

Ex-Convict Is Held In Savage Beating

MAQUOKETA, Iowa (UPI)—An "anti-social" ex-convict, faced arraignment today on assault with intent to murder charges in the savage beating of a farm couple and the abduction of their young granddaughter.

Blonde, pig-tailed Sheri Batey, 9, told authorities she saw Donald Kinyon, 27, Maquoketa, batter her grandmother on the head with a chair before he ordered the girl to accompany him in her grandfather's car.

She said the tattooed Kinyon later told her he had struck her grandfather with his fists but the 60-year-old farmer would be "all right."

Thomas Vincent Batey remained in "very critical" condition at Jackson County Hospital with severe head injuries and puncture wounds in the neck and abdomen. Authorities said he apparently had been beaten with a pitchfork, shovel and log-splitting axe.

Batey's wife, Mabel, 63, was in "fair" condition with head injuries from blows struck with a chair which was found broken in the Batey farm house three miles northwest of here.

Kinyon won his parole from prison when Batey agreed to employ the convict as a farmhand.

Kinyon's refusal to respond to questions, even when asked his birth date, left authorities without any clue to a motive for the beatings and abduction.

The beatings occurred late Monday. Kinyon and the girl were found Tuesday night driving on Iowa 62 about 10 miles north of here.

Kokomo Boy Drowns In Lake Near Marion

MARION, Ind. (UPI)—James Fakes, 12, Kokomo, drowned Wednesday when he jumped from a low diving board into 17 feet of water in Clearwater Lake at a private park about 11 miles southwest of here.

Kohler Choice For Envoy To Russia

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy announced today he will appoint Foy D. Kohler, assistant secretary of state for European affairs and a veteran diplomat, as the new U.S. ambassador to Russia.

Kohler, 54, will succeed Llewellyn E. Thompson, who has represented this country in Moscow for the last five years. Thompson will return to Washington for a new assignment upon Kohler's confirmation by the Senate.

Kennedy also nominated Henry L. Giordano as commissioner of narcotics, succeeding Harry J. Anslinger, who has held the post for many years.

Kennedy said he accepted Anslinger's resignation "with regret." He praised the departing narcotics chief for his "many years of dedicated and loyal service to our government."

White House officials discounted reports that Anslinger, who reached 70 on May 28, was giving up the post against his wishes. Anslinger, in his letter of resignation, said Kennedy "generously"

Speculate On New Contacts Over Berlin

MOSCOW (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's remark that progress has been made in negotiations on Berlin sparked speculation here today that East-West contacts on the problem would be resumed soon.

Western observers believed the subject might be taken up anew by East-West foreign ministers expected to go to Geneva for the signing of the final accord that will confirm Laos as a neutral state.

Khrushchev said Wednesday he believes previous East-West talks have advanced toward a solution of the Berlin issue, but he warned that a speedy settlement is necessary to save the world from catastrophe.

The Soviet leader again called for the signing of a German peace treaty and demanded an end to what he termed the "dangerous provocations" of West Germany against East Germany.

Khrushchev made his remarks at a Kremlin reception for visiting Austrian Chancellor Alfons Gorbach. He made a similar statement on progress in Berlin negotiations earlier when he dropped in on a Fourth of July celebration at the U.S. Embassy.

At the Kremlin, the Communist chief mentioned a new accord on Laos and the 1955 signing of the Austrian state treaty as examples of how determination and goodwill could regulate complicated international problems with peaceful means.

"We believe that in the nearest future there can and ought to be agreement on the question of a German peace settlement," Khrushchev said. "The interests of peace and security of people decisively demand this."

Many Holiday Outings Are Marred By Rain

By United Press International

Thunderclouds poured heavy rain on the Southland and Rockies early today in the wake of killer storms that marred Fourth of July outings in spots from Florida to Kansas.

Two inches of rain drenched Alma, Ga., in a six-hour period, while more than an inch was reported at Lamar, Colo.

More rain was in store for portions of the country from the eastern Rockies to the Great Lakes and south to the Carolinas.

During the night, fierce winds whipped parts of Missouri with gusts of 85 miles an hour reported at Montrose in that state.

Earlier, one of two waterspouts that started thousands of bathers on the beach at Pensacola, Fla., hit land at Gulf Breeze, Fla., causing some $50,000 damage to four homes. The other spout broke up before reaching shore.

During the storms, Kenneth Stranahan, 52, Pensacola, was killed by a lightning bolt while fishing in his boat in Pensacola Bay. At Petty Springs, Fla., a sudden wind gust blew down a tree onto a crowd of picnickers, killing one and injuring four.

Weather violence in Kansas claimed at least one life. Melvin Zimmerman, 18, Stilwell, was struck and killed by lightning during a severe thunderstorm. Several tornadoes were sighted in the state but apparently none touched ground. Large hailstones pelted Wichita.

Wisconsin's only notable traffic death occurred when two cars collided on a fog-shrouded highway in Dane County.

Heavy rain and wind gusts of 70 miles an hour lashed Birmingham, Ala., around sundown. Winds of 50 m.p.h. hit Burlington, Iowa.
