayclin heads the drive in Decatur.

All new members who sign up now will be able to attend the bonus concert this year, Stan Freeman on April 12.

Those who have never attended the programs are missing a fine opportunity for relaxation, enjoyment, and a fine social evening right here in Decatur. The programs are of such quality that few large cities have any better.

A city is often measured by the programs that its citizens support. No finer recommendation can be given for Decatur than its excellent civic music program. If you take part, you help strengthen this important aspect of Adams County's civic life.
