Dodgers Take Over Lead In National Loop

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

It's no joke when the Los Angeles Dodgers say that Maury Wills might steal the National League pennant for them this season.

Exhibit A today for any "doubting Thomases" is the simple fact that the little, fleet-footed shortstop "stole" first place for the Dodgers in a 13-inning, 4-3 victory over the Houston Colts Friday night.

With 32 steals in approximately one third of the season, Wills is posing the most serious challenge in history to Ty Cobb's major league mark of 96 steals during the 1915 season.

Wills "broke it up" Friday night after receiving a leadoff 13th-inning walk from Don McMahon of the Colts. He promptly stole second and third bases and then scored the winning run on a sacrifice fly by Willie Davis. The victory vaulted the Dodgers into first place, a half-game ahead of the San Francisco Giants, who lost to the St. Louis Cardinals, 8-4.

Sherry Wins Fourth World Series pitching hero who had fallen on hard times the last few years, gained his fourth win of the season. Sherry, who entered the game in the ninth inning, has won or "saved" six of the Dodgers' last 18 victories.

The New York Yankees, more noted for their slugging, retained their one-game American League lead over the Minnesota Twins when they downed the Baltimore Orioles, 1-0, for their third straight shutout. Yankee pitchers now have hurled 2-1-3 consecutive scoreless frames.

Jim Coates, who replaced Whitey Ford in the second inning, yielded only one hit during the last eight innings to win his fifth game. Bobby Richardson, atoning for two errors in the field, singled home the winning run off reliever Hoyt Wilhelm in the eighth inning.

Lindy Preserves Win Reliever Lindy McDaniel throttled the Giants with a no-hit, three-strikeout performance in the last 2-3 innings to protect Bob Gibson's seventh win. Homers by Bill White and Ken Boyer of the Cardinals helped to offset round-trippers by Willie Mays (No. 20) and Willie McCovey.

The Philadelphia Phillies routed the Cincinnati Reds, 10-3, and the New York Mets ended their 17-game losing streak with a 4-3 decision before dropping a 3-2 verdict to the Chicago Cubs in other National League games. Pittsburgh at Milwaukee was rained out.

The Washington Senators dropped a 10-inning 7-6 decision and then beat the Detroit Tigers, 1-0, the Twins edged out the Chicago White Sox, 2-1, the Los Angeles Angels romped over the Kansas City Athletics, 7-1, and the Cleveland Indians outscrambled the Boston Red Sox, 15-9, in 13 innings in other AL action.

Phil's rookie Dennis Bennett pitched a four-hitter and Don Demeter hit a two-run homer for the Phillies, who sent the Reds down to their fifth loss in a row. Johnny Klippstein suffered the loss for Cincinnati.

Mets Break Streak Jay Hock, who halted an earlier nine-game Mets' losing streak, scattered 10 hits for the victory that ended the longest 17 games of Casey Stengel's 50-year career in baseball but the Cubs bounced back to win the nightcap on Ron Santo's two-run eighth-inning single. Cal Koonce went seven innings to win his fourth game for the Cubs in the nightcap.

Chuck Hinton's run-scoring eighth-inning single won the second game of the Tiger-Senator doubleheader for Washington's Dave Stenhouse. The Tigers took the 10-inning opener when Rocky Colavito climaxed a great night at the plate with a sacrifice fly. Colavito went 4-for-5, drove in three runs and made a brilliant ninth-inning catch.

Jack Kralick's six-hitter and Don Mincher's eighth-inning single provided the Twins with their winning edge over the White Sox. Don Lee pitched a two-hitter and Lee Thomas had a three-run homer and two singles for the Angels and Willie Kirkland's two-run homer was the big blow of a six-run 13th-inning that gave the Indians their fourth and 48-minute triumph over the Red Sox.

Ned M. Stucky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stucky, of Monroe, is among the graduates at Taylor University at the 118th commencement exercises today. He receives the bachelor of science in education degree. A business major, Stucky plans to enter the teaching field.

Yankees Beat Senators In Little League

The Yankees racked up their second victory in three tries in the Decatur Little League Friday evening, handing the Senators a 7-4 defeat.

The Yanks now own a 2-1 record, while the loss was the Senators' second straight, after two wins.

Stu Spiegel hurled three-hit ball for the winners, striking out ten while walking only three.

The winners scored their seven runs in two innings, counting three times in the first on a walk to Jerry Rich, a single by Dan Strickler, a walk to Bob Koons, a hit batsman and an error.

The Senators scored once in their half of the first on a single by Dan Pettibone, a single by Dave Knittle, and a Yankee error, and pulled into a 3-3 tie in the third, using a walk and Rich Cacciano's single to good advantage.

The Yanks then scored four times in the fourth inning to wrap up the victory. Dave Meyer walked to lead off and Bill Rickard was hit by a pitch. Strickler followed with a double and Koons banged out a single. Koons later scored on an error.

No-Hitter Features Softball League

Klenk's got their second consecutive no-hit pitching effort to down Decatur Casting Co., 17-0, and Two Brothers edged Adams County Trailer Sales, 4-1, in City Softball league action Friday night.

Meyers tossed a no-hitter at Decatur Casting and his teammates backed him with a 12-hit attack as they. Schnepf and Price homered for the winners, whose Lee Hoopingarner had pitched a no-hit game on Tuesday.

Two Brothers scored twice in each of the third and fourth innings to take a 4-1 win from the Trailer Sales, although outting, 6-5. Linn struck out 14 in getting the pitching victory.

Cubs Defeat Monmouth In Pony League

The Cubs copped their second win in two outings in the Adams County Pony League Friday night, a 13-6 win over Monmouth in the second game of a doubleheader at Worthman Field.

The winners scored six runs in the third inning 6-3 lead and were never headed, added a trio of runs in each of the fifth and sixth innings.

Bill Brown's single and Sam Blythe's double in the first inning gave the Cubs a 1-0 lead, before Monmouth scored once in the second on singles by Spiegel and Graves and the only Cub error of the game.

Monmouth took the lead in the third, scoring twice on singles by Lugbill, Reinking and Thiemann and a fielder's choice.

Doug Spaulding got the winners rolling in the third when he walked. Brown followed with a single and Lon Hawkins reached first on an error. Blythe walked, Dan Kable singled in two runs, John Meeks and Dave Hackman cracked back-to-back doubles.

Monmouth scored twice in their half of the fourth and added their final run in the fifth when Thiemann hit a bases empty home run.

Three in Fifth The Cubs scored three more runs in the fifth on singles by Meeks and Hackman, an error, a walk to Spaulding and Brown's third hit of the game.

Jerry Murphy's long home run to right-centerfield accounted for the final two Cub runs in the sixth.

Hawkins and John Lose split the hurling chores for the Cubs, Hawkins going the first five innings and getting credit for the victory. Graves and Conrad were the two Monmouth pitchers.

The Cubs meet the Cardinals in the second game of a doubleheader
