WANTED! MEN - WOMEN

from ages 18 to 42. Prepare now for U. S. Civil Service job openings in this area during the next 12 months. Government positions pay as high as $14,000 a month to start. They provide much greater security than private employment and excellent opportunity for advancement. Only positions require little or no specialized education or experience.

But to get one of these jobs, you must pass a test. The competition is keen and in some cases only one out of five pass.

Lincoln Service helps thousands prepare for these tests every year. It is one of the largest and oldest privately owned schools of its kind and is not connected with the Government.

For FREE information on Government jobs, including list of positions and salaries, fill out coupon and mail at once. TODAY! You will also get full details on how you can prepare yourself for these tests.

Don't delay — ACT NOW!

Warning Shot Fired By Policeman Fatal

MUNCIE, Ind. (UPI)—A warning shot fired by a policeman in capturing an 18-year-old parolee proved fatal to the youth Sunday.

Roy A. Raines, Muncie, was found dead in the bull pen at the Delaware County Jail here about two hours after he was arrested with three companions.

Authorities said the youth died of a wound from a ricocheting bullet fired as a warning by Muncie Patrolman William Sours. Sours and another officer said they stopped Raines and three companions for questioning early in the morning. Suddenly Raines broke away and started to run.

Sours said he raced after the youth and captured him after firing three warning shots into the ground. Raines was taken to jail and attendants said they did not realize he had been shot.

Lions Defeat Pittsburgh In Playoff Bowl

UPI Sports Writer

Some guys are pure gluttons for punishment.

That includes those thoroughly worked-over casualties from the weekend's bowl games who still haven't had enough football and play to play some more next Sunday.

Hardest hit of all were the poor Pittsburgh Steelers, who not only dropped a 17-10 decision to the Detroit Lions in the National Football League's Playoff Bowl game at Miami, Fla., Sunday, but also suffered three severe injuries.

Here was the damage: Steeler fullback John Henry Johnson was kicked in the left eye, suffering a concussion which sent him to the hospital.

Halfback Bill Daniel suffered a broken jaw and went along with Johnson to the hospital.

Dan James, the Steelers' 260-pound tackle, got off a little easier with a possible chipped ankle bone.

Rough For Both

The Lions, each of whom collected $600 as compared with $400 for each of the Steelers, didn't come away unscathed themselves.

Detroit fullback Kenny Webb was knocked cold with one swipe of Big Daddy Lipscomb's arm and halfback Pat Studstill was flattened in his collision with Daniel.

Milt Plum's passing and Webb's running made the difference for the Lions. Webb took a 20-yard touchdown pass from Plum in the second period and scored again on a two-yard plunge in the third period.

For all their lumps and bruises, some of the Lions and Steelers will be back for more next Sunday when the NFL's Eastern Conference stars meet the Western Conference standouts in the Pro Bowl game at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

They'll have company, too, because the American Football League holds its All-Star Game the same day at San Diego.

More Tame
Four other bowl games were played during the weekend but they were more tame. Maybe it was because all four involved collegians instead of pros.

In the two other games played Sunday, Ron VanderKelen of Wisconsin led a North team to a 20-13 victory over the South in Honolulu's Hula Bowl, and Louisiana State quarterback Lyn Amedee sparked the East to a 38-10 triumph over the West in the Crusade Bowl at Baltimore, Md.

On Saturday, the South defeated the North, 33-27, in the Senior Bowl at Mobile, Ala., and the National All-Stars downed the Southwest, 33-13, in the first Southwest Challenge Bowl game at Corpus Christi, Tex.

Coming off his fine Rose Bowl performance, VanderKelen completed 20 of 33 passes for 244 yards at the Hula Bowl. He connected for the winning touchdown on a 17-yard toss to Hugh Campbell of Washington State in the final period. Kermit Alexander of UCLA was a consistent gainer for the losers and was awarded the Governor's Cup as the most valuable back of the game.

Crowd Is Small
In the Crusade Bowl, Amedee, a 5-foot-11, 180-pounder, kicked a field goal, passed for one touchdown and ran for another before a disappointing crowd of only 2,394. The game was composed generally of draft choices of the eastern and western conferences in the NFL.

Although the South won the Senior Bowl game at Mobile, the North came in for most of the plaudits by fighting back from a 27-6 halftime deficit to almost pull it out.

Lynn Griffing of Mississippi, who quarterbacked the South, threw three touchdown passes and was voted the game's outstanding player. Jerry Gross of Detroit starred for the North, breaking two Senior Bowl records with 23 passes good for 317 yards.

The North was on the South's one-yard line when the game ended.

Quarterback Charles Furlow of Mississippi State threw two touchdowns and passed and fullback Bill (Thunder) Thornton of Nebraska scored two more in the National All-Stars' one-sided victory at Corpus Christi.

The winners, coached by Sid Gillman of the San Diego Chargers, started slowly but clinched the game with 20 points in the second period.
