Braves Defeat Geneva, 13-5, In Pony League

The Decatur Braves, trailing by three runs after two innings, rallied for a 13-5 win over Geneva at the latter's diamond Friday evening.

Geneva scored once in the first inning and three times in the second, taking a 4-1 lead, before the Braves took over.

The Decatur team scored two runs in the third and three in the fourth, to grab a 6-4 lead, and coasted home for the victory.

A total of seven Braves led the team's 16-hit attack with two hits apiece. Gary Myers, Nick Smitley, Tony Kohne, Jim Miller, Bill Bolinger, Jerry Conrad and John August had two hits each for the winners.

The Braves took the lead in the fourth inning when Denny Baker, the winning hurler, singled and Myers walked, before Smitley blasted a three-run home run.

Myers also hit a home run for the Braves, with a man on in the fourth inning.

Baker settled down after the second inning to allow Geneva only two hits and one run in the last five innings.

Klenks Undeclared In Softball League

Klenks whipped Decatur Casting Co., 8-3, and McMillen edged Citizens Telephone, 7-6 in City Softball League games Friday.

A four run third inning provided the Klenk team enough runs to record the victory and remain in unbeaten in league play this season.

Citizens had a 5-4 lead after the top of the sixth inning, but McMillen rallied for two runs in the sixth and scored the winning run in the last of the seventh on singles by Inniger, Jerry Vogelewe and Wendell. Reff homered for Citizens in the seventh inning.

Two Brothers will oppose the Klenk team in the first game Tuesday, with McMillen meeting Adams County Trailer Sales in the second contest. Friday's results:

Mantle, Maris Blast Homers As Yanks Win

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

The Yankees are ready to do business again, Maris and Mantle are back from lunch.

They were "gone" so long, a lot of people had nearly given up on them, but not patient, understanding Ralph Houk.

Houk says if another war broke out tomorrow, the first two guys he'd want on his side would be Roger and Mickey. As a quick afterthought, he claims they're not a bad combination to have in peacetime, either.

Between them both, they have hit a total of 13 home runs during the past week. Each clouted a pair in Friday night's 7-4 victory over the Minnesota Twins that kept the Yankees a scant half-game from first place.

Mantle, still hobbling occasionally because of a thigh injury that isn't completely healed yet, tied a major league record by connecting for successive homers off loser Camilo Pascual in his first two times up.

Mick Slammed 17th
Mick had hit a pair of homers against Kansas City Wednesday in his last two times at bat, so that made him the 13th player ever to hit four homers in consecutive times up. He has 17 for the year, seven of which came in the past week.

Maris, with 21 homers for the season, rapped his first of the game Friday night with two on in the opening frame and connected again with the bases empty off reliever Lee Stange in the fifth.

The M&M bombardment provided Ralph Terry with his 11th victory, although Luis Arroyo came to his aid and held the Twins hitless over the last 2-1-3 innings.

Cleveland held on to its slim lead with a 5-3 triumph over the Chicago White Sox while the Los Angeles Angels slipped from a first-place tie to third place by losing to the Boston Red Sox, 12-7. Detroit bumped Baltimore, 5-4, and Kansas City outscored Washington, 12-9.

Giants Crushed Dodgers
The San Francisco Giants climbed within a half-game of the National League lead by crushing the first-place Los Angeles Dodgers, 12-3. Philadelphia snapped Pittsburgh's seven-game winning streak, 6-2. Houston blanked Cincinnati, 2-0. The New York Mets swamped the St. Louis Cardinals, 10-3, and the Milwaukee Braves beat the Chicago Cubs, 5-3, in 10 innings.

Ruben Gomez notched his first victory for the Indians even though tagged for 11 hits by the White Sox. Early Wynn was felled in a bid for the 29th victory of his career when he was driven from the box in the fifth as Cleveland increased its lead to 4-0.

No-hit pitchers Bo Belinsky and Earl Wilson both failed to survive in the Red Sox victory over the Angels. Belinsky walked four of the first five men he faced and they all scored. Wilson had an 11-0 lead but still was chased during a 10-run fifth. Arnold Earley finished and was the winner. Pete Runnels and Jim Pagliaroni hit homers for Boston.

Pinch hitter Vic Wertz came off the bench in the ninth inning and belted a homer off Hoyt Wilhelm to dissolve a 4-all tie between the Tigers and Orioles. It was the first homer Wilhelm gave up this season. Jim Bunning scattered 10 hits for his ninth win.

A's Rallied In Seventh
Jerry Lumpe's double with the bases loaded highlighted a seven-run eighth-inning rally by the A's after the Senators had taken a 9-5 lead on homers by Bob Johnson, Chuck Hinton, Jim King and Bob Schmidt. The victory went to Gordon Jones while Bennie Daniels suffered his 10th straight loss after winning the season opener.

Juan Marichal was the big difference between the Giants and Dodgers. He struck out 13, allowed only five hits and drove in three runs to register his 12th victory. Stan Williams was the loser as the Dodgers committed five errors.

Art Mahaffey stopped the Pirates on seven hits in scoring his 10th win for the Phillies. The Phils handed Bob Friend his 10th defeat while collecting 15 hits, including homers by Tony Gonzalez and Clay Dalrymple.

Hal Woodeshick halted Houston's five-game backslide with an eight-hit victory over Cincinnati. Woodeshick fanned eight and didn't walk a man in winning his third game and first since April 24. The Colts scored both their runs off Joey Jay in the second on three singles and a sacrifice fly.

Kanehl Grand Slammed
Rod Kanehl's grand slam homer along with homers by Gil Hodges and Charley Neal helped the Mets to their one-sided triumph over the cards. Hodges' homer was the 37th of his major league career, making him the No. 1 right-handed home run hitter in N.L. history.

The victory, hurled by Roger Craig, was sort of a welcome home present for Mrs. Charles Shipman Payson, the owner of the Mets, who just returned from

Cardinals Edge Cubs, 2-1, In Pony League

The Cardinals scored a run in the sixth inning to break a 1-1 tie and hung on for a 2-1 win over the Cubs in Pony League play Friday night.

The run broke up a tight pitching duel between Sam Blythe of the Cubs and Terry Myers of the Cardinals, as the two had battled on even terms throughout the first five innings.

Pat West accounted for the winning run as he walked to open the sixth inning, stole second, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on a passed ball.

Blythe struck out 10 Cardinals in the first six innings, allowing only two hits, before giving way to John Lose in the seventh. Myers whiffed the outstanding total of 19 batters, while allowing three hits during the seven innings he worked.

The Cubs took a brief 1-0 lead in the third inning when Jerry Murphy singled to lead off the inning. Bill Brown, running for Murphy, stole second and third and romped home on a passed ball to put his team in the lead.

The Cards came right back in the fourth inning to tie the score, combining both their hits to score their first run. Myers singled through the middle, stole second, and scored on West's single to left field.

The Cubs threatened in the sixth inning when they loaded the bases with one out, but could not get the tying run across the plate. Dan Kable and Terry Stults got the Cubs' other two hits, a single in the fifth and sixth innings respectively.

Eddie Mathews' 10th inning homer paced the Braves to victory over the Cubs. Mathews' blow came with one on off Don Cardwell. Hank Aaron and Joe Adcock also homered for Milwaukee. Claude Raymond, who relieved starter Bob Hendley in the ninth, was credited with his first victory.

Gay Pitches No-Hitter As Jackets Win

A no-hit pitching feat by Dave Gay featured a double header victory for the Decatur Yellow Jackets over the Pleasant Mills Spartans in an Adams county high school baseball league twin bill at Pleasant Mills Friday afternoon.

Gay hurled his no-hitter in the seven-inning nightcap, won by the Jackets, 8-0.

Decatur had won the first game by an 11-1 count, with Feasel limiting the Spartans to four hits, in the five-inning opener.

In the opener, the Jackets were held scoreless in the first inning, but scored in every other inning for the triumph. Custer had two safeties for Decatur in each game.

Former Wave Forced To End Ocean Swim

NEW YORK (UPI) — Endurance swimmer Britt Sullivan never did get to Coney Island the way she wanted to, but she swam her way into the record books just the same.

The 27-year-old former Wave had to end her marathon ocean swim Friday when her legs refused to kick any longer, after 85 hours in the water. She was brought to shore 25 miles from her Coney Island goal.

Even though Miss Sullivan did not accomplish her aim of a 100-mile trip, her 75-mile swim from Southampton was more
