Borror - Pancake Nuptials Saturday

Altar vases of white chrysanthemums graced the First Methodist church chapel to provide the setting for the marriage of Miss Barbara Joan Borror and Kenneth Wayne Pancake late Saturday afternoon. The Rev. A. C. Underwood received the double ring vows at four o'clock.

Parents of the couple are William D. Borror of Decatur, and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Pancake of Fort Wayne.

A wedding musicale was played by the organist, Miss Helen-Haubold.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was wearing a floor length gown of chantilly lace over antique satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a high scalloped lace collar and long-lace sleeves tapering to points over her wrists. The bouffant skirt featured a wide lace panel in front and cascades of net ruffles accented with a lace trimmed peplum at the waist. Her veil of tulle edged with baby lace was caught to a tiara of rhinestones and she carried a single cymbidium orchid surrounded with white rosebuds on a white Bible.

Rose Currie Wed To Sherman Archer Saturday

Miss Rose Louise Currie, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Currie, became the bride of Sherman Lee Archer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Archer, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Leon Lacoax received the double ring vows before the altar of the Pleasant Hills Methodist church, which had been beautifully decorated with baskets of white gladiolas, ferns, palms, and lighted candelabra.

Nuptial music preceding the ceremony was provided by the organist Larry Merriman, playing "Indiana Love Call," "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming," "Sinfonia," by Bach and the "Bridal Chorus." Vocalist, Gary Millington, sang "I Love You Truly," "Because," and "Lord's Prayer."

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of white imported chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scalloped square neckline sprinkled with iridescent sequins and seed pearls and long lace sleeves tapering to points over her hands.

The bride is a graduate of Decatur high school and the groom is a graduate of New Haven high school. After April 15, the couple will be at home at 304 N. Ninth street, Decatur.

The Xi Alpha Xi of the Beta Sigma Phi will meet at the Community Center Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock instead of with Mrs. Carl Gattshall.

The Decatur Business and Professional club will meet Wednesday at 6:30 o'clock at the Community Center.

The Epsilon Sigma chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi will meet at the Elks home Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Phoebe Bible class meeting has been postponed one week so that the members may attend the Civic Music concert.

The Past Presidents Parley district meeting will be held Thursday at Angola. The meeting will begin at 12 noon with a luncheon and all local members are requested to attend.

Mrs. Wayne Peterson will be hostess to the members of the Queen of the Rosary study club Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Order of the Eastern Star will meet at the Masonic hall Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

The American Legion auxiliary will meet at the Legion home Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

bodice and lace panels that fell to the hemline in back. Her accessories were beige and white and she wore a corsage of white gladiolas. Mrs. Archer wore a two-piece ensemble in beige and complemented with accessories of beige and orange. She was also wearing a corsage of white gladiolas.

David Currie served the bridegroom as best man and guests were ushered to their seats by Larry Huston, Larry Hoffman, and Gene Tricker.

A reception was held at the Decatur Community Center following the ceremony, which 250 guests attended. The serving table was set with a silver service, floral arrangements of blue and white mums, and highlighted with a four tiered wedding cake. Those serving the guests included Mrs. Franklin Eheart, Mrs. Harold Houtzel, Mrs. Harvey Geisler, Mrs. George Tholen, and Mrs. Thomas Eheart, aunts of the bride. Also, Mrs. Raymond Geimer, and Mrs. Paul McCullough, aunts of the bridegroom.

For a wedding trip to the Shenandoah national park, Virginia, the new Mrs. Archer was wearing a blue and white-tweed suit with blue and black patent accessories. The bride is a graduate of Pleasant Mills high school and is employed by the Navy department in Washington, D. C.

Archer is also a graduate of Pleasant Mills high school and is employed by the federal bureau of investigation at Washington D. C.

The couple will make their home at 841 S. Frederick street, Apt 731-B, Arlington, Va.

ART DEPARTMENT TOURS
VAN WERT ART MUSEUM

Seventeen members of the Art department of the Decatur Woman's club motored to Van Wert Sunday, to attend the art exhibits at the Wassengren Museum of Art.

A selection of paintings from the Abbott Laboratories fine art collection was currently on exhibit. Abbott Laboratories, manufacturers of pharmaceuticals in North Chicago, buy works of art and reproduce them on their magazine, which is distributed to more than 200,000 doctors. The paintings exhibited at the museum were the originals of those used for the magazine. The abstract of Frederick Franck, "Journey to Bethlehem" and the more conventional, "Village Slope," by Paul Sample, seemed to draw special attention. In another exhibit the photographic prints of M. Wesley Pusy of Fort Wayne were featured. He exhibited children, still lifes, and people of all ages as caught by the camera's eye. Many of these pictures were quite unusual.

The third exhibit included paintings from the artists of the Van Wert Art club. The local group was especially pleased to see that their chairman, Mrs. Helen Howell, had one of her works exhibited.

The committee in charge of the arrangements included Mrs. Helen Howell, Mrs. Leo Curtin, and Mrs. Ray Eichenauer.

APRIL MEETING HELD BY
MONROE METHODIST WSCS

Mrs. Darold Borne conducted a 5-minute prayer session for those listed in the prayer calendar who are in Christian vocations just before the opening of the April meeting of the Monroe Methodist D.S.C.S. Thursday evening. Mrs. Philip Barger played the prelude. The opening song, "He Keeps Me Singing," was sung by the entire W.S.C.S. Thursday evening. Mrs. Arlen Mitchell, vice president, Mrs. Russel Mitchell had charge of the program and gave a reading of "What To Give Up For Lent." The special number for the evening was a solo by Mrs. Ferd Martz, entitled "Alone," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Homer Winterberg. The devotions were given by Mrs. Rene Brandt. Mrs. Sheldon Wagley gave the lesson on "Glimpses of a Fast Moving Society."

Mrs. Harry Crownover, president, opened the business meeting with a recognition service for the new members prepared by Mrs. Robert Isch, promotion secretary, with Mrs. Glen Stucky giving a reading about the treasury's purpose; Mrs. Donald Borne, "Telling us to pledge our prayers to bind us closer to Him in whose
